Dulles Asks Cease-Fire, Says Situation Is Grave

Rockefeller Declares Protection Of Job Opportunities Is Necessary

Job opportunities in the state must be protected in the future, Nelson A. Rockefeller, Republican candidate for governor, told an audience here Wednesday afternoon during a stop at Broad way and Pine Grove Avenue on his upstate campaign tour.

Delayed one hour and 25 minutes—he was scheduled to speak at 12:30 p. m. the GOP state standard bearer, apologized for the delay, attributing it to the interruption of a railroad train at a crossing in Hudson.

"It's a bad way to run a railroad, and a bad way to run a government," Rockefeller said smilingly.

Wife, Son With Him

The GOP candidate, who made other stops throughout the day from Albany to New York City, was accompanied by his wife, and son; Rep. Kenneth B. Keating, candidate for U. S. Senator, and his running mate, Assemblyman Malcolm Wilson of Westchester County, candidate for lieutenant governor.

He was greeted by Assemblyman Kenneth L. Wilson, of Woodstock, chairman of the Ulster County Republican Committee, and N. LeVan Haver, city GOP chairman.

An audience of about 200 persons, who had gathered at 12:30 awaiting Rockefeller's arrival and then dispersed for the most part, reassembled at 1:55 p. m. as the campaign entourage arrived.

Welcomed At Factory

With a warm and effusive personality, he moved through the crowds, shaking hands and, attracted by greetings of employes at a nearby factory, made his way to the second floor of the building to receive their welcome.

Described by former Mayor Frederick H. Stang as a candidate with "experience in government and integrity," Rockefeller said he wished the campaign party "could stay longer."

He avowed that he would deal with the problems of state government "with foresight" and turning to the factory workers said: "There were job opportunities in the past and we must work to protect them in the future."

Congressman Keating, of Rochester noted his many friendships in this area and the terms he served with former Congressman Jay LeFevre of New Paltz, who was standing in the audience. He also praised Congressman J. Ernest Wharton, State Senator Ogden E. Bush and Assemblyman Kenneth L. Wilson, who greeted the campaign party as chairman of the Ulster County Republican Committee.

The Senate candidate said he had "never seen such enthusiasm across the state" as that accord-

Adams Case Seen Strangest Yet, No One Has Answer

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP)—Whether Sherman Adams quits or stays, it's one of the strangest cases in a long time—packed with drama.

As was the case 10 days ago right after the Republican political disaster in the Maine elections, no one close to President Eisenhower at the summer White House would bet you that Adamas will weather the storm and continue as Eisenhower's chief aide.

Ike Doesn't Know

Those in the inner circle insist they just don't know. What is more, they insist that Eisenhower himself doesn't know—simply because, they say, Adams hasn't told the President.

There is the drama. These presidential lieutenants in Newport have said repeatedly that Eisenhower never will take the initiative and tell Adams he is through. They said Adams will have to make up his own mind.

They picture the wiry, white-haired Adams as going through the greatest agony of his 59 years in trying to reach a decision.

The background, of course, is that last June a congressional investigating committee nailed down that Adams had accepted costly gifts and favors from an old friend, Bernard Goldfine, at a time when the Boston industrialist was in trouble before federal regulatory agencies.

Adams acknowledged getting gifts and favors. But he testified he never exerted one whit of influence in behalf of Goldfine. He said he made only routine inquiries about Goldfine's difficulties.

At a Washington news conference June 18, Eisenhower said Adams had been imprudent but that nevertheless "I need him."

Clamor Goes On

That might have ended it, despite the clamor on the part of a good many GOP candidates that Adams had to go.

Then on Sept. 8 in Maine, the Elections Office Open Saturday Until 12 Noon

The last day for Central Registration in the city of Kingston, where personal registration is required, is Saturday, September 20. The board of election office on John Street will be open Saturday from 9 a. m. to accommodate those who may be out of town on the regular registration days.

In order to vote on election day all voters must be registered. In the city of Kingston personal registration is required and any voter who expects to be absent from town on the regular registration days still has an opportunity to register between now and noon Saturday at the board of elections office.

City Registration days this year will be Oct. 3, 4, 10 from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m. and on Oct. 11 from 7 a. m. to 10 p. m.

County Registration days are Oct. 4, from 7 a. m. to 10 p. m. and Oct. 11, from 1 p. m. to 10 p. m.

General Election will be Tuesday, Nov. 4, with polls being open from 6 a. m. to 7 p. m.

Precedent Is Set In Private School Aid, Faubus Says

NEW YORK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus of Arkansas said today there are many precedents for government assistance to private schools, such as have been proposed in Arkansas to circumvent integration.

He cited federal grants to education for lunch programs and other assistance.

"If the federal government can do this, how can they prevent a state from doing it?" he asked during an interview on the NBC-TV "Today" program from New York.

'Right Never Denied'

"There are thousands of private schools existing throughout the nation," he added. "Their right has never yet been denied by any court in the land."

If such a plan were put into effect in Arkansas, he was asked, did he not expect it to be contested in federal court by the federal government, private citizens or the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People?

"Perhaps," Faubus replied. "Any citizen has the right to take any matter into federal court if qualified to do so."

Little Rock citizens will vote Sept. 27 on the question of whether high schools will be integrated. Faubus was asked what would happen if voters turned down integration.

"We will need to find some

Four New Patrolmen Appointed

No Answer Given To Cahill Charges

Four new patrolmen, due to begin duty Oct. 1, were named last night by the police board which asked Mayor Edwin F. Radel to commend the police department, as now organized, "for the fine, alert police work of the past several weeks."

None of the three men mentioned by Matthew V. Cahill, former city judge and corporation counsel, in charges Tuesday night, was on the list of new appointments.

Says Names Skipped

Cahill had charged before the Common Council that names had been illegally skipped in previous appointments, and that money was being taken illegally from the the city treasury to pay new men on duty.

The men involved, he said, were Otto A. Short, of 40 Second Avenue, who topped the list, his son, Richard V. Cahill, of 466 Albany Avenue, third on the list, and Robert A. Brown, of 218 Catherine Street, who rated eighth. Cahill said he represented the three, but Short said he had "not employed him for any legal proceeding."

The board issued no statement in answer to the charges.

One Is Special

One of the four new patrolmen named, Frank W. Monte, 27, of 79 Abruyn Street, has been serving as special officer since Sept. 30, 1956. He had served in the U. S. Coast Guard from 1948 to 1951, and before his appointment as a special officer, he had been employed by the Cornell Steamboat Co.

The others named were Robert Bonesteel, 34, of 114 O'Neil Street; Edward J. Ortlieb, 22, of 10 Spruce Street, and George B. Barringer Jr., 36, of 166 Henry Street.

Bonesteel is a U. S. Air Force veteran, World War 2, having

Thruway 'Take' 12 PC Over 1957

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — Toll revenues on the State Thruway hit $4,413,188 in August, another new high.

The total bouncing upward month after month, represented a 12 per cent increase over August, 1957, the Thruway Authority reported today.

Receipts from the state's share of restaurant and garage concessions pushed the overall figure for August to $5,076,971. The eight-month total is $23,243,052.

Despite record incomes in all phases of operation, the Thruway Authority plans an overall study of costs of operating the superhighway. There have been reports that toll rates will be increased.

Thruway officials are concerned that trucking firms have not used the highway as much as expected.

However, the authority reported that commercial revenue for the first eight months ran 15 per cent ahead of the comparable 1957 period. Passenger car revenue was up 11 per cent.

JUDICIAL GROUP HONORS ELSWORTH —Committee members of the Republican Judicial convention met at the Governor Clinton Hotel Wednesday to officially notify Judge Roscoe V. Elsworth of Port Ewen of his selection as candidate to succeed himself on the Supreme Court bench for a second term. Principals include seated (l-r) Robert W. Herzberg, Columbia County; J. Eugene O'Gorman, Sullivan County; Elmer M. Rasmussen, Rensselaer County; T. Paul Kare, Schoharie County and Judge Paul Fromer, Greene County. Beck Named To Zoning Board Post

Mayor Edwin F. Radel today announced appointment of Attorney George A. Beck, 27, of 38 Fairmont Avenue to the zoning board to succeed Attorney Joseph Avis, of 146 Main Street, who recently announced that he did not seek reappointment.

Beck's appointment is for three years and is due to expire Aug. 21, 1961. Avis was appointed eight years ago and succeeded Richard Kalish as president.

Siena Graduate

A native of Kingston, Beck was educated in local schools, was graduated from Kingston High School in 1948, and from Siena College, Loudonville, in 1952, with a degree of Bachelor of Science in Economics. He is a graduate (1955) of Albany Law School, Union University and was admitted to the state bar the same year. He practices law at 286 Clinton Avenue.

A member of the New York State and Ulster County bar association, he is on the legislation committee of the state association. He is a member of the Kiwanis Club, Knights of Columbus, Catholic War Veterans, and is county chairman of the USO and Muscular Dystrophy Association of America.

A veteran, he served two years with the U. S. Army's Judge Advocate General's Corps, and was 19 months in Germany. He is married to the former Margaret Anne Kelleher and has two children Kathleen M., and Harry J. Beck.

Letter to Avis

Mayor Radel today sent the following letter to Avis:

"Your recent letter to me, and the press releases dealing with the contents of said letter, has been most helpful to me in the decision involving the appointment to the zoning board.

"I write to inform you that over the years you have done a

Accepts Bid for Second Term

Elsworth Is Officially Notified of Selection

Judge Roscoe V. Elsworth, who has served the Third Judicial District as a Supreme Court Justice since January 1, 1945, was officially notified Wednesday of his selection by the Republican Judicial convention as a candidate to succeed himself on the Supreme Court bench for a second term.

The notification was made by a committee named by the convention, headed by Attorney Donald Gallagher of Albany County, and including a representative from each of the seven counties in the district.

Expresses Appreciation

Judge Elsworth accepted the nomination at a meeting in Governor Clinton Hotel, where 14 years ago he received a similar notification.

In accepting the nomination Judge Elsworth expressed his "deep appreciation" for the faith and confidence that again had been placed in him and revealed that it was in the same room 14 years ago that he had accepted the nomination for a first term.

Members of the committee designated by the Judicial convention who were present at the ceremonies Wednesday were:

Donald Gallagher, Albany County, chairman; Robert W. Herzberg, Columbia County; Judge Paul Fromer, Greene County; Elmer M. Rasmussen, Rensselaer County; T. Paul Kane, Schoharie County; J. Eugene O'Gorman, Sullivan County and Morris Rosenblum, Ulster County.

Only Name Presented

Judge Elsworth, who prior to elevation to the Supreme Court bench practiced law in Kingston, resides in Port Ewen and has served the Town of Esopus in the board of supervisors, was Ulster County Republican County Chairman and has been active in civic matters. Among the numerous groups to endorse him for re-election was the Ellenville Bar Association, the Ulster County Bar Association and several other associations in the Third Judicial District. At the Judicial convention in Albany September 3, his was the only name to be presented to the convention and he was unanimously selected following the nomination, which was presented by Attorney George Rusk of Marlborough and Kingston.

Attorney Gallagher in notifying Judge Elsworth of his selection as candidate for Supreme Court Justice said:

Gallagher's Remarks

Gentlemen:

"On September 3, the Republican Judicial Convention for the Third Judicial District convened at Albany to nominate a candidate for the high office of Justice

HST Calls State Ticket Greatest He's Ever Helped

Former President Harry S. Truman and Gov. Harriman campaigned along the Hudson Valley today — as Truman put it — to paste the Republicans because they need pasting."

Due for City Visit

The former president, Gov. Harriman and Hogan were due to arrive in Kingston for a brief stopover at 4 p. m. today. They were scheduled to speak at Pine Grove Avenue and Broadway.

The Democratic trio followed a similar visit of top Republicans who spoke yesterday afternoon at mid-town Broadway. The GOP caravan was headed by Nelson A. Rockefeller, nominee for governor; Rep. Kenneth B. Keating, candidate for U. S. Senate and Assemblyman Malcolm Wilson, GOP candidate for lieuteant governor.

Truman used his "give 'em hell" technique to help the Democratic governor in his bid for a second four-year term and to stump for Manhattan Dist. Atty.

Second Aquino Slaying Raises Some Fears for Missing Girl

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—Fears for the life of a missing girl were expressed today by police attempting to solve the gangster-style slaying of the two Aquino brothers.

Two teen-age boys strolling through a rain-soaked field in suburban Tonawanda Wednesday night stumbled on the naked, mutilated body of Fred Aquino, 25, missing since last Friday.

Fred's ex-convict brother Frank, 28, was found beaten and shot to death Saturday on the opposite side of the city. His body was discovered crumpled in the front seat of an expensive, 1958 convertible parked on a street in Lackwanna.

Still missing is Betty Ann Miklos, 18, of Lackawanna, Fred's girl friend. Authorities said they feared for her safety.

Police said Fred's body had been seared, apparently with acid, from the shoulders up. Identification had to be made through fingerprints.

Medical officials could not immediately determine how Fred died or how long he had been dead. An autopsy was ordered.

Authorities speculated that the brothers were killed by out-of-town "professionals" for attempting to push into some form of local vice.

Mrs. Belle Conley, 48, mother of the victims, cried out "they finally caught up with him" when Frank's death was discovered Saturday. She did not elaborate.

When she learned of Fred's death Wednesday night, she called police and said, "I want to see you and the district attorney right away."

Officials talked with her at a hotel, the residence used by both brothers. Mrs. Conley is proprietor of the hotel.

Police also questioned a number of men, including a man from Boston, Mass., who was later released.

They said several telephone calls for Fred had come from Boston three weeks ago but that he had not taken them personally.

Frank was buried Wednesday.

He was released from prison last year after serving a five-year term for the 1952 armed robbery of a hotel clerk in Buffalo.

Fred was once charged in connection with an armed robbery but was acquitted. He had no other police record.

Air Drop Attack May Find U.S. Jets Striking Reds

By FORREST EDWARDS

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — The American command on Formosa indicated today U.S. jet fighters will attack any Chinese Communist warplanes that try to prevent Nationalist supply drops to the besieged offshore islands.

So far the Chinese Communists have made no attempt to attack Nationalist C46 cargo planes parachuting supplies to Little Quemoy Island. Two more drops were made without incident Wednesday, the Nationalist Defense Ministry said.

American fighters flew high over the Formosa Strait off Little Quemoy while the drops were made, ready to swoop down on any Communist MIG fighters that might attack the cargo planes, a U.S. spokesman said.

The U.S. jets did not fly directly over the outpost islands in order to "avoid provocative action," the spokesman added.

He called the American planes far superior to the MIGs which Red China has concentrated on mainland airfields in the Quemoy area. The Nationalist air force presently has available for combat only U.S. planes of older types than the MIGs.

However, Nationalist pilots are now training in six supersonic

Ford-UAW Accord May Set Pattern for Car Industry

DETROIT (AP) — The Ford Motor Co. looked hopefully forward today to a period of labor peace based on a new three-year agreement with the United Auto Workers Union. The pact is expected to set a pattern for the entire auto industry.

Ford and the UAW announced a settlement of their differences Wednesday several hours after some 98,000 workers walked off their jobs in Ford plants across the nation. The strike remained in effect at some plants, pending agreement on local problems.

With the Ford contract tucked in his pocket, UAW President Walter Reuther said he will now turn his attention to General Motors and Chrysler. He undoubtedly will ask for similar contract gains from the two firms.

Terms of the Ford pact, which must still be ratified and approved by UAW locals, bring an approximate 10 cent hourly pay boost for all workers, plus extra fringe benefits. The new average hourly rate is estimated at about $2.52.

Reuther indicated he was optimistic over the chances of a settlement with the other two members of the industry's big three, but he made it clear the union would not hesitate to set a strike

Is Hopeful Of Parley In Warsaw

Armed Conquest Is His View of Issue

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —Secretary of State Dulles declared today the Chinese Communist campaign against Formosa poses a grave threat, with ominous implications. He called for a prompt cease-fire.

Dulles made his comment in a major policy address before the U.N. General Assembly as that 81-nation body opened general debate in its 13th regular session.

Would Return to UN

He expressed hope the talks now in progress in Warsaw between U.S. and Chinese Communist ambassadors would end the current crisis, but reserved the right to bring the problem to the U.N. if the talks appeared headed for failure.

Dulles charged that the Chinese Communist regime is now attempting to extend its authority to the offshore islands by the use of naked force.

"The issue is thus a simple one: Armed conquest," he said.

He said the current actions of the Peiping government demonstrate again that Red China is not "peace-loving"—a phrase used in the U.N. charter in defining requirements for membership in the world organization.

Seating Rejection Likely

Dulles spoke a few hours before the Assembly's Steering Committee was to consider whether the U.N. should debate the question of seating Red China. The committee was expected to reject an Indian proposal for such a debate.

"We seek a prompt cease-fire and equitable conditions which will eliminate provocations and leave for peaceful resolution the different claims and counter-claims that are involved," Dulles said of the Warsaw talks.

"If it seems that the bilateral talks between ambassadors are not going to succeed, the United States reserves the right to bring this matter to the United Nations."

Covers Other Points

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko was expected to speak at the Assembly's afternoon session.

On other world problems Dulles made these points:

Hungary and Germany — The United Nations cannot let itself be discouraged by the refusal of the Soviet Union to end the "brutal suppression of the Hungarian people" and by its refusal to help reunify Germany.

Middle East—The United States is somewhat, but not wholly, reassured by the recent course of events in the Middle East. It is going ahead, however, with the withdrawal of another contingent of U.S. forces from Lebanon. Further, the United States will discuss with the new government of President-elect Fuad Chehab a specific schedule for early withdrawal of other U.S. forces as soon as Chehab takes office next week.

Would Probe Propaganda

Propaganda—The United States hopes the Assembly will consider the possibility of establishing a monitoring system to report on inflammatory broadcasts in the Middle East. This was one of President Eisenhower's proposals placed before the recent emergency session of the Assembly, but not acted upon.

Peace Force—This was another Eisenhower proposal, but Dulles spelled it out more in detail. He suggested that the force would observe and patrol, but would not be equipped for combat. Its personnel would come from small countries and it would be directed

Lawyer Addresses Paltz Jaycees on Real Estate Taxes

Gabrielle explained how the equalization rates are arrived at and spoke as being in favor of assessment at full valuation. He also said he thought the Jaycees filled a definite need in the community and suggested that they conduct forums and symposiums on subjects that are of interest to the public. He urged them, as individuals, to get into politics, know the issues, and as a result make New Paltz a truly progressive community.

Robert Jones, Jaycee Regional vice president from Saugerties, was also a guest and conducted a discussion on methods of obtaining new members and retaining them.

Gilbert Clough, a prospective member, indicated his interest in becoming a member.

In the business meeting conducted by President Eldon Johnson, it was announced by Chairman Joseph Farrell of the Gas Day committee, that plans are in the final stages and the event will be held the first part of October at a local service station. Gas Day was a successful fund raising project run by the Jaycees last year at Reid & Donahues. Final details will be announced next week.

The Jaycees this fall will conduct an essay contest for high school seniors in connection with a national project called "My True Security." Committee Chairman Jack Taylor is now making contacts in the school.

"Host to the World" Chairman Ralph Dennis reported that plans are being made to host overseas delegates on their way to the Jaycee International Congress to be held at Minneapolis in mid-November. An effort is being made to have one or two delegates stay overnight in New Paltz as guests of local Jaycees. Tours to points of interest will be arranged and it is hoped that the Jaycees in some small way can help people from other lands to understand the American way of life, Dennis said.

Before the meeting adjourned, Phillip Rappleyea was thanked for his contribution to the local chapter. Rappleyea is leaving to attend college in Yonkers and indicated his desire to remain on the roster while he is away.

Cottekill

COTTEKILL — The Cottekill Ladies Auxiliary are sponsoring a square dance to be held at the Cottekill Firehouse, Sept. 27. "Pappy" Deitz will supply the music from 8 p. m. to 1 a. m. Refreshments will be available. Tickets will be sold at the door or by contacting one of the members.

Mr. and Mrs. George Maitland left Monday on vacation trip. They recently sold their store in Woodstock.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Conner are on vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Allison Houghtaling of Kingston.

Mr. and Mrs. James Creigh of Elmhurst, L. I., spent the week-end with Mrs. Sherman Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cooper spent last week with their daughter, Mrs. Muril Smith of Bronx.

A reception was held Saturday at the home of Mrs. Olga Strobel, for Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Kelder who were married Saturday morning in Rosendale. There were 20 guests. Mr. and Mrs. Kelder are on a wedding trip to Kentucky. On their return they will make their home in the village.

William Strobel returned home from Benedictine Hospital Saturday.

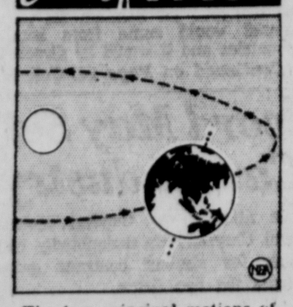
New Paltz Campus School P-TA Meeting

The first general meeting of the Campus School Parent-Teacher Association of the State University Teachers College, New Paltz, will be held Monday, Sept. 28, in the Campus School cafeteria at 8 p. m.

There will be a short business meeting, and Dr. Edward Klotzberger, principal will address the group and introduce the new teachers. Dues are payable now, and P-TA officials expressed hope that parents will take an active part in this year's program.

Seven of the nation's Presidents have come from New York State.

Matter of FACT



The two principal motions of the earth in space are its rotation, or twirling motion like a spinning top, and its revolution, or movement in an elliptical path about the sun. These two motions determine when and how directly the sun's light or energy strikes the earth's surface. Rotation is the cause of night and day, revolution causes the seasons.

WHY MIDDLE EAST IS VITAL—The United States is the biggest producer of oil but has dwindling reserves. At the present rate of use, experts predict there is only enough to supply us for the next 11 years. Charts above pinpoint the situation and show North America with great refinery capacity, world's leading demand and production, but far behind the Middle East in oil underground. Sixty per cent of American companies' reserves are in the Middle East. Data are from an independent survey by Nationwide Insurance company. President Murray D. Lincoln of the company, interprets the findings as a long-range threat of a general war for survival. His solution would be to form a cooperative along the lines suggested previously by Sir Anthony Nutting, former British minister of foreign affairs, so that the Middle Eastern people could share in the benefits of their natural resource.

War Scholarship Deadline Is Set For October 3rd

Children of deceased or disabled New York State veterans who are eligible to compete for the 100 Regents Scholarships for children of deceased or disabled veterans which will be available in 1959, were reminded today by Charles L. Culver, counselor of the New York State Division of Veterans Affairs and Howard C. Shurter, director of the Ulster County Veterans Service Agency that the deadline for applying for the examination is October 3. Each of the scholarships entitled the holder to $450 a year, depending upon the length of the course, for tuition or maintenance while in attendance in any approved college or university within the State of New York.

To qualify for one of these New York State scholarships the candidate must be a resident of the state, a graduate of an approved high school by June 1959, the child of a deceased or disabled New York State veteran, and must take the Regents Scholarship Examination to be held on October 15, 1958 at approved secondary school in the state. In order to qualify for the scholarship and to be admitted to the examination, a candate must file an application with the principal of his school and must complete and send by registered mail his application with supporting evidence to the Bureau of Examinations and Testing, State Education Department, Albany 1, New York on or before October 3, 1958.

Assistance in securing necessary evidence of veterans status, copies of discharge papers and complete information concerning the rights and entitlements of children of deceased or disabled veterans may be obtained by contacting the New York State Division Veterans Affairs at the Ulster County Veterans Service Agency located at 32 Main Street, Kingston with branch offices in Ellenville, Highland, Kerhonkson and Saugerties.

Ave, Rockefeller in Special Pitch to Corral Group Votes

By CHARLES DUMAS
Associated Press Staff Writer

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — Both Gov. Harriman and Nelson Rockefeller are making special campaign pitches for the votes of special-interest groups.

Apparently the Democratic and Republican candidates for governor share the practical politician' long-held view that votes can be won or lost in those blocs.

Advisers Talk, Fret

Their top advisers talk and fret constantly about the reactions of "the — — — vote."

You fill in the blank space. It could be almost any word—like the "farm vote," the "labor vote," the "upstate vote," the "city vote"—and so forth.

The tendency to group votes extends not only to economics and geography but also to racial and religious factors — the "Jewish vote," the "Negro vote," the "Catholic vote," the "Italian vote."

Although some students of politics insist the bloc-voting theory is no longer valid, their view has not been accepted by candidates for public office.

Actually, when you add up all the so-called minorities, you get a majority. And what do you do about overlapping?

For example, an Upstate Catholic who belonged to a labor union would be counted in three blocs. But he casts only one vote.

Both Harriman and Rockefeller style themselves as the working man's pal. They want the "labor vote."

By the same token, as they tell it, they are the bosom buddies of the war veteran, the sympathetic friends of the aging and attentive counselors to the small businessman.

In short, they show themselves friendly to all kinds of voting blocs. The campaign technique is to tell these voters what they want to hear, within the framework of party policy.

Much Anxiety

There's a great deal of anxiety, also, lest one candidate outdo the other in this respect.

Last Sunday, for example, Rockefeller was billed as top guest speaker at a Masonic lodge meeting in Harlem. Harriman had been invited, too, but hadn't been sure he could make it.

Nevertheless, when the meeting convened, the governor was there on the speaker's platform. Both candidates spoke out forcefully against discrimination and for civil rights.

This was sort of a reverse twist on an incident earlier this month, when the Puerto Rican government celebrated the 10th anniversary of the opening of its labor department office in New York City.

Scores Extra Point

Harriman agreed to give the main speech. But Rockefeller wandered in, also. Both praised the contributions of Puerto Rican workers to the economic life of the state.

Rockefeller scored an extra point by chatting in fluent Spanish with Puerto Rican officials. He plans to address Puerto Rican-American voters in New York in their native tongue.

Harriman struck a similar note in a recorded radio message congratulating Jewish people on the start of Rosh Hashana, the Jewish New Year. He concluded with the exclamation "Shalom!" (Peace!)

Meanwhile, both sides are playing for the "women's vote."

This may be a man's world but, you know, these politicians never talk about the "man's vote."

$50,000 Haul

Four Are Held After Police Seize Truck With Drugs

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP)—Three men and a woman were being held today following police seizure Wednesday night of a truck carrying narcotics valued at $50,000 on the illegal market.

The three men were taken into custody by local police and state narcotics agent Al Ginaitis, who said he posed as a possible buyer. Giannitis said seizure of the truck and drugs climaxed six weeks of planning.

Held on vagrancy charges for further questioning were: Pat Lanzone, 31, of East Rochester; Samuel Caccia, 40, and John Ukich, 30, both of Rochester; and Miss Jean Audrey, alias Jean Liefield, 30, of New York City.

Ginaitis said Miss Audrey was arrested after seizure of the truck but declined to elaborate.

The truck carried 22 bottles and eight vials containing what police said were opium and opium derivatives worth $50,000 on the black market.

The truck was seized in the parking lot of a private airport which Ginaitis said had been previously selected as a meeting place.

Short Line

RUCKERSVILLE, Va. (AP)—One of the nation's newest railroads is the "Tootsie RR." A. N. Dulaney and Sam Hagar spent over two years building the locomotive and coal tender. It is powered by a ¾ horse gasoline motor. At present the trackage is just 25 feet, from Dulaney's barber shop to a drive-in restaurant, but they have plans to extend it into a vacant field.

Heads WW 1 Vets

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—F. J. Hollenbeck of Cape Vincent, N.Y., was elected national commander of the Veterans of World War I at the group's sixth annual convention Wednesday.

REGAL REGALIA — Making one of the most colorful exhibits in a ceramics display at a 4-H fair in Salina, Kan., were these replicas of a coronation crown, sword and scepter, displayed by Mary Magnuson. They were made by Mary's aunt, Mrs. Robert H. Levin, who collected earrings to get the "jewels."

IMPULSE TO DESPAIR

There are many poisons that work on the minds and spirits of men. One of the most deadly of these poisons might be called the impulse to despair. This poison is having its deadly, crippling, dispiriting effect on a wider scale now, perhaps, than during any other peacetime period in history.

Men feel themselves trapped in circumstances beyond their control. This may seem odd, since more human beings have a voice in their political destiny now than ever before. But this is counterbalanced by the nature of the peril that confronts humanity. There is little time for deliberation; decisions must often be made too swiftly to allow the unhampered working of the democratic process. And the decisions taken might literally destroy society.

Despite all this, we must not allow ourselves to become victims of that impulse to despair. There are hopeful signs—and not for a baseless, Pollyanna sort of hope, either—along with the Quemoys and Lebanons that tauten the world's nerves.

Nations are working together increasingly in ways that may yet led to peace if the world can be kept on an even keel a while longer. Some 80 nations, both free and totalitarian, cooperated remarkably in the International Geophysical Year. Scientists of both East and West have agreed on a workable plan of detection that could serve as a basis for a nuclear test ban. Geneva meetings of scientists from all over the world have produced optimistic reports of progress in the peacetime uses of atomic energy.

It would be absurd to suggest that instances of cooperation outweight the pressures for conflict. It is not absurd to suggest that there is justification for hope that will counteract the poisonous impluse to despair.

Scientists say returning to the earth may be the most dangerous thing about trips into space. So it is with married men coming home after a celebrative evening.

PREMIUM ON SKILLS

Statistics released by the Census Bureau show that the nation's labor force has undergone great change since the turn of the century. The most obvious difference is the increase in the proportion of women in the total employed.

Perhaps the most striking change, however, is the rise in importance of the skilled worker. In 1900, the number of skilled craftsmen was small and the ranks of the unskilled and semi-skilled were about equal. By 1950, semi-skilled outnumbered the unskilled three to one and there were twice as many skilled as unskilled workers.

This change reflects the growing mechanization of our society. More and more of our work is being done by machines rather than by human muscle. This trend sharply underscores the importance of the best education and training possible for the rising generation.

Another disadvantage of not knowing when we pay hidden taxes is that this denies us the privilege of feeling important.

BETTER AND CHEAPER

A determined move is under way to bring about standarized residential building codes throughout the country. That is cause for celebration, since it is estimated that the nation's present array of widely varying codes, many of them archaic and unrealistic, add about a thousand dollars to the average cost of building a house. In many cases, the needless cost far exceeds that sum.

The movement for reform centers about efforts to have the American Standards Association write model home building codes that could be adopted by communities all over the country. If such model codes were widely adopted, one result would be immediate substantial savings for buyers of houses. There also would be the prospect of long-run savings as the codes encouraged—instead of thwarting, as they now do—development of better, cheaper building methods and materials.

Those whose doctors warn them against overtaxing their physical resources may feel like passing on the admonition to government officials.

'These Days'

AT WAR NOW

President Eisenhower's speech on Quemoy and Matsu was like a breath of fresh air in a fetid chamber. No more appeasement! No more acceptance of bullying! No more fear of an enemy that is strongest in the mouth from which he utters a constant stream of falsehood. General James Gavin made the following observation on this subject in his book, "War and Peace in the Space Age":

"If we are to believe the statements made by the Soviet leaders, from Lenin to Khrushchev, then we are at war now. If this is the case, and I believe that it is, the Soviets are far beyond the planning stage in their strategy. They are in the field of application. Of course, planning goes on concurrently in anticipation of forthcoming events. But the Soviets have a strategy plan in execution today, the object of which is to so weaken the West psychologically, economically and politically that battle will be unnecessary. . . ."

That is the essence of the situation. Khrushchev might have written a book on how to win a war without fighting. For that is what he has been trying to do since he took over the control of the Soviet Universal State. Most of Stalin's ingenuity had been expended in bringing together the pieces of Czaristic Russia, in forming a system of government that would operate at home and abroad without a constant theoretical debate and in developing a heavy industry to be able to fight wars and to compete with Western nations. Stalin avoided a direct conflict with the United States from whom he accepted $11,000,000,000 in aid. He set up standards of co-operation during World War II which were unique and far from satisfactory, but they continued to be proper. Stalin was both cute and astute and as unscrupulous as a Talleyrand.

Khrushchev is a rough-neck who covers a fierce brutality by an urbane manner. Although Ukrainians deny that he is one of them, for which no one can blame them, he was born close enough to the Ukraine and he worked his younger years in the Ukraine, so that he has taken on the gay facade of these people, who like to sing and dance and who are among the most cheerful of the Slavs. This facade stands Khrushchev in good stead, particularly in meeting Westerners who are surprised by his smiling face and his jokes. Most of those who encounter him had never before come across Russians other than the dour, cold, heavy-handed Russian diplomats who look as though they cursed their mothers for having given birth to them, are intrigued by his gay manner.

Khrushchev takes risks that Stalin avoided and the greatest of these risks is war with the United States. Stalin would never have forced such a pacifistic man as President Eisenhower to deliver a war address such as that of last Thursday was. Khrushchev does risk it, however, because he has no sense of security in the Soviet Universal State. The Communist world must for its own safety be a commonwealth in which, while issues are hammered out in congresses and in a constant visit to and fro, final authority has to rest in the Kremlin.

Khrushchev's chief concern has been Mao Tze-tung, an extreme Stalinist who in the early 1920's fought the Trotzkyist element that established the Chinese Communist Party under the leadership of Chen Tu-shiu, and who steadily and regularly has adhered to the Stalinist line through all the changes and vicissitudes of 40 years of the Communist revolution.

With the Right deviationist, Tito, on one flank and the Stalinist, Mao, on the other, Khrushchev has not had an easy time. Mao is Khrushchev's superior intellectually; he is probably the most correct Marxist theoretician in the world today. Khrushchev cannot afford Mao's opposition because it would undermine his influence among Communist intellectuals not only among the satellites and neutrals but even within Soviet Russia. Therefore, Khrushchev must pursue Mao's wish which is to be admitted into the United Nations as China. To accomplish this, Khrushchev risks war with the United States. Stalin always assumed that time was in Soviet Russia's favor. Also Stalin's prestige, while he lived, was so enormous that Mao only grew as a fungus upon the growth of Stalin.

Khrushchev is not in such a position. Therefore he must be constantly at war—but he tries to make it his kind of war.

Childhood Vaccinations Are More Important Than Ever

BY EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

The biggest reason for the improved life expectancy today over 50 years ago is the result of the decline in deaths from the so-called childhood diseases.

This in turn is largely the result of protective inoculations or vaccinations. They have increased the resistance of millions of children to some of the most serious killers of the past. We cannot afford to let down these barriers.

Most children are given several of the vaccinations they need in the first months or years of life. Many of them, in order to insure continued protection, should be repeated one or more times during the school age period.

Furthermore, new developments continue to occur. It may be that some youngsters of college age did not receive the toxoid injections against tetanus or lockjaw which are now so commonly given to small children and therefore could profit by them.

Vaccination against smallpox is usually done within the first six months after birth. After this vaccination, immunization against diphtheria, whooping cough and tetanus (lockjaw) are often given.

Certainly no one should forget today the desirability of immunizing against polio. It has been a disappointment that more have not availed themselves of this preventive measure. Anyone who has ever seen a person crippled with the disease would make sure that all members of the family under 40 were protected against it.

In this connection I might add that recently a preliminary study has been published involving the possibility of combined immunization against polio, diphtheria, whooping cough and tetanus. The early results of such a method look promising.

Today there is a tendency to give many of these protective immunizations earlier and earlier. All of them, including smallpox, should be repeated in the later years of childhood to reinforce the resistance.

Among other possible immunizations is that against typhoid fever. This is a germ disease usually contracted from contaminated water, milk, fruits or vegetables. If a person is going to some part of the world where the sanitation is poor inoculation against typhoid, and possibly other diseases, may be desirable.

The advice of the physician who takes care of the child from birth should be followed regarding what inoculations to take and when to give them.

Washington News

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Five-sixths of the 180 million dollars authorized and three-fourths of the 40 million dollars actually appropriated for first-year operations under the new National Defense Education Act will go to the states, largely for their secondary schools. This makes its new programs of interest to every high school pupil, his parents, his teachers and local school officials.

U. S. Office of Education under Commissioner L. G. Derthick has now made preliminary allocations to the states and territories. They range from $80,000 for Delaware and Wyoming to over two million dollars for New York, Pennsylvania, Texas and California. Most of these funds will have to be matched by state appropriations.

Forty-five state legislatures meet next January. If they act fast in appropriating their half of the costs, some of the new programs could be in operation next spring. Others won't be ready before September, 1959.

CONGRESS AUTHORIZED 75 million dollars—but appropriated only 20 millions—for aids to instruction in sciences, mathematics and foreign languages in the schools. Twelve per cent of the money is earmarked for private school loans.

This money can be used for remodeling laboratories, lab equipment, tape recorders for language instruction, the hiring of math and science supervisors who are now employed by only half a dozen states.

The states will pro-rate their money on the basis of individual school needs. It has been estimated that the whole program will provide $175 each for 700,000 math classrooms, $500 each for 10,000 foreign language classrooms, equipment for 15,000 new and 60,000 modernized science labs.

For the new guidance counseling and testing of high school students, Congress authorized expenditures of 15 million dollars but appropriated only 5.4 millions as a starter. No matching funds are required from the states the first year, but they will be thereafter.

The purpose is to provide counseling service for high school students in choosing a career and planning their education. A second purpose is to find exceptional students and steer them into courses where their talents can be given fullest opportunity for development.

THE NEW Area Vocational Program will be an expansion of vocational training courses now offered in all the states. The new development is that it will train technicians for higher skilled electronic and automation operations.

One great personnel and manpower shortage problem is advancing technology in that engineers and scientists now have to be their own technicians. This program is intended to train higher skilled maintenance men to relieve them.

Students for those advanced vocational courses will be recruited from junior high school to junior college students showing aptitude in this field.

Congress authorized expenditures of 15 million dollars for the first-year program but appropriated only 3.75 millions. This money can be used for payment of teachers, travel expenses of students and teachers, equipment and technical aids for teaching. Nothing is provided for new buildings or maintenance. The plan is to have one of these advanced vocational schools for several counties.

ALL FEDERAL FUNDS must be matched by state appropriations. The program is expected to be slow in getting started, though some states with vocational school administration already established may be able to apply for federal funds before the end of the year.

Congress authorized three million dollars for one year, five million dollars for the next three years, for a stepped-up research program on the use of television, radio, movies and related media in mass education.

But again no money was appropriated. Office of Education has allocated $500,000 to get projects started.

A final provision of the new education act authorizes federal expenditures of $50,000 a year for each state—to be matched by state funds—to gather better school statistics. Office of Education wants this program to move fast so that it will have good statistics on this school year's operations, to aid in future planning.

Shine as Scholars

Helpful Study Hints Are Given

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Millions of students are back in class wondering if they have what it takes to shine as cholars.

They should lend an ear to Dr. Leslie N. Nason, professor of education at the University of Southern California. He's specialized for 20 years in the helping students do better at exams.

Study habits, he says, can make all the difference. And he has a lot of helpful hints.

For Freshman

Here are some he devised for college freshmen—"the freshman year is an ideal time to cultivate proper methods" — but which should benefit students at other levels:

"1. Read the material in the table of contents of whatever book you are studying.

"2. Read the first paragraph or two of the first chapter.

"3. Skim through the chapter rapidly.

"4. Read the summary at the end of the chapter.

"Then start reading the chapter carefully. At the end of each paragraph, ask yourself, 'What did the writer say?' And if you can't answer this question, you were reading too slowly.

On Reading Habits

"Slow reading allows extraneous thoughts and material to penetrate the consciousness. Reading faster serves to whip the mind to a faster rate of operation, thus limiting the circle of perception exclusively to the material at hand."

On lectures:

"You have to prepare for the lecture by glancing at the material to be lectured on beforehand. You get an over-all pattern in mind. You are filling up mind space which is not utilized by the lecturer. He's not talking fast enough to fill up your mind.

"There is a little game you ought to play. If the lecturer is too slow, try to anticipate what he will say about the subject. If you do that, then the entire circle of perception is filled either with the lecturer's ideas or with the over-all pattern of the subject matter."

Supreme Court Decisions Are Viewed as Equivocal

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON—One of the reasons why there is widespread resentment nowadays over several decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States is that there are so many instances in them of plain equivocation. This was underlined when Justice Frankfurter, in the hearing last week, had a colloquy with R. C. Butler, the attorney for the Little Rock school board, on what the court really meant four years ago in brushing aside the famous 1896 case on "separate but equal" facilities as being concerned not with education but with transportation. Here are the exact words of the Supreme Court's 1954 decision on this point:

"The doctrine of 'separate but equal' did not make its appearance in this court until 1896 in the case of Plessy v. Ferguson, involving not education but transportation."

The average person would assume from this wording that nothing important had been said in the 1896 decision about edueation. Yet a reading of the opinion in that case—which was decided by a 7-to-1 vote, as one justice didn't participate — shows that the separate educational systems in vogue in the schools of many states at the time constituted the very basis for the ruling. The Supreme Court majority opinion in the Plessy v. Ferguson case reads in part as follows:

"The object of the (Fourteenth) Amendment was undoubtedly to enforce the absolute equality of the two races before the law, but in the nature of things it could not have been intended to abolish distinction based upon color, or to enforce social, as distinguished from political, equality, or a commingling of the two races upon terms unsatisfactory to either.

Separate Schools Cited

"Laws, permitting and even requiring their separation in places where they are liable to be brought into contact do not necessarily imply the inferiority of either race to the other, and have been generally, if not universally, recognized as within the competency of the state legislature in the exercise of their police power.

"The most common instance of this is connected with the establishment of separate schools for white and colored children, which have been held to be a valid exercise of the legislative power even by courts of states where the political rights of the colored race have been longest and most earnestly enforced."

The foregoing opinion was written about thirty years after the proclamation of the Fourteenth Amendment. The Supreme Court plainly recognized the validity of state court decisions on education and gave several citations in support of its legal position. Yet the 1954 decision of the Supreme Court and the remarks last week by Justice Frankfurter give the impression to the American people that education was not related vitally to the 1896 opinion. Indeed, the Supreme Court in that case did not rely altogether on its own judgment. It quoted with approval from a decision of the highest court, not of a southern state but of New York state which, in upholding separate schools of equal equality of education, said with respect to social equality of the races:

"This end can neither be accomplished nor promoted by laws which conflict with the general sentiment of the community upon whom they are designed to operate. When the government, therefore, has secured to each of its citizens equal rights before the law and equal opportunities for improvement and progress, it has accomplished the end for which it is organized and performed all of the functions respecting social advantages with which it is endowed."

Reason for Rejection

The present Supreme Court nevertheless in 1954 declared, in effect, that the Supreme Court in 1896 didn't understand human nature, and ruled that "whatever may have been the extent of psychological knowledge at the time of Plessy V. Ferguson," it now must be rejected as not supported by "modern authority."

Was the Supreme Court in 1954 lacking in candor when it said that the 1896 case did not involve education but transportation, and when it made no comment on the part education really played in the reasoning on which the Plessy V. Ferguson decision was based?

DO YOU REMEMBER

By SOPHIE MILLER

The Ulster County Fair and the large Dutchess Fair makes you take note of the splendid fruits, vegetables and flowers which can be grown by experts in this section. Yet, there are many home gardeners, who have just little yards and grow the prettiest flowers and have novel rock gardens and healthy vegetables which can be seen all around our city and county and are only admired by neighbors or perhaps those who drive by and cannot stop to say how nice it is. It would be nice if those little home "for-their-own-use" gardeners could get some recognition.

I think Henry Hudson mentioned the fine soil in his famous Juet Journal, anyway the colonists found out about it soon enough and I think no one can match our local grown big red tomatoes in season. You'll see the reddest roses, or big yellow flowers or strong rows of sunflowers facing the sun. Colored pictures could be taken of many of these gardens in bloom and a nice booklet could include them for distribution showing out-of-towners what a nice place this is to live in. Perhaps readers can add to this idea.

It would be pleasant to be able to see the Rondout Creek from Abeel Street but due to the high growth of brush one seldom can see the creek during the height of the summer season. Once you get further towards Eddyville, I notice, usually the brush is cut so a clear view of the creek is available. There is always something going on, on the creek is it is only several blocks that the view is open. I think some years ago they did cut it. I do not know who is in charge of it but anyway it would be nice at this time of year to see the creek and all the activity on it when you go by.

Here are some of the items from City Paragraphs of the Argus newspaper of Wednesday, Feb. 20, 1895, some 63 years ago. "The E. Millen and Co. shirt factory on Greenkill Avenue is running on full time . . . The Peckham Motor, Truck and Wheel Co. have at present over 90 men employed . . . It shipped some seven trucks to Great Britain, Saturday, to be conveyed by the White Star Line. They made 49 packages, being shipped in sections in boxes . . . An opportunity to start a new industry is afforded by a maker of steel wire door mats, who is willing to locate here."

Another item from same local paper: "The three story brick building occupied by J. A. Bernstein and Thomas J. Cusick, has been purchased from Mrs. Cornelius O. Merritt, by L. H. and L. D. Sahler. The latter is a resident of Stone Ridge. The former has been for several years in the West, and has had an extensive experience in the furniture business. Both are brother-in-laws of Dr. C. O. Sahler. The interior of the store will be remodeled for furniture warerooms. New plate glass fronts and an elevator will be among the improvements. L. H. Sahler attended the recent furniture exhibit in New York City, where he purchased an entire stock of goods." I see in the 1897 directory that the Sahler store was at 324 Wall Street. As I understand, the numbers on Wall Street were changed. The late Sam Bernstein used to answer all my questions about the stores on Wall Street and the change of numbers. Perhaps Harry Rigby could be induced to someday unravel the mystery of those Wall Street change of building numbers, like he did with the names of the streets in Kingston.

Presidential Memoirs

FREMONT, Ohio (AP) — President Eisenhower has expressed his appreciation for being remembered by the second grade at Lutz School here. Mrs. Ann Hull's 32 second graders received a note from Anne Whitman, the President's person secretary, after they compiled a scrapbook from clippings of magazine and newspaper articles about the President and his family. It was sent to the President with a letter from the class.

The title of baron is the lowest rank in the British peerage.

So They Say..

The competition to launch the first satellite was strictly between two bunches of Germans —those with Russia and those with us.
—Former Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson.

A landing on Quemoy is now imminent. Your fate is sealed. Think of the tens of thousands of officers and men. Think of the people of Quemoy. Surrender or revolt as an entire unit against Taiwan (Formosa).
—Radio Peiping broadcast to Nationalist Chinese troops.

I believe a clear-cut, strong statement on the part of the United States that any (Red Chinese) attack on our (Nationalist Chinese) territory violates our mutual security would do more good than anything else to keep the peace.
—Madame Chiang Kai-shek.

Ulster Cancer Society Unit Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Ulster County Unit, American Cancer Society was held in the library of the Kingston City Laboratory at noon last Wednesday. President Dr. William S. Bush opened the meeting by congratulating Mrs. Harry Parker Van Wagenen for her 20 years of devoted service with the American Cancer Society and the Ulster County Unit. Dr. Bush mentioned that a permanent record of this fact was in a bronze plaque now installed in the south wall of the first floor near the main entrance of the Tumor Clinic.

The director of Volunteer Services, Mrs. Arthur Freeman, presented her report of activities of volunteer services in the county for the past year. She also reported that $27,541.34 was contributed by the people of the county in the 1958 Cancer Crusade. This is more than $5,000 above the quota assigned by the state division. Leo Kilcoyne, chairman for this year's Crusade, was congratulated for heading this successful campaign.

The following directors were elected to fill vacancies which expire this year: Mrs. William Haggerty, New Paltz; Walter Seaman, Highland; Dr. Jacob R. Moss, Hurley; Dr. John Alley, Kingston; Mrs. William Coy, Clintondale; Dr. Herbert Gade, Kingston; Dr. Gerald Gorman, Kingston; Prof. Charles Wolbers, New Paltz; The Rev. George Winn, Ellenville; Dr. Virgil DeWitt, New Paltz; Leo F. Kilcoyne, Kingston; Richard W. Griggs, Port Ewen; Mrs. James Betts, Kingston.

Officers elected for the year were: President, Dr. William S. Bush, Kingston; vice president, Arthur Jorgensen, New Paltz; vice president, Lloyd LeFever, Kingston; vice president, Mrs. Andrew Snyder, Rosendale; secretary, Mrs. William Haggerty, New Paltz; treasurer, William Darling, Kingston.

Oregon sometimes is known as the "Valentine State," because it was admitted to the Union on Feb. 14, 1859.

Favorable Qualities

NOTRE DAME, Ind. (AP)—What qualities do youngsters desire in their fathers? After a survey of high school students on this question, Sister Mary Theresita reported these results in Ave Marie, Catholic weekly: 1. Understanding. 2. Common sense. 3. Active interest in family affairs. 4. Loyalty to all family members, without favoritism. 5. Gentlemanly conduct. 6. Leadership—he talks things over with the family, but the final word is his.

First Things First

DELPHI, Ind. (AP) — Fire Chief Swinford had just finished explaining to a group of school children all about the department's shiny trucks and complicated equipment. He asked if there were any questions. "Yes," said one little girl and pointed to the firehouse Dalmatian mascot. "What's the dog's name?"

End Play Is Game Saver

BY OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

Lieut. Al Fischl writes from the Kingsville Naval Air Station: "Here is a hand that may interest you. West cashed the king and ace of hearts, and shifted to the jack of diamonds. I won with the king and took dummy's ace and queen of spades.

"When West showed out, I had a sure spade loser. If the club finesse would work, I could still make my contract, but West was one of those light bidders and had failed to open the bidding with the ace and king of hearts and jack of diamonds. Therefore, East was going to have that club king and I had better find an end play or go down.

"The end play was there all right. I cashed my king of spades and queen of hearts and led a diamond to dummy's queen. I discarded one club on the ace of diamonds and ruffed dummy's last diamond. Now I led my last trump and East was in the lead with nothing left in his hand, but the king and a small club."

Lieutenant Fischl continues to point out that he was very lucky. West should have led the diamond before taking the second heart. In that case he would have obtained the lead again and been able to stop the end play by leading a club.

SHOKAN NEWS

SHOKAN — New residents of Ashokan include Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wiesze who have bought a bungalow near the Anthony Macaluso place.

Frank and George Martin of Brooklyn, were callers in the village Saturday. The cousins are grandsons of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Martin whose old homesite is now part of the reservoir preserve. The two men had visited Shokan as boys in days before the waterworks. Frank brought along some interesting old time snapshots, including one of the Martin home which lay between the John DuBois and Millard Eckert places.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Lawrence, are residing on Route 28 in the east of the village.

Visitors here Saturday included Eva, Addie and Elmer Howland, all of Patchogue, L. I. They were accompanied by Edna Longyear, Kingston, and Anna Barrie.

Walter Burger of the old state road, is reported to have resumed his work in Kingston following an illness.

Having a birthday Sept. 26 is Mrs. Frank Sharwell of Route 28. She was born at West Shokan, one of four children of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Bell.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry VanHoesen, Ravena, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Heiselman.

Callers at the local museum Monday included Mrs. John Rocklein, Mt. Marion, and Mrs. Michael Mattia, Lake Katrine.

Joseph Elefant has rented the large barn and adjoining garage in the rear of his store to Eugene Nicholas, one time Shokan resident who is commander of the Olive Legion Post.

CAB Favors Rate

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Civil Aeronautics Board says Mohawk Airlines needs a temporary annual mail rate of $2,074,706, retroactive to May 1, to save it financially.

The CAB said Wednesday, Mohawk's financial status was critical. The airline might suffer "irreparable damage" unless the rate is established without delay, the CBA said.

Actually, the CAB fixes the rate. If the carrier objects to the CAB's original proposal, its case may be considered at a hearing.

First, Things, First

ST. SIMONS ISLAND, Ga. (AP)—Betty Lou Roebuck, preparing to leave for a Baptist youth conference, went to a bank to get some travelers' checks. Asked the teller, "What denomination?" Betty, apparently more church-minded than money-minded, replied: "Baptist, of course!"

The director of Volunteer Services, Mrs. Arthur Freeman, presented her report of activities of volunteer services in the county for the past year. She also reported that $27,541.34 was contributed by the people of the county in the 1958 Cancer Crusade. This is more than $5,000 above the quota assigned by the state division. Leo Kilcoyne, chairman for this year's Crusade, was congratulated for heading this successful campaign.

The following directors were elected to fill vacancies which expire this year: Mrs. William Haggerty, New Paltz; Walter Seaman, Highland; Dr. Jacob R. Moss, Hurley; Dr. John Alley, Kingston; Mrs. William Coy, Clintondale; Dr. Herbert Gade, Kingston; Dr. Gerald Gorman, Kingston; Prof. Charles Wolbers, New Paltz; The Rev. George Winn, Ellenville; Dr. Virgil DeWitt, New Paltz; Leo F. Kilcoyne, Kingston; Richard W. Griggs, Port Ewen; Mrs. James Betts, Kingston.

Officers elected for the year were: President, Dr. William S. Bush, Kingston; vice president, Arthur Jorgensen, New Paltz; vice president, Lloyd LeFever, Kingston; vice president, Mrs. Andrew Snyder, Rosendale; secretary, Mrs. William Haggerty, New Paltz; treasurer, William Darling, Kingston.

Oregon sometimes is known as the "Valentine State," because it was admitted to the Union on Feb. 14, 1859.

Favorable Qualities

NOTRE DAME, Ind. (AP)—What qualities do youngsters desire in their fathers? After a survey of high school students on this question, Sister Mary Theresita reported these results in Ave Marie, Catholic weekly: 1. Understanding. 2. Common sense. 3. Active interest in family affairs. 4. Loyalty to all family members, without favoritism. 5. Gentlemanly conduct. 6. Leadership—he talks things over with the family, but the final word is his.

First Things First

DELPHI, Ind. (AP) — Fire Chief Swinford had just finished explaining to a group of school children all about the department's shiny trucks and complicated equipment. He asked if there were any questions. "Yes," said one little girl and pointed to the firehouse Dalmatian mascot. "What's the dog's name?"

SHOKAN NEWS

SHOKAN — New residents of Ashokan include Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wiesze who have bought a bungalow near the Anthony Macaluso place.

Frank and George Martin of Brooklyn, were callers in the village Saturday. The cousins are grandsons of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Martin whose old homesite is now part of the reservoir preserve. The two men had visited Shokan as boys in days before the waterworks. Frank brought along some interesting old time snapshots, including one of the Martin home which lay between the John DuBois and Millard Eckert places.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Lawrence, are residing on Route 28 in the east of the village.

Visitors here Saturday included Eva, Addie and Elmer Howland, all of Patchogue, L. I. They were accompanied by Edna Longyear, Kingston, and Anna Barrie.

Walter Burger of the old state road, is reported to have resumed his work in Kingston following an illness.

Having a birthday Sept. 26 is Mrs. Frank Sharwell of Route 28. She was born at West Shokan, one of four children of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Bell.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry VanHoesen, Ravena, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Heiselman.

Callers at the local museum Monday included Mrs. John Rocklein, Mt. Marion, and Mrs. Michael Mattia, Lake Katrine.

Joseph Elefant has rented the large barn and adjoining garage in the rear of his store to Eugene Nicholas, one time Shokan resident who is commander of the Olive Legion Post.

CAB Favors Rate

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Civil Aeronautics Board says Mohawk Airlines needs a temporary annual mail rate of $2,074,706, retroactive to May 1, to save it financially.

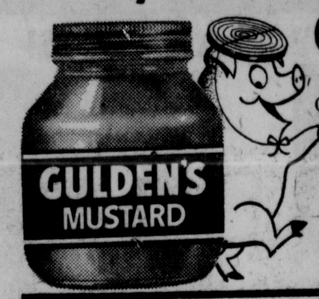
The CAB said Wednesday, Mohawk's financial status was critical. The airline might suffer "irreparable damage" unless the rate is established without delay, the CBA said.

Actually, the CAB fixes the rate. If the carrier objects to the CAB's original proposal, its case may be considered at a hearing.

First, Things, First

ST. SIMONS ISLAND, Ga. (AP)—Betty Lou Roebuck, preparing to leave for a Baptist youth conference, went to a bank to get some travelers' checks. Asked the teller, "What denomination?" Betty, apparently more church-minded than money-minded, replied: "Baptist, of course!"

"Do yourself a flavor—buy GULDEN'S!"



The PAMPERED PORK CHOP is dressed for zest in GULDEN'S rich blend of mustard and rare spices . . . sports a tropical tan and brand new savor!

GULDEN'S... a spice shelf in itself!

End Play Is Game Saver

BY OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

Lieut. Al Fischl writes from the Kingsville Naval Air Station: "Here is a hand that may interest you. West cashed the king and ace of hearts, and shifted to the jack of diamonds. I won with the king and took dummy's ace and queen of spades.

"When West showed out, I had a sure spade loser. If the club finesse would work, I could still make my contract, but West was one of those light bidders and had failed to open the bidding with the ace and king of hearts and jack of diamonds. Therefore, East was going to have that club king and I had better find an end play or go down.

"The end play was there all right. I cashed my king of spades and queen of hearts and led a diamond to dummy's queen. I discarded one club on the ace of diamonds and ruffed dummy's last diamond. Now I led my last trump and East was in the lead with nothing left in his hand, but the king and a small club."

Lieutenant Fischl continues to point out that he was very lucky. West should have led the diamond before taking the second heart. In that case he would have obtained the lead again and been able to stop the end play by leading a club.

Dies in Bay

Wife, Succumbs To Cancer, Four Left Orphaned

RUMSON, N. J. (AP) — The home at 13 Sailer's Way was like most other suburban homes. Mr. and Mrs. James Adams lived there with their four sons.

Then, last week, Mrs. Adams entered Monmouth Memorial Hospital.

Her husband, editor-manager of the New York Purchasing Review, would catch a train so that he could be in his office by 9 a.m.

Youngest 18 Months

The youngest child, Peter, 18 months, would be left in the care of a baby sitter. The others, James Jr., 15; Steven, 11; and Kurt, 8, would go off to school.

But on Monday, Adams was delayed in getting a baby sitter.

Wednesday his briefcase was found aboard the third coach of a Jersey Central Railroad train that plunged into Newark Bay Monday.

His station wagon was traced, and the name of James Adams, 45, was added to the list of those missing and presumed dead in the train wreck.

Mrs. Adams died in the hospital Wednesday night of cancer.

Today, there are four orphans in the suburban home at 13 Sailer's Way.

The Pentagon Building Washington, D. C., is shaped like a geometric pentagon, with five angles and five sides.

ALADDIN'S LAMP IS FEATURED—Dennis Di Donna rubs the legendary Aladdin's Lamp, a feature of the fabulous "Big Top Sale" being conducted all this week at Moderniture, Route 9W. The management has set up a huge circus tent next to the business establishment to display the large selection of items available for the special sale which continues until Saturday. Both the store and tent are open until midnight each day during the sale. (Freeman photo).

Chinese Are Not Disturbed by 'Liberty Blasts'

MAKUNG, Pescadores (AP)—Explosions split the sultry air but fail to disturb the impassive crowd standing beside a dock 86 miles from Communist China.

Chinese are accustomed to firecrackers and the only unusual thing is that these are being fired by American sailors coming ashore for liberty.

Another crackle of firecracker strings sets a group of white-clad sailors jumping and laughing.

Stream From Pier

The sailors stream from the pier into crowded streets lined with dilapidated clay and brick buildings. Loud-speakers blare Chinese music and tunes popular in the States last year.

Small landing boats from the gray U.S. warships outside the harbor pour ashore men in white jumpers and T-shirts—known as "relaxed whites"—before solemn Chinese watchers.

Hours later, the white shirts stream back to the boats with watermelons, pineapples, bananas, mounted lobster trophies and shell ornaments.

'Most Monotonous'

But asked how they like this place, almost to a man they rate it as the 7th Fleet's most monotonous port.

"Except for Bikini, where there is nothing, but nothing," said one seaman.

Makung, with a population of 30,000, is the capital of the small Pescadores Islands, which for defense might be considered the Hawaii of Formosa. It is 40 miles west of Formosa.

The United States is sworn to defend the Pescadores as well as Formosa in its treaty with Nationalist China.

The Pescadores is a staging base for supplying the Nationalist offshore islands. With the recent U.S. Navy participation in Nationalist convoys, the Pescadores are visited by hundreds of U.S. sailors nightly.

Mme. Shafik, Poetess, Is Openly Opposed to Nasser

By RELMAN MORIN
Associated Press Staff Writer

There are no signs in Egypt of any organized opposition to President Gamal Abdel Nasser. Indeed, few Egyptians speak out against him in private conversation.

But one—a strinkingly beautiful woman—has been at war with him, openly, for more than five years.

She is Mme. Dora Shafik, poetess, erstwhile magazine publisher, and a tireless crusader for women's rights in the Moslem world. It is not alone on feminist grounds, however, that she battles Nasser.

She has publicly accused him of depriving Egyptians of their liberties and shackling them with a new kind of colonization.

Mme. Shafik is tall, dark, with flashing black eyes. She is married to a Cairo lawyer. They have two teen-age daughters.

When Nasser promulgated the Egyptian constitution in 1956, she says, Cairo reporters telephoned and asked her to comment on it.

Sees Colonization

"I said no one who believes in liberty could accept it," she says. "This is not freedom. This is a new kind of colonization for the Egyptian people.

"Legally, we are not permitted to discuss the revolution, nor to criticize the constitution. The reporters asked if they could quote me. I told them they could."

The result, she says, has been a slow, shadowy, indirect form of reprisal.

At that time, she was publishing four magazines for women. Only one dealt with political questions. All four are gone now.

She also ran an employment agency for women, and a kind of cafeteria where destitute women would buy food for their families. These, too, are out of existence.

She used to have her poems published regularly in books. "There are no takers for them any more," she says.

Charges Sabotage

"It was a kind of sabotage. There were strange accidents, delays, constant friction. Nothing you could put your finger on. But it succeeded in killing the magazines."

Women stopped coming to the employment agency and cafeteria.

"They spread rumors that I had had a nervous breakdown and was completely deranged. My husband secretly put me in a hospital and had five doctors examine me to disprove it," she said.

"Then they tried to cause trouble in my family. They said that when I was in America there were other men, and that my husband was going around with other women—all absolute lies."

House Is Watched

She said her house is constantly watched. Recently, she was refused a passport to attend an international woman's conference in India. Officials gave her no reason for the refusal.

What now?

"I will go on fighting," she said. "Many are suffering under Nasser but they are afraid to speak. I am not. I am not afraid to go to prison. In fact that would be better—it would be in the open then—to this invisible campaign."

Hidden Wealth

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) —A mystery as to what happened to $37,418 in checks made out to the state by 536 auto license applicants two years ago has been solved. Some of the applicants complained that the checks had never cleared their banks. They were found stuffed in a cardboard box under a table in the accounting office of the license bureau.

Agency Promises Full Airing of Bingo Operations

ALBANY N,. Y. (AP) — New Yorkers will be able to take a good look at all phases of bingo operations, the State Lottery Commission promises.

The commission, apparently prompted by newspaper criticism, decided unanimously Wednesday that its records and hearings would be open to the public.

The agency was set up to supervise bingo after voters last fall legalized the game on a local-option basis, if conducted by certain non-profit groups.

Richards W. Hannah, commission chairman, said after his group met that all interested parties would be welcomed at hearings on suspensions, revocations and appeals.

Records will be made available to the public during regular business hours at the offices of the clerks of various municipalities involved.

Hannah said last week he would recommend that the commision make its proceedings public. He spoke up after newspapers criticized the commission's advising local communities not to divulge the names of applicants granted or refused licenses to conduct games.

Hannah said yesterday his group was "determined to keep the public advised of its proceedings in this new regulatory field."

The commission specified that these records would be public:

Applications for registration and identification numbers; license applications, schedules, applications to amend licenses and schedules, findings on license applications, financial statements on games, statements of persons policing quarters in which games are held and all papers involved in appeals.

1957 Vandalism

Two More Youths Held for Damage At Orange School

NEWBURGH, N. Y. (AP)—Two more teen-aged boys have been arrested in connection with vandalism damages estimated at $15,000 last year at the Newburgh High School.

The boys, identified as Richard Cohen and Everett Correa, both 17, were taken into custody on Wednesday and held for grand jury action on burglary charges.

Police said they were implicated by another youth, James Pitcher, 16, who was arrested earlier on the same charge.

The school was broken into during the night and extensive damage done to books, blackboards and other facilities.

Short Life

ELM GROVE, Wis. (AP) — The test run of the Elm Grove Police Department's new squad car was its last. The new station wagon was delivered to the department in the afternoon. In the evening, a patrolman tried it out on a new highway under construction. The vehicle hit a 12-inch drop, the tires blew out and the dragging gas tank burst into flames. The officer escaped serious injury but the squad car was destroyed by fire.

Memoriam

In sad and loving memory of my husband and our father, Paul Carpino, who passed away one year ago today, Sept. 18, 1957:
What we would give to see you smile,
And sit with you and talk awhile.
The blow was sudden, the shock severe,
To part with you so kind and dear.
Day and night we think of you
The things you used to say and do
We wonder why you had to die
Without a chance to say goodby.
God bless and keep you.
LOVING WIFE AND CHILDREN

Memoriam

In loving memory of our baby boy Leslie Todd Proper who has been gone 3 years ago today, September 18, 1955:
The Master had called our little one
To come with Him above,
To share with little children there
The blessings of His love.
And tho our hearts are heavy
May it ease the pain we bear
Just knowing that our little one
Is in the Master's care.

Tool Engineers Charter Night Held Wednesday

Over 100 tool engineers and guests attended Charter Night last evening at the Kingston Hotel when Catskill Region Chapter, No. 151, American Society of Tool Engineers, received its charter from George A. Goodwin of Dayton, Ohio, national president of the ASTE.

Robert P. Crago, director of enigneering, Military Products Division of IBM Kingston plant was the principal speaker. Crago spoke of this "key profession," saying that without tools industry would not get far.

Joseph L. Petz, national director of ASTE, was toastmaster. The group was welcomed by Alderman-at-Large Harold Kaye who represented Mayor Edwin F. Radel, and by Albert Kurdt of the Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce.

There were 101 members of the Chapter present to receive the charter which was accepted by Attila G. V. DeIlly, chapter chairman. John Kelly is first vice-president; Andrew B. Kearney, second vice-president, of the local chapter.

In presenting the charter it was pointed out that members must be "dedicated men" who form a cohesive group from a wide area, men who are willing to devote time "beyond the call of duty to aid their profession."

In accepting the charter President DeIlly extended greetings to all who had given of his time and effort to make the venture a success.

"To keep abreast of constantly changing industrial processes and requirements tool engineers have a need to exchange ideas and experiences," DeIlly said.

"The Catskill Region Chapter of the American Society of Tool Engineers will fill this need and the end product will be a benefit to ourselves as tool engineers as well as to our community and country. Technological improvements are being made daily demanding more from the tool engineer. Keeping abreast of current changes is a must so we can be prepared to solve the problems of the future. So let's make a resolution to broaden our experience and knowledge. In order to keep interest high and attendance at its peak, the program for the coming year is diversified, educations and enjoyment will be the object of each meeting. To achieve our objective we must count on you to participate actively in chapter functions. Through participation, you will reap the maximum benefits membership entitles you."

Ulster Park

ULSTER PARK, Sept. 18 — Regular services will be held in the Reformed Church on Sunday at the usual time, 9:45 a. m. The pastor, the Rev. Harry E. Christiana will be in charge. Sunday school will be at 11 o'clock.

The annual turkey supper for the benefit of the Ulster Park Reformed Church will be held in the Grange Hall Thursday evening, October 16. Serving will start at 6 o'clock and continue until all are served.

The regular meeting of Ulster Grange, No. 969, was held Wednesday evening at the hall.

Mrs. James Dodge, who has been away for several months, has returned to her home on Hudson Lane.

Mr. and Mrs. Anson Skieman are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son born September 15.

Mobile Nest

CADIZ, Ky. (AP)—A mother wren perches on a fence here and chirps loudly as her nest goes by every day. The wren built the nest under the dashboard of Sam Dawson's car. And every day Dawson drives his car to work. The wren is always waiting when the car returns. The nest has two baby wrens in it.

Central Registration

You may register at Board of Elections office, John Street, until Saturday noon if you expect to be away on Registration Days.

Adult life of the May fly ends within a few hours because the insect cannot digest food.

ELECTED — Edmund S. Muskie, governor of Maine, has been elected to the U. S. Senate in the state's last pre-November election. Muskie, 44, will be the first Democrat Maine has ever sent to the Senate by popular vote.

Clinton Avenue Methodist Men Charter Dinner

The Methodist Men of the Clinton Avenue Methodist Church, recently chartered by the General Conference of the Methodist Church, will hold a turkey dinner and charter presentation night on Tuesday evening beginning at 6:30. The public is welcome and all members and families of the church are especially invited to attend and support the new organization. Tickets may be secured through the church office, or men of the club.

Installation ceremonies for the newly elected officers of the Methodist Men will take place at the morning service on Sunday. The Rev. Dr. Clyde H. Snell will install the officers: William E. Brown, president; Harold Metcalf, vice-president; Robert Gaines, secretary; James Priest, treasurer; and David Taylor, reporter.

Following the dinner on Tuesday evening, the new Charter will be presented by Newton Ford, Kingston district lay leader of Windham, who will speak on the subject "Methodist Men in Action." The Rev. W. Bernard Grossman, superintendent of the Kingston District, The Rev. Hughes of Trinity Methodist Church, the Rev. Kenneth Alexander of St. James Methodist Church and the Rev. Dr. Clyde H. Snell of Clinton Avenue will be among those at the speakers' table. Thomas W. Miller, lay leader at Clinton Avenue, will act as master of ceremonies. Mrs. Marshall Winchell's WSCS circle will be in charge of serving the dinner.

Combined Efforts Can Lower Taxes, Attract Industry

ELMIRA—The coordination of local and area-wide planning will be one of the major problems facing municipal officials in the next decade, State Commerce Commissioner Edward T. Dickinson said here Wednesday.

Speaking before the annual conference of the New York State Federation of Official Planning Organizations, he praised the efforts of the members of local and regional planning boards.

Since 1954, Commissioner Dickinson pointed out, the number of planning boards in New York State towns, villages and cities has increased by one third and now totals at least 428. The number of county planning boards has grown from seven to 15 during this same period. In addition, metropolitan area planning boards have been formed in Corning and Ithaca.

Of great assistance to local and area planning boards, the commissioner said, has been the urban planning assistance program administered in New York by the State Commerce Department. Master plans for 21 communities throughout the state have already been completed and 30 others are under way. "Many applications are now awaiting availibility of further federal funds," he said.

Commisioner Dickinson emphasized that in order to meet the mounting problems generated by rapid suburban growth and central city congestion "we need both an extension of local planning and an extension of area-wide planning. It is important that much closer cooperation be developed between the individual municipality and the county planning board. The county planning board is often able to hire permanent professional help. These professionals are not only valuable in meeting county-wide problems but should be used to assist and advise the unpaid members of local boards."

In each metropolitan area in the state, he noted, whether upstate or downstate, localities share the common problems of water supply, sewage disposal, traffic control, recreation and industrial development. "Communities must plan to use their Home Rule powers in cooperation with other municipalities in their metropolitan area. Cooperation with an effective county planning board can be a major step in this direction.

Mt. Marion

MT. MARION—A faculty tea was held at the Mt. Marion School Sunday afternoon for all teachers of the Saugerties Central Schools.

Mr and Mrs. William Myer are spending a week in New York City.

Robert Calhoun was inducted in the army last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Donahue of Hollis, L. I., spent two weeks with Mrs. A. N. Cramer.

Mrs. Lauretta Ivy of New York City was a weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. Greco.

Marjorie MacDonald of New York City is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mac Donald.

Heather Graff will start her freshman year at Tufts College, Mass., this week.

A family supper will be served in the church hall Sept. 25 by the Women's Auxiliary.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Davis of Hurley visited Mr. and Mrs. Fred Osterhoudt Wednesday.

Beck Named....

most difficult job with an ease and lack of fanfare, but with the results very evident that laborious and time-consuming effort has been expended during your terms of appointment.

"I wish to personally commend you on the efforts you have put forth on this job in behalf of the City of Kingston, and extend to you my sincere best wishes for the future."

Elsworth Is....

of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, in the Third Judicial District, to be filled at the general election this fall.

"After mature deliberation, both at the convention and from the time when the delegates thereto were elected at the fall primary, a distinguished resident of Ulster County was the unanimous choice of the convention for re-nomination.

"In the distant past, with the slow means of transportation and communication, it was often literally true that one nominated for public office did not learn of that fact until weeks later, when he was officially notified by a notification committee selected by the convention.

"Of course, today, with swift transportation, and still swifter communication, the nominee of our convention can hardly be expected not to be aware of his nomination already.

"Yet, for certain offices, the ceremony of notification has survived the remarkable development of swift means of transportation and communication. And the antiquity of the notification ceremony has caused it to lose none of its flavor.

Even if the committee can gather together, from the most distant points of the district, in a matter of hours rather than in days or weeks, its convening still provides a pleasant interlude.

"In keeping with custom and tradition, our convention unanimously selected a notification committee consisting of one representative from each of the seven counties of the district, Albany, Columbia, Greene, Rensselaer, Schoharie, Sullivan and Ulster, and conferred upon me the signal honor of the chairmanship of that committee.

"We now meet in the historic city of Kingston, by reason of the fact that our nominee, the Honorable Roscoe V. Elsworth, is a resident of Ulster County.

"As chairman it is my privilege to address you. I appreciate very much this opportunity. I speak not only as a delegate and a lawyer, but as one qualified by many years of experience to express a solid opinion.

"Most lawyers in this area know I am a very active practitioner, with a practice which requires me to appear constantly before the courts and judges in every county in this district and upstate New York. I have appeared before Judge Elsworth, in different matters, on countless hundreds of occasions. I have formed my own high opinion of him and in addition, on many occasions, have discussed him with lawyers not only from this Third Judicial District but also from other districts. Everyone, regardless of political affiliations, holds him in the highest esteem.

Typical American Career

"Let me tell you something about Judge Elsworth. His career is typically American. Of humble origin, by dint of his own perseverance, industry and character, he has raised himself to a position of eminence in his own community.

"Fourteen years ago the Republican Party nominated him for the office of Justice of the Supreme Court in this district and the people elected him to that office.

"His selection was at that time based upon the considered judgment of his party and the people that he was superbly qualified for this most important office.

"He had been a sound lawyer, with an active experience for a quarter of a century, in every field of his chosen profession.

"He had taken a lively and active interest in the political affairs, not only of his home town, but also of his county, his state and country.

"He has filled every office to which he had been elected or appointed with notable distinction.

Service Marks Fitness

"His entire career pointed to him as a man who possessed the requisite character, conscience and capacity to discharge honorably, ably and well the highly responsible duties of a Justice of the Supreme Court.

"His service during the past 14 years in this office has demonstrated day by day his fitness for the justiceship to which we have re-nominated him. Judge Elsworth has been firm and independent, yet courteous and humane. With a deep knowledge of the law in all its ramifications, he has administered his office with practicality, common sense and a fine feeling for the ultimate goal of justice. He has an inflexible conscience guiding him to do what he feels is right. Expediency and temporizing are no part of his make-up and he has always acted with the dispatch and dignity that befits a judge.

"He is esteemed and beloved by the Bar in the entire district and the lawyers in the district speak of him only in the highest terms.

"The responsibilities of office in the past fourteen years have increased his stature.

"His career is a guaranty that the litigants before him will receive the treatment which is a product of a sound mind and a humane heart; that justice and equity and law will be administered by him, with the same earnestness, zeal and impartiality, whether the litigant is rich or poor, strong or weak, prominent or insignificant; whether of a vast majority group or of a small minority group; and, without permitting any consideration of race, creed or color to enter into the determination of any controversy before him.

"The record that he has made assures that he will continue to discharge the duties of his office in accordance with its finest traditions and its highest ideals.

"It now becomes my pleasant duty to delegate the function of actually notifying Judge Elsworth of his re-nomination to the Ulster County representative of the Notification Committee, and it is with great satisfaction and pleasure that I present the Representative of Ulster County on this committee, Morris Rosenblum."

Morris Rosenblum, Saugerties attorney, in remarks directed to Judge Elsworth, said that in 1944 it had been the late Senator Charles W. Walton, of Kingston, who had given the notification. Attorney Rosenblum said:

Rosenblum's Remarks

"The Republican Judicial District Convention of the Third Judicial District delegated to the members of this committee the pleasant duty of notifying you of the action of the convention in nominating you as the Republican candidate for the office of Justice of the Supreme Court.

"Once before you had occasion to listen to this notice. That was in 1944 when Senator Walton enjoyed the assignment I am now fulfilling. I was not around here at that time. But I recall very distinctly that shortly afterward, when you had been elected, I received a newspaper clipping telling of that event. This news item reached me on the beach of the Island of New Guinea, where I was an insignificant artilleryman recuperating from one campaign and sweating out the next. I wrote to you, expressing, in different words, my gratification in learning of your election, my belief that the bar of the district had exhibited great sagacity in proposing your candidacy, my thanks to the voting public in assuring your election, and my confidence in the manner in which you would uphold the dignity and responsibilities of the office.

"It would have been delightful to have been here at that time. Unfortunately, even a Justice of the Supreme Court could not carry out those arrangements. So I am doubly pleased to stand here today, and say to you, face to face, what I thought then.

Knowledge of Feelings

"All of us knew that the law was both a goal and a standard to you. The experience of the members of the bar during the years of your judicial tenancy has proven this to be a fact. Justice was administered with tact and discretion. You had a knowledge of the feelings of the practitioners, both old and young. You had sympathy for the loser and impressed temperance upon the victor. You realized that litigants were not merely names upon documents, but people with hopes and desires, ambitions and fears. All could not be satisfied. In carrying out the task of your judicial office, you held in view the basic thought that justice, though a harsh mistress, must be applied with wisdom, humility and understanding.

These features have endeared you to us. They have also reaffirmed our assurance in the propriety of the selection of our candidates for this office. While you will have opposition, it is a tremendous tribute to yourself, as a Judge, a lawyer and a man, that the representatives who came from this county opposed the candidate finally selected to run against you, and stated publicly that if your name were placed upon the floor of the convention, they would vote for you. That in itself is as great an accolade as can be given to any person. It highlights the confidence that all lawyers, regardless of party affiliation, have in your integrity and ability.

Lauds Character

"Any of the delegates here today can recount time and again facts and events which prove the wisdom in selecting you as the Republican candidate for this high office. We all know that your character is constant, cannot be changed, and will warrant the unlimited confidence of all. The Republican Judicial District Convention propounded this before the world when the delegates unanimously selected you as the candidate to succeed yourself in office as Justice of the Supreme Court. With great pleasure, we notify you of your nomination by the members of the Republican Judicial Convention of the Third Judicial District of the State of New York, and hope you will accept the nomination."

Acceptance Remarks

In accepting the nomination Justice Elsworth said:

"Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Rosenblum. I thank each of you from the bottom of my heart for your very kind and generous words of notification.

"I accept the re-nomination for Justice of the Supreme Court, Third Judicial District, of which your committee has now formally notified me. In doing so, I want to express to each of the members of the committee present here today, and to all the other members of the Judicial Convention, my deep appreciation for the faith and confidence that again has been placed in me and for the honor you have conferred upon me by renaming me as the candidate of the convention.

"Fourteen years ago this month and in this same room a ceremony like the one of today took place. I was then notified of my first nomination to the Supreme Court. In accepting that nomination I said to the notification committee: "Should my candidacy for this office be approved by the electorate of the Third Judicial District, it is my fervent prayer that I shall, by the conduct of its work and the carrying out of its duties, fully justify the trust, the faith and the confidence placed in me by you and the other members of the convention. I pledge myself to that end."

"I am led to assume—but with modesty—that the members of your convention by the action they have taken found a reasonably satisfactory fulfillment of that pledge. If the electorate concurs in that finding by re-electing me, I re-dedicate myself to that pledge for the five remaining years I may be permitted under the law—and by the grace of God—to serve as a Justice of the Supreme Court."

Rockefeller....

ed Rockefeller, and lauded other Republican officials and leaders in state government.

"People love this man and he loves the people," Keating declared with a prophesy that "he will give this state the greatest record as governor it has ever seen."

Keating, speaking of his own candidacy, said he had worked on a "farm, in a factory and behind a counter" and would give the state "a 24-hour-day, 365-days-a-year" state senator.

Asks Return to Teamwork

Wilson, candidate for lieutenant governor, said the "turnout is very encouraging despite the rain and has not dampened your enthusiasm." He appealed for a strong Republican legislative program and "a return to teamwork legislation."

He, too, praised area legislators and said his namesake" (Assemblyman Wilson of Woodstock) had been helpful to him personally and "has done a magnificient job as county chairman."

The Westchester Republican said "western New York knows the record of Ken Keating," cited his military background and he described him as "admirably equipped."

The Democratic administration in Albany was described as a "tragedy since 1955 because people were indifferent and apathetic in 1954." He expressed confidence in the present GOP campaign and urged the voters to "duplicate the vote you gave President Eisenhower in 1956."

Sees Patience as Omen

Rockefeller, who followed Wilson to the rostrum, said he felt "your patience in waiting in the rain is an omen of the election."

Before rejoining the entourage for a trip to Newburgh and another campaign stop, Rockefeller introduced his son and Mrs. Rockefeller.

Engineers Hold Chapter Parley At IBM Plant

The Ulster County Chapter of the New York State Society of Professional Engineers held their September meeting at the Kingston IBM plant on Wednesday evening.

A tour of the plant preceded the business session and presented the various steps in the assembly and testing of the SAGE computer as well as computers used in business and industry. William Helmisch of IBM plant engineering division, and vice president of the Professional Engineers Chapter, then conducted a question and answer period for the engineers present.

President Henry Millonig summarized the proceedings at the Utica, Binghamton and Bear Mountain meetings of the State Society and emphasized the desirability, where necessary, of affiliation with professional organizations for collective bargaining purposes.

Licensed professional engineers and land surveyors in the county are invited to join the Chapter meetings. Walter S. van der Bent of Shokan and 284 Wall Street, Kingston, will welcome any inquiry.

Signs New Tax Sale Fee

A public hearing on Local Law No. 2, 1958, dealing with an increase in the charge for publication of tax sale notices, conducted by Mayor Edwin F. Radel in the Common Council chamber, drew no atendance Wednesday night, and the mayor signed the measure into law today. The law increases the fee for tax sale notices from $1 to $2 each and makes the amount" more realistic" toward covering cost of the notices. City Clerk Raymond A. McAndrew attended the hearing with the mayor.

Correct Shoe Prices

In the Morris Hymes, 52 North Front Street advertisement, appearing in Wednesday's Freeman the price of shoes, regularly sold for $21.95, should have read selling for $3, $4 and $5 and some slightly higher.

22 Dead, 42 Are Missing as Winds Lash at Tokyo

TOKYO (AP)—Twenty-two persons were reported dead, 42 missing and 108 injured as Typhoon Helen lashed Tokyo and eastern Japan this morning, sped out toward the Pacific Ocean, then headed back toward the northern Japanese island of Hokkaido with renewed fury. One American airman was among those reported missing.

The casualty list in Tokyo and eastern Japan came from national police headquarters, which also reported varying degrees of typhoon damage to 30,000 homes.

More than 3,000 persons were made homeless by torrential rains and flooded rivers that accompanied Helen on its rampage through Tokyo and eastern Japan.

The missing U.S. airman was Sgt. Arch L. Mitchell, 36, of Monterey Park, Calif. He was believed drowned when his rubber life raft overturned on the flooded Naguri River, near Johnson Air Force Base, 38 miles northwest of Tokyo.

Rusty After 12 Years

CHAUMONT, N. Y (.AP)—Edwin Ludlow has his automobile back, but it's a bit rusty.

Two fishermen found the car Wednesday at the bottom of the Chaumont River in this Jefferson County community.

It was stolen 12 years ago. The car, with less than 500 miles on the speedometer, had been driven off a railroad trestle, police said.

U. S. Servicemen Kin Content on Formosa

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Families of American servicemen on war-threatened Formosa apparently don't want to go home.

A U.S. command spokesman said today that so far no military dependents have requested evacuation.

U.S. authorities late last week set in motion a voluntary evacuation plan, authorizing return home for the nearly 6,000 wives and children so desiring.

First Edition Is Found in Albany Of Constitution

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—A state librarian, sorting through a bundle of fire-scorched papers, has found a first-edition printing of the U. S. Constitution. Only three other copies are known to be in existence.

The four-page manuscript was among the papers of George Clinton, New York's first governor after the state separated from Great Britain. He served from 1777 to 1795 and from 1801 to 1804.

The papers, bought by the state from Clinton's descendants, were charred in a fire at the State Capitol in 1911. Salvaged but brittle, they were stored without indexing and later moved to the State Education Building.

Miss Juliet Wolohan, a senior librarian seeking information on the Revolutionary War, scanned the papers Tuesday. She discovered the rare copy. The Education Department announced the find Wednesday.

Dr. Charles F. Gosnell, state librarian, said the copy was one of many printed for the Constitutional Convention after it approved the Constitution on Sept. 17, 1787. The copies were distributed widely, primarily to newspapers for use as a printed supplement to their editions.

As a result, Gosnell said, nearly all of the original copies disappeared.

One copy remains in the minutes of the Constitutional Convention. It is preserved in the National Archives in Washington. The others are in the Boston Public Library and the John Carter Brown Library at Providence, R. I.

New York's copy will be placed on exhibition in the rotunda of the Education Building.

'Redstone' Space Test Is Success

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — Another successful space test has been logged by the Army's reliable Redstone, the nation's only operational ballistic missile.

The 63-foot Redstone, which reportedly twice exploded nuclear warheads in the Pacific recently, roared aloft from the Cape Wednesday with a flash of orange flame.

The Army announced it was the 33rd successful Redstone launching in 36 tries since the missile first was fired in 1953, the most sensational record of any ballistic missile to date.

The versatile Redstone provided the first stage power for the Jupiter-C to push three Explorer satellites into orbit and now is being considered as a launching vehicle for a man-in-space program.

Beacon Area Crash Takes Lives of Two

BEACON, N. Y. (AP)—A teenaged boy and a young man were fatally injured Wednesday night in an automobile collision on Route 9D near here. State police said one car skidded on wet pavement and sideswiped the other.

The dead were Charles Byrd, 21, of Glenham, and Jerry Chambers, 16, of Fishkill.

They were passengers in a car driven by Edward Dolfinger, 18, of Fishkill, who was injured along with another passenger, Allen Greene, 17, also of Fishkill.

Police said their vehicle skidded and sideswiped a car driven by Dr. Arthur Nathan, 43, of the Castle Point Veterans Administration Hospital at Beacon. He was hospitalized there with injuries from the wreck.

Reject Petition

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—In what may be the forerunner to a suit in federal court, Montgomery's City Commission Wednesday rejected a petition by 120 Negroes asking to use all-white city parks.

The commission again vowed that if necessary to prevent race-mixing, the parks would be closed.

Man Charges He Was Kidnapped by Police in Haiti

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP) —Alfred Mark Edelson, of 76 Storer Ave., New Rochelle, N. Y., said today Haitian police kidnaped him at gunpoint last Sunday and held him incommunicado for 20 hours.

A U. S. consul told him Monday that he had been accused of plotting to kill Haiti's president but would be released if he left the country within an hour, Edelson said.

Edelson said his captors roughed him up.

Edelson, 30, who said he is a Columbia University graduate student on a Caribbean tour, gave this account:

He arrived in Haiti Sunday after visiting Puerto Rico and the Dominican Republic and went to the mountains outside Port Au Prince.

On his way back to the capital he stopped to look at signs on a movie theater in suburban Petionville. As he turned to leave, Edelson said, a car with five men in it stopped. One man left the car and asked Edelson his name.

"Then four others sprang out with guns," he said. "They had me against a wall. They roughed me and dragged me into the car at gunpoint, one gun against my neck."

Quizzed in Jail

He was taken to a jail and asked questions about persons he had contacted before reaching Haiti, the purpose of his visit, whether he knew ex-President Paul Magloire and other Haitian politicians, and whether he had received money from politicians.

A U. S. consul came to see him in jail at noon Monday, Edelson said, and told him he was being charged with coming to Haiti to kill President Francois Duvalier. The consul told him he was lucky to be alive, Edelson related.

Edelson said the consul reported Duvalier had agreed to release him if he left within an hour. Police escorted him to a plane and watched him out of sight, Edelson said.

Edelson said he may return to New York in a few days and intends to file an official protest.

Depends on Vote

Adams Ave's Choice for Hogan's Job

NEW YORK (AP)—Gov. Averell Harriman has picked former Police Commissioner Francis W. H. Adams for Manhattan district attorney to succeed Frank S. Hogan if Hogan is elected to the U. S. Senate.

Important political factors appeared to be behind Harriman's offer of the office to Adams.

For one thing, the offer appeared to be a declaration by Harriman of political independence from Tammany Hall leader Carmine G. DeSapio.

Offer Under Thought

Harriman announced Wednesday night that he had requested Adams to take the district attorney's post if Hogan is elected to the Senate as Harriman's Democratic running mate.

Harriman said Adams had told him he would "give the matter every consideration at the appropriate time."

When Hogan was nominated at the Democratic state convention —over Harriman's original opposition—the governor made it clear he would name an interim successor without outside influence.

After Harriman's announcement Wednesday night, Adams told a news conference he would run the district attorney's office in his own way if he took over.

Commenting on DeSapio, who engineered Hogan's nomination for senator, Adams said:

"I would not consult DeSapio or any one else in this world about how to run the district attorney's office."

Denies Promises

Adams was asked about reports that his acceptance would be conditioned upon Tammany Hall's endorsement of him as a candidate for the post in the 1959 election.

Adams replied: "I am not a party to or concerned with any promises . . . no such promise exists."

Adams' formal statement also said:

"I regard it as of the first importance that the district attorney's office should be completely nonpartisan and, more important, that it should be free from any political or other influence."

Hogan, answering newsmen's questions, said Adams was not one of the several persons he had suggested to Harriman as a possible successor. He said the governor informed him he had settled on Adams.

No DeSapio Comment

The early announcement of Adams' selection as an interim appointee appeared designed to reassure voters that the office would be in capable hands if Hogan is elected to the Senate. Hogan has had both Democratic and Republican nominations for the district attorneyship.

DeSapio, when asked about the selection of Adams, said "I don't know anything about it and I have nothing to say."

Harriman's offer to Adams, it was believed, would help to placate those who backed Thomas K. Finletter, former Air Force secretary, for the Democratic Senate nomination.

Harriman, it was disclosed on Wednesday, has asked Finletter to serve as chairman of the citizens committee that will manage Harriman's campaign for re-election. Finletter has not yet announced acceptance of the post.

Denies Push for Control

Political critics in both parties have accused DeSapio, as leader of Tammany Hall, the New York County (Manhattan) Democratic organization, of pushing Hogan for the Senate nomination in order to get control of the district attorney's office. DeSapio has denied this.

If Hogan is elected senator the district attorney's post will be filled by appointment by the governor until the 1959 election, when a successor will be elected for a full four-year term. Hogan's Republican opponent is Rep. Kenneth Keating of Rochester.

Jersey Honors State Hygiene Commissioner

PRINCETON, N. J. (AP) — Dr. Paul H. Hoch, New York State mental hygiene commissioner, has been cited by the New Jersey Neuro-Psychiatric Institute for its first annual award.

Hoch was presented the award, a bronze plaque, at a special ceremony Wednesday night. The institute's board of managers selected Hoch as a psychiatrist who had made an outstanding contribution to the field of neuro-psychiatry.

The award is named in honor of Dr. Nolan C. Lewis, who retired recently as research director for the New Jersey Department of Institutions and Agencies.

REDLANDS, Calif. (AP)—A 16-year-old high school girl and her triplet sons are doing nicely today.

Linda Sue Voss and her husband David, 19, had expected twins. The triplets, born Wednesday two months premature and weighing a total of 12 pounds, were placed in incubators. They were labeled A, B and C pending selection of names by the astonished parents.

Voting machines were used for the first time in the United States at an election held at Lockport, N. Y., in 1892.

Woman, 20, Indicted On Accessory Count

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Mrs. Sandra Kay Powell, 20, has been indicted on a new charge—as an accessory—in the slayings of a farm couple at Somerset.

Mrs. Powell and William G. Long, 26, a tenant farmer and ex-convict, previously had been indicted on murder charges.

Asst. Dist. Atty. Richard Woods said Wednesday this charge against Mrs. Powell would be dismissed.

Long faces trial Sept. 22 on a charge of murder.

Police said Long admitted he slew Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Lippman last May 19 after Lippman caught Long stealing his automobile.

Long and Mrs. Powell were arrested near Brownsville, Tenn., in July. Police quoted Mrs. Powell as saying that Long was the father of her six-month-old daughter. They lived formerly in Warwick, N. Y.

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market was irregularly lower in active trading early this afternoon with rails, some motors and selected issues making gains.

Among pivotal issues the gains and losses ran mostly from fractions to a point or more.

Oils, nonferrous metals, most chemicals and electrical equipments declined. The trend was slightly higher among rubbers and aircrafts.

Adams Case Seen

Republicans were shellacked by the Democrats. The Goldfine case was an indirect issue there, and GOP candidates in other states set up a new howl for Adams' scalp.

Ike Publicly Silent

Since that howl started, Eisenhower has been publicly silent. He called the Republican setback in Maine a beating there is no use trying to disguise.

But all indications at the summer White House are that no one close to him knows whether he has changed his mind about Adams having to stay on because "I need him."

For the first time since Adams returned to his Washington office Monday after a 10-day vacation, the President and Adams talked Wednesday—by telephone.

They had not consulted since Sept. 6, when Eisenhower interrupted his vacation and returned to the capital for a few hours. That was two days before the Maine elections.

Nothing New: Hagerty

James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, told a Newport news conference the Eisenhower-Adams conversation Wednesday dealt only with government bussiness—that it touched in no way on the big question of whether Adams is in or out.

Earlier in the day, Hagerty said he still had not the slightest indication that Adams might be planning to resign—or that Eisenhower might fire him.

Hagerty put it that way in commenting on Washington reports that GOP leaders had prevailed on Adams to recognize that he has no alternative but to resign for the party's good.

served from 1942 to 1945. He is a former resident of Schenectady. Ortlieb, the only one listed as single, has been employed by the Channel Master Corp., of Ellenville. Barringer, a World War 2 veteran served in the U. S. Army from 1940 to 1945. He was formerly employed by Electrol, Inc.

Strength Now at 61

Five men named earlier in the month are due to go on duty Sept. 21.

Last night's appointments now brings the strength of the police force to 61, including the acting chief. The four men named rated 20th through 23rd on the eligibility list. The board, since earlier in the summer, has named 20 men. The force had 54 men in July 1957, when investigations, resulting of arrests on burglary charges and several suspensions pending trials, badly depleted the department's strength.

Reorganization, the mayor noted, was in compliance with recommendations of Lt. Kenneth E. Weidenborner, of the state police, who was assigned "as advisor for the enlargement and modernization of the department."

Mayor to Write Letter

It was also decided last night that the mayor write the commendatory letter "to the department in general" and in the name of all board members.

The mayor's letter, of this date, to all officers and men, said:

"I have been directed by the Board of Police Commissioners to give special notice to all officers and men of the Kingston Police Department that we on the board are well aware of the fine quality of police work that is being done at the present time.

Recognition of Work

"Several outstanding cases are foremost in our minds, and this letter is directed to you in recognition of the keen and alert police work so clearly evident during the past few weeks. Sharp observation, keen memories, and quick action by several officers has been mainly responsible for quick apprehension of violators and solution of a number of cases, several only minutes after their occurrance. Several flagrant traffic violators from outside our city, who endangered life and limb of our residents, were also halted by your alert efforts.

"It is indeed a pleasure for me to direct this letter to the members of the Kingston Police Department in recognition of the fine work evidenced by recent action of many of your members.

"We know that you are anxious to place 'our department' in future contention as one of the finest in the state, and your continued efforts and cooperation will help us all attain that goal."

Commissioners on Hand

It was signed by the mayor and all of the commissioners; Henry Singer, Robert S. Evory, Lawrence A. Quilty and Henry P. Eighmey. All members attended the session, which was advanced a day, because one member was due to leave the city on a business trip today.

Lack of first aid or emergency equipment, as mentioned by Acting Chief Francis J. Fagan, was discussed, and the board advised the chief to obtain estimates for equipping at least one care with a Scott-Pak oxygen mask (or its equivalent,) grappling hooks, emergency rope, first aid kits, and any other necessary equipment. From figures to be submitted and after survey of requirements, "the board will decide how many cars to equip so as to give the maximum coverage to the city."

Dulles Asks....

by a small planning staff within the U.N. secretariat.

Dulles' speech was unusually mild.

He concluded, however, by calling the Soviet Union and some other unidentified countries to task for flouting U.N. decisions and thus trying to set up double standards in the organization — one for themselves and one for others.

Even before the Dulles speech was read Peiping rejected any idea of an immediate cease-fire in the Formosa straits.

Peiping radio broadcast an article from the official Peiping People's Daily charging that negotiations to end the Quemoy shooting, now underway between the U.S. and Red China ambassadors in Warsaw, were a plot to save the Nationalist-held offshore islands from capture by Red troops.

The United States was understood to feel that the U.N. should take up the Formosa crisis if the talks fail.

Dulles, whose general policy address shares top billing with a speech by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko, was slated to spell out how the United States stands on the Far East and other key issues.

Opposes U. N. Debate

Informants outlined these highlights of the Dulles speech:

1. Formosa—The United States considers the isue grave but opposes U.N. debate as long as there is any chance the U.S.-Red China talks in Warsaw might produce agreement.

2. Middle East—Dulles planned to refer to President Eisenhower's proposals before last month's emergency Assembly sesion, including creation of a U.N. standby force, a curb on broadcasting propaganda and a program for economic development.

3. Hungary — Developments in the Soviet satellite since the last Assembly with emphasis on the execution of former Premier Imre Nagy and other leaders of the 1956 revolt.

4. Maintenance of international order—The United States considers indirect aggression a violation of principles in the U.N. Charter.

Gromyko to Talk

Gromyko was expected to outline the Kremlin's position on most of these points when he goes before the 81-nation Assembly this afternoon. The Soviet press and radio already have sounded a call for U.N. action on the Formosa issue.

The United States and the Soviet Union are expected to cross swords when the Assembly's 21-nation Steering Committee debates whether to recommend Assembly consideration on seating Red China. The question got bogged down in discusion of other items Wednesday and it was postponed for 24 hours.

The committee overrode the usual Communist opposition and recommended 13-3, with neutralist Ceylon and Indonesia abstaining, to put discussion of repression in Hungary on the agenda.

Traditional French opposition to U.N. discussion of the Algerian rebellion, which France considers an internal affair, was overriden and the Algerian demand for independence was recommended for the agenda. France announced it will not take part in the discussion.

In all, 64 items were listed for the agenda. Among those recommended by general consent included South Africa's racial policies, international cooperation in outer space, ending nuclear weapons tests and the violence in Cyprus.

Group Action Studies Afford Some Pointers To Future Performance

ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. M., Ohio, writes, "I am a trustee faced with the problem of investing funds during a period when the stock market, by all previous standards, looks very high. Since the trust terminates in three years, I am not too concerned with long-term growth. I would like some addition to capital. Can you give me any pointers as to which group or what individual stocks would be best, in view of the above, to put new money into now?

A. The stock market is, as you say, at a very high level indeed. It is not far from the area which it reached three times in the past two years but was unable to penetrate. I do not look for any catastrophic decline, if business recovery continues to develope along present lines. At the present juncture, it looks as if no more than a normal correction would be in order. This assumes no intervention by the Chinese Reds or by the Federal Reserve Board, both almost equally unpredictable. With the underlying appetite for stocks apparently unappeased, a good forecast might be for a long period of consolidation at quite high levels with some stocks up, some down, and some moving sidewise.

The past never guarantees the future where the stocks are concerned. However, I have always found my studies of past action of stock groups extremely helpful in plotting the future. Some stock groups act much better than others under certain market conditions. This is at least a good clue as to their future performance if such conditions are repeated. Let us assume a period of consolidation ahead. We have just broken out on the upside from such a period. From August 11 to September 5, 1958, the market as measured by the Dow-Jones Industrial Average was virtually unchanged. The 4-weeks net change amounted to a gain in the Dow of 35 points, or 0.07 per cent. During the same period, some of the 52 groups I follow far outperformed the market, the others lagged well behind.

FOOD GROUPS WERE BEST PERFORMERS

Well in the van, during the recent consolidation, were two of my food groups. Leading were the food chains, by a comfortable margin. Their average 4-week gain amounted to 6.98% against a plus change in the Dow of only 0.07%. Next in order of good performance was the food packing group, which showed a comfortable rise of 6.34%. Among the poorest actors were the aircraft makers, the airlines, the rail equipments and the oils. I know that the food chain stocks have generally acted well during a poor market. Recent studies show them able to turn in a good performance during a sidewise market. You would seem to be well justified, then, in committing new funds to the group at the present relatively high level.

You have a fairly wide field to choose from. I am inclined to favor, for your purposes, Kroger Co. common. The latter is particularly solid in Ohio and in the Midwest generally. This is the third largest food chain. Although the price of the stock has risen considerably, I believe an increased dividend and possibly a share split are good possibilities later this year. Safeway Stores, the second biggest chain, is also a good buy. If you do not object to a relatively high price range, I recommend the present (non-voting) Great Atlantic and Pacific shares. With the death of George Hartford, the late great chairman. I think there is a good chance that voting stock in the No. 1 food chain will be offered to the public for the first time and that such stock will be listed on the New York Stock Exchange. If this occurs and you still have funds, I would regard such an offering as very nearly ideal for your purpose.

If you would like a little more yield and a sound but lesser-known issue, I suggest that you look closely at Bayless Markets. The latter operates a chain of food stores in Arizona, with the bulk of operations in Phoenix. You probably know that this state has had a phenominal population growth in recent years, which shows no sign of diminution. Bayless has been one of the major beneficiaries. At about 17½ the stock yields 3.4%. A moderate investment in this issue would, in my opinion, come well within the scope of the "prudent man" rule and could be very rewarding to your clients at some future date.

(Send your investment questions to Mr. Roger E. Spear, c/o this paper.)

Promises Pasting

As the Harriman-Truman motorcade left New York City this morning, Truman told reporters he thought the New York Democratic slate was "the greatest ticket I've ever helped."

The newsmen asked him whether he would hit hard at the GOP. He replied:

"I'm gonna paste the Republicans because they need pasting."

At the first campaign stop in White Plains, Harriman, Truman and Hogan spoke from a platform at a busy traffic intersection to a crowd of close to 400.

The campaigners stood bareheaded in the light drizzle.

Says Ave Great

Truman's speech was greeted with whoops of delight. He told the audience that Harriman should be returned to office because "he's been one of New York's really great governors."

Concerning Nelson A. Rockefeller, Harriman's Republican opponent, Truman said:

"The only thing wrong with Rockefeller is he's a Republican. When he quits being a Republican, he'll get somewhere."

Truman had said earlier during his traditional morning stroll that he liked Rockefeller very much but that he wanted and expected Harriman to win.

He recalled that, while he was president, Rockefeller had held federal positions.

"He did a good job wherever he went, just like President Hoover," Truman said.

Three automobiles and a press bus comprised the motorcade, which covered a route traveled in the other direction Wednesday by Rockefeller and Rep. Kenneth B. Keating of Rochester, the Republican candidate for the Senate.

Precedent Is Set

means or method of opening schools under some plan or other," he replied. "We can't afford to leave the students without a year of school."

Would Abide by Decision

He said that if the will of the people was for integration, he would abide by the decision.

He expressed belief the great majority of Arkansas people was against integration.

Reminded that the U.S. Supreme Court had ordered integration to proceed, Faubus quoted Abraham Lincoln as saying that the people themselves are masters of both the courts and Congress.

He said he thought sentiment throughout the nation was with the state on the question of state versus federal rights.

deadline if such action becomes necessary.

Talks at GM and Chrysler resume today.

A note of optimism came also from GM Vice President Louis G. Seaton, who commented on the Ford settlement:

"I would like to congratulate both parties for arriving at an accord. I know it took a lot of hard work. I see no reason why with hard work and sincerity of purpose around the bargaining table that at GM, too, our people cannot look forward to a long period of labor peace and stability."

John Bugas, Ford vice president who directed negotiations for the company, said he believed GM "will be delighted" with the settlement, and added:

"It is a solid contract. Our settlement with the UAW is not an excessive package."

In the package were included an eight cent basic hourly wage increase for some skilled workers, separation pay of up to $3,000, increased retirement benefits, improvements in hospitalization, surgical and group insurance coverage, provisions for night shift differential, Saturday overtime and jury duty pay.

Bugas said it was up to the Ford board to decide whether the settlement would be reflected in higher car prices.

The settlement came after 30 hours of around the clock bargaining and after 93 days of contract talks between the UAW and the big three.

Air Drop....

F100F Super Sabre Jet fighters, AP correspondent James Cary reported from an air base in southern Formosa. The first group of pilots is expected to be checked out in the planes withint six weeks and then will begin training a full squadron of F100 pilots.

The date when the nationalists will have a full wing of Super Sabres is a guarded secret but conversion to the newer aircraft is on a rush basis, Cary reported.

Lt. Col. James Hallmark of Loraine, Tex., commands the American instructors at the base.

The Communists continued their bombardment of the Quemoy islands which has hampered Nationalist efforts to supply them by sea. In order to supplement the sea route, a massive air drop on big Quemoy is expected by many observers in Taipei.

Two more Nationalist LST's reached Quemoy at noon, unloaded their supplies and withdrew safely, the Defense Ministry said.

Bennett Gets Good Citizenship Award

Robert C. Bennett, 4 Brookside Street, Lake Katrine, manager of the Grand Union Empire Supermarket at Albany and Madison Avenues was presented a Good Citizenship Award Wednesday in recognition of his efforts in behalf of community improvement.

He was presented the award by Ralph D. Lytle, vice president and general manager of Grand Union's Empire Division. The program under which the honor was won is sponsored by the National Association of Food Chains.

Mr. Bennett competed with thousands of managers all over the country for his award. The Good Citizenship Award program was inaugurated in 1955 to recognize supermarket managers who make effective contributions to community progress. Winners are picked on the basis of their answers to a special questionnaire developed by Teachers College of Columbia University, which studies the problem of citizenship under a grant from the Carnegie Foundation.

Academic Jackets

DENISON, Tex. (AP) — Varsity letters and letter sweaters are going to be awarded for academic excellence at Denison High School. "Nothing could provide more prestige to a high school student than the privelege of wearing such a jacket," said School Supt. H. W. Goodgin.

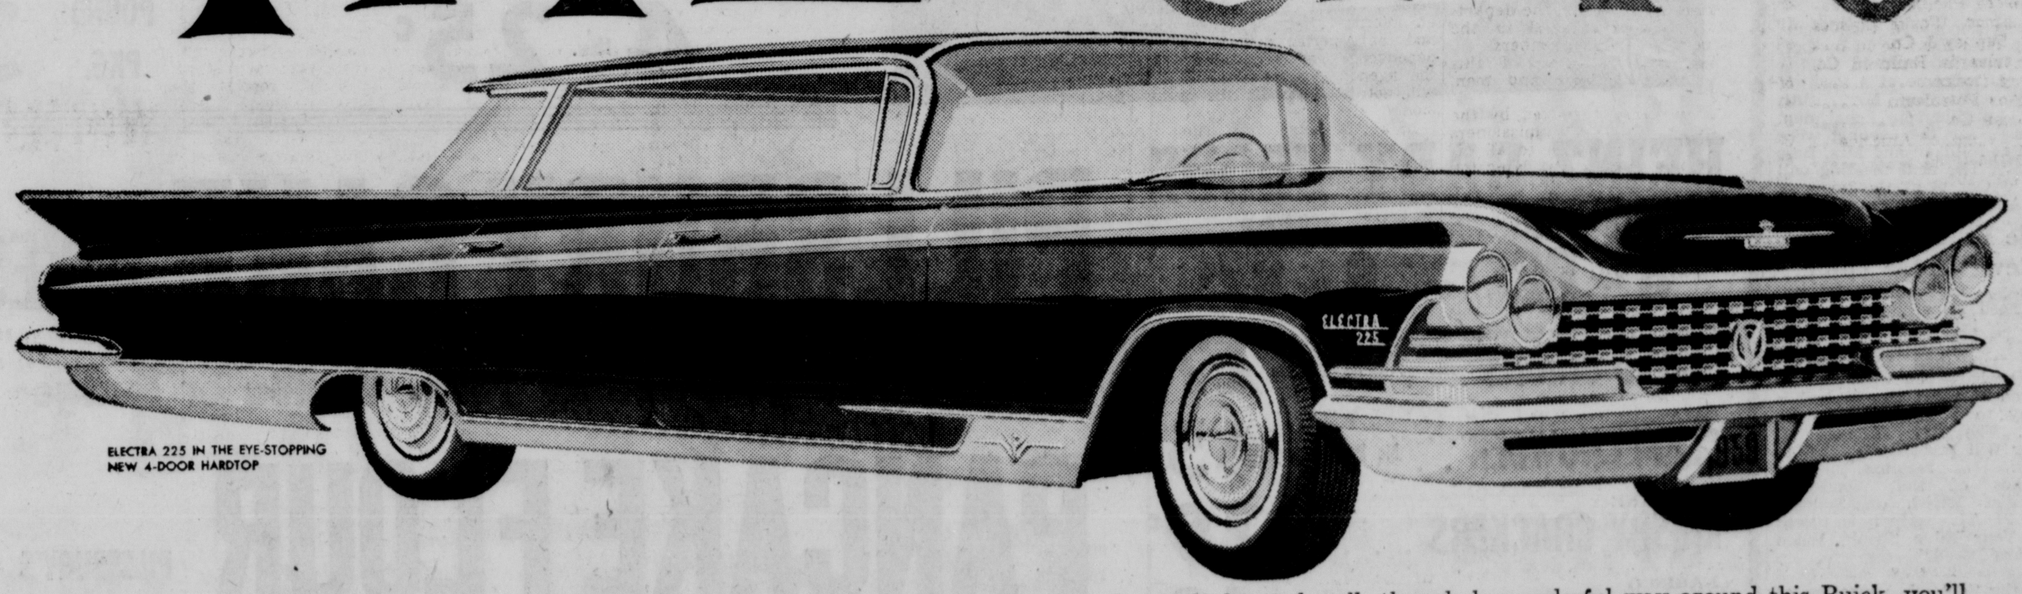
THE CAR



ELECTRA 225 IN THE EYE-STOPPING NEW 4-DOOR HARDTOP

Here it is . . . and now you know! Know why we have called this THE CAR. Know that a new generation of great Buicks is truly now here. From just this one view you can see that here is not just new design . . . but splendidly right design for this day and age. A car that is lean and clean and stunningly low . . . and at the same time great in headroom and legroom, easy to get into or out of. And when you see your Buick dealer and walk the whole wonderful way around this Buick, you'll know still more how right all this is. From anywhere you look, here is a classic modern concept that is Buick speaking a new language of today. A language of fine cars priced within the reach of almost anyone. A language of quality and comfort and quiet pride of ownership . . . a language of performance satisfactions without equal.

THE LOOK. It's a clean, lean, new kind of fine-car look. Fresh. Crisp. Splendid. It's a look that proclaims your good taste to the whole wide world. The look of the best-engineered, best-manufactured Buick ever built . . . and the most excitingly beautiful design in Buick's nearly 60 proud years.

THE ACTION. Get the feel of thrifty new Wildcat engines. New Equipoise ride. New aluminum brake drums. New constant-speed electric windshield wipers. New Easy Power Steering.* New Twin-turbine and Triple-turbine transmissions.* New automatic heat and fresh air control.*

THE QUALITY. Buick quality to the core, new super-quiet bodies by Fisher—and there just isn't anything better. New Magic-Mirror finish retains its beauty longer. New interior décor throughout. Safety-Plate Glass everywhere. A new hardtop design—closest ever to having no top. Magnificent new quietness, new comfort, the feel of fine-car quality everywhere! Yours to test, yours to savor—the look, the action, the quality of the magnificent new Buick for 1959. If you know cars—and if we know you—the car is your car!

New Art Exhibit Points Up Former Village Greats

The new exhibition of art in the Kleinert Wing of the Woodstock Guild of Craftsmen will create through the work of three artists, some of the greatness of Woodstock during that formative period that gave the town the name of art colony.

Carl Olof Eric Linden brought from Europe a rich educational background through which this community profited greatly. Likewise John F. Carlson, who was director of the Art Students League summer school, helped found a western art school beside teaching private classes.

Walter Seaton experimented in different media during the various periods of his forty five-year career. A retrospective memorial show of the paintings of these artists, who gave so much to Woodstock, will open Saturday, September 20, with a reception from 2 to 4 p. m.

Was Born in Sweden

Born in Sweden, Linden studied in Paris and came to this country at eighteen, at the invitation of Ralph R. Whitehead. His work has been exhibited in New York, Washington, Chicago, London, Paris, and Stockholm. He enjoyed landscape painting and collected his subject matter throughout his travels abroad and across the United States. He passed away in 1942.

The paintings of Carlson are today represented in permanent galleries throughout the country. He too is known for his landscapes which he painted in both the east and the west. He also wrote a book on the subject. This is the first exhibition of his work since 1946 the year following his death.

Seaton who enjoyed various phases of art has done many illustrations. Speaking of form he said, "It is a kind of two-way circuit. Having progressed * * * to a certain point on the picture surface, I let the space control me. To the extent that I am able to do this, I am more successful than otherwise." He lived in Woodstock for thirty-one years where he passed away in 1957.

The exhibition of paintings will remain to October 10.

Overlook Unit Sets Fall Project Slate

New projects for the coming year were discussed at the first fall meeting of the Overlook Home Demonstration Unit at the home of Mrs. Irene Murdoch. Mrs. Jimmy Neher presided as chairman.

Among the new projects planned are a millinery class on Sept. 29 and Oct. 1 at the home of Mrs. Bess McCarter, project leaders. Other projects include sandwich making, braided rugs, succession of bloom in the garden, leather gloves and "Do I Count As A Citizen in My State?"

It was announced that membership dues must be in by Oct. 15. Anyone interesed in joining is always welcome at a meeting or by contacting Mrs. Ruth Kinns, membership chairman. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Pat Milliken and Mrs. Bess McCarty. The next meeting will be held Oct .8 at the home of Mrs. Ann Mayer.

Bible Vs. Boredom Is Rev. Wilder Topic

Are you ever bored? Do you ever need something to stimulate your interest in things and people? Does conversation often seem trite and meaningless? Then perhaps you would be interested in what the Bible has to say to you when you are bored. The Rev. Garnett M. Wilder will preach the third in a series of sermons in the churches of the Woodstock Methodist Parish on Sunday, Sept. 21. The sermon is titled: "Let Your Bible Speak, When You Are Bored."

At the September meeting of the Woodstock Woman's Society of Christian Service, the group voted to sponsor a Christmas tea and bazaar on Saturday, Nov. 22, in the church hall. In past years, this occasion has provided good fellowship and many beautiful handmade gifts for Christmas.

PLAYFUL—A handbag with a split personality made its appearance at the International Leather Fair in Offenbach, Germany. A tiny chessboard is mounted on its cover. And it really works. The chess pieces are plugged into slots.

Lutherans Plan Several Events

Sunday, Sept. 21, is a very day in the Lutheran Church. It is the day set apart to honor the apostle and evangelist, St. Matthew, he being the first one to whom our Lord and Saviour said, "Follow Me." Jesus calls all Christians today in the same way. Thus the pastor's sermon is entitled "The Divine Call" which the Rev. G. Oliver Sands will preach at the 11 a. m. service in Christ Lutheran Church in Woodstock Sunday.

This day is also set aside by the Luther League of America as Youth Sunday. Thus the pastor is inviting Luther Leaguers to have a part in the service. Let us all attend as followers of Him. Everyone who has no church home is invited to worship with us.

Sunday school is urged to convene promptly at 9:45 a. m., when the adult group will discuss, "Justice for the Needy and Neglected." If you know of any such around our village, be sure to come out and tell us about them.

The Heart of the Bible group are asked to study Chapter One, which is based upon the first eleven chapters of Genesis. A small prize will be given to those who write in their books the Bible reference for the many verses quoted in this chapter.

The Young Women's Guild meets on Monday at 8 p. m. at the parsonage with Mrs. Sands as hostess. All who enjoy doing hand work are invited and urged to attend.

Plan Annual Session

The congregation of Christ Lutheran Church will hold its annual business meeting on Tuesday evening at 7:30 p. m. All organizations are asked to make a report on their activities and financial standing. All committees are also asked to report at this time. Let all our people plan to come out and take an active part in this work of the Lord. Let us all be ready to do our share in its secular work as well as its religious aspect. Only thus can we use our God-given talents.

Teacher-Parent Talks

The teacher training group from 14 churches which met in Redeemer Lutheran Church, Kingston, last Sunday afternoon plan to talk about the characteristics of certain ages in children. Parents as well as teachers are urged to attend. The Rev. and Mrs. G. O. Sands and the superintendent, Mrs. Donald Zimmerman, attended last week.

Members of the Church Is Rev. Olson Topic

The sermon title for Sunday, Sept. 21, at the Dutch Reformed Church in Woodstock is "The Members of the Church." This is the last in the series on "The Church" and and it will explain how Christ, the Head of the Church, rules His earthly Body through the various officers and offices of the Church. The sermon will answer the question, "How Does the Church Function?". The service begins at 11 a. m. and nursery facilities are available for those who desire them.

Sunday school classes for all ages will meet at the usual 9:30 hour. The topic for the adult class, taught by Pastor Olson, is "A Survey of the New Testament."

Christian Endeavor convenes at 7 p. m. Their suject for study and meditation is "Paul, Mistaken for a God," based on the 14th Chapter of the Acts. This society is also going on a hayride Friday evening, Sept. 19, leaving from the village green at 7:15 p. m.

Name Penning Art President

Tomas Penning was reelected chairman of the Woodstock Artist Association at a meeting held in the Woodstock Art Gallery.

Alice Johnson was chosen vice-chairman and head of the extension program while Gabriel Laderman and John McClellan were named to the exhibition committee. Herman Oxhandler heads the exhibition committee and Bernard Steffen is in charge of house. Arthur Zaidenberg was elected publicity chairman. Rose Garlock is chairman of fund raising. Ann Helioff was elected secretary and Manuel Bromberg, treasurer.

The meeting discussed the possibility of sketch classes in the gallery during the winter and also the possibility of holding one or more functions there during the winter. Anyone interested in a sketch class is asked to contact Dan Revzan.

Can't Win

NEWFANE, N. Y. (AP) — Canada and the United States don't agree on everything, a Canadian motorist told Peace Justice Clive Merritt. The Canadian had been fined $10 for failing to report that his car hit and killed a dog. Another motorist reported his license number to New York State Police. But in Quebec, he and his son were fined $10 each because they did notify the police of killing a dog, the Canadian told the justice. He said Quebec authorities levied the fines for "unnecessary deploying police."

Matter of FACT

The beautiful Sistine chapel in the Vatican is named in honor of Pope Sixtus IV, who built it. He also founded the renowned Sistine choir, made important additions to the Vatican library and established the University of Copenhagen in Denmark during his term from 1471 to 1484.

The dinner committee included Mrs. Luther Filkins, Mrs. Frank Kedenberg, Mrs. Peter Burdash, Mrs. Gordon E. Wilcox, Mrs. Helen Rose.

Nursing Committee To Meet Wednesday

The Town of Lloyd Nursing Committee will hold its first fall meeting Wednesday, Sept. 24, at 1 p. m. at the Health Center. The committee cordially invites all women of the community interested in helping at clinics, and aiding the work of the public health nurse to attend. The election of officers will be held. Meetings are held every other month from September through May.

Village Notes

Casper Davis has returned home from the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon E. Wilcox drove to Oneonta Friday with their daughter, Miss Margaret Wilcox, who enters her sophomore year at Hartwick College.

A Chinese auction was described at the meeting of the UD Society Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ruth Smalley. The society plans to hold one late in October. Mrs. C. I. Richards distributed more yarn to be used in afghans. Attending were Miss Rowena Harcourt, the president, Mrs. G. F. DuBois, Mrs. Harry Thompson, Mrs. Fred Wilklow, Mrs. Abram Rhodes, Mrs. G. E. Wilcox, Mrs. Rose Seaman, Mrs. Peter Wyant, Mrs. Chris Dohrman, Mrs. Charles Champlin, Mrs. Alfred Lane, Mrs. Richards and the hostess.

The trustees and deacons will hold a joint retreat-conference in the Presbyterian Church Sunday, Sept. 28 at 1:30 p. m.

The firemen responded to an alarm Sunday evening when a shed burned on the former Downer farm on the Clintondale road.

One Way or Another

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—A man recently tried to cash a check at the Sound End Bank and Trust Co. Teller George Cherlong refused to cash it. A few minutes later, the man returned and said he had a gun in his pocket. Cherlong, by then, was annoyed. "If you've got a gun," he said, "let me see it or get out." The man left. Then he came back again and asked to see the vice president. The bank had had enough. Police were called and they charged him with attempted robbery. They said he apparently had been drinking.

Accountants Hear Talk on Control Of Industry Costs

Members and guests at a dinner meeting of the Mid-Hudson Chapter of National Association of Accoutants heard George E. Meyers, management consultant, discuss "Maintenance, Planning and Control."

His talk centered around a control program of maintenance labor costs and the problems most industries face in their attempt to reduce costs without actual knowledge of maintenance costs, Meyers said the entire program is founded on the concept that labor costs must be watched if they are to be lowered.

L. Hamilton Krissler, president, introduced new members attending their first session.

A special feature of the evening was the presentation by Hamilton E. Meharg, retired president 1957-58, of the Past Presidents Trophy to the winner D. Robert Knapp office manager of Emmadine Farms, Division of Foremast Dairies, Inc., Beacon. The Past Presidents Trophy is awarded annually to the member submitting the best manuscript. His manuscript was entitled, "Machine Accounting Procedure." Knapp also received the Tucker Trophy, bestowed by L. Hamilton Krissler, and awarded annually to the member most active in all phases of chapter activities.

NEW YORK (AP) — The Link Belt Co., Colmar, Pa., has been awarded a $863,007 contract to supply towers, guides and sills for the main power plant of the Niagara power project.

The State Power Authority, which announced the contract award Wednesday, said the company also will supply a stoplog structure for waterways above the plant. The company's bid was the lowest of six received.

U. S., Red Envoys Probe Plans for Formosa Solution

WARSAW, Poland (AP) — U.S. and Chinese Communist ambassadors met for two hours today to continue probing their countries' plans in the Formosa Strait situation.

The two diplomats left their conference as tight-lipped as they had arrived, but the unusual length of their first two sessions created the impression the negotiators were getting down to brass tacks. They plan to meet again Sunday.

Shortly before U.S. Ambassador Jacob Beam and Wang Ping-nan, the Red Chinese ambassador, conferred for the second time on easing Far East tension, Peiping radio broadcast a refusal to agree to a cease-fire in the offshore islands as long as the talks go on.

No Question: Report

"There is no question of a cease-fire since China and the United States are not at war," said an article in the official Peiping Peoples Daily broadcast by the Communist radio.

"The Chinese people have waged a struggle to liberate the whole of their territories for the past 11 years. The present military action of the Chinese people against the Chiang Kai-shek troops entrenched in Quemoy is a continuation of that struggle and has nothing to do with world tension."

Referring to President Eisenhower's speech urging a peaceful settlement in the area, the article accused Washington of trying to lay down a "cease-fire snare" to lure Peiping into tacit acceptance of American "occupation" of Formosa.

CHOSEN — Dr. Hendrik F. Verwoerd, an advocate of white supremacy in South Africa, is the new prime minister of the 48-year-old nation. Verwoerd, 56, a former editor and teacher, succeeds the late Johannes Strijdom.

It has been estimated that about 11 per cent of the school children in the United States are left-handed.

Niagara Mohawk Must Pay Mother Of Six $75,000

UTICA, N. Y. (AP) — Niagara Mohawk Power Corp. must pay $75,000 damages to a mother of six whose husband was killed while trying to rescue a dog.

John Szwed, a 39-year-old foundry worker, died of electric shock July 22, 1957, while attempting to free the dog from cables near a Niagara Mohawk power pole.

Justice William E. McClusky of State Supreme Court ordered the award Wednesday to Szwed's widow, Anna. It also covers injuries she suffered in trying to aid her husband.

The award was the largest ever made in a negligence action in Oneida County, court officials said.

To Vie in November Contest For Town Peace Justice Post

FREDERICK D. SANDNER SR.

In the only contest on the town level in the November elections in Saugerties, Attorney William D. Brinnier, Republican incumbent, and Frederick D. Sander Sr., Democratic designee will vie for the post of town justice of the peace.

An off year for the election of town offices, balloting for the vacancy became necessary to fill the unexpired term of the late Percy M. Abeel. The term runs to 1960.

Both candidates were nominated recently at their party conventions.

Brinnier, a member of the law firm of Francello and Brinnier with offices in the Knaust Building has served in that post since his appointment in December.

A third generation lawyer, he is a son of the late Grant M. Brinnier and grandson of the late William D. Brinnier, former mayor of Kingston.

Brinnier has also served the village as acting police justice. He is a veteran of World War II and served in the Navy. A graduate of Union College and Albany Law School of Union University, he has practiced in Kingston and Saugerties.

He is married to the former Sally A. Russell, and the couple have two sons, Russell G. and William D.

Active in many civic and fraternal organizations, he is a member of the American, New York State, Ulster County and Saugerties Bar Associations.

Sandner, an employe of North American Cement Company, Catskill, is president of Saugerties Parent-Teachers' Association. He is also active in other town organizations and serves as a sergeant in the Civil Defense Auxiliary Police.

An executive board member of the United Paperworkers International Union, he has served the union as a regional director.

Sandner's wife is the former Sandy Butler of Malden and they have three children, James, Frieda and Frederick Jr.

P-TA Banquet Set To Welcome New Faculty Members

The annual banquet and reception for new members of the Saugerties Central Schools faculty will be held by Saugerties Parent-Teacher Association Wednesday, Oct. 1, at 7 p. m. in the Mount Marion school.

The banquet will mark the beginning of the year's activities for the association. Parents and teachers of children in the Saugerties School District are cordially invited to attend the banquet.

Reservations must be made before Friday, Sept. 26, with a member of the banquet committee. The committee consists of Mrs. Elizabeth Overbagh, Mrs. Vera Jacobs, and Robert Shapiro.

Young People Will Conduct Lutheran Worship Sunday

The young people of the congregation will conduct the 11 a. m. Sunday worship services during the observance of Youth Sunday at St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church, West Camp, it was announced by the Rev. Alvin F. Messersmith, pastor.

Those participating will include the following:

Collect—Annegret Kusserow of Catskill.

Epistle—William Knaust, West Camp.

Gospel—Ronald Smith, Evesport.

Closing prayer — Mary Ann Thorne, Cementon.

The ushers will be Lawrence Schlenker, Roscoe Frantz and Shirley Winchell of West Camp and Gail Wager of Catskill.

The junior choir will offer the anthem, "My Church, My Church."

ULCW at West Camp Plans Evening Group

The organizational meeting of the evening unit of United Lutheran Church Women of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church, West Camp meets Wednesday at 8 p. m. in the parish hall.

A film strip, "My Family's Hungry," will be shown. All members and friends of the congregation are welcome to attend.

Youth Council Fall Meeting Wednesday

The first fall meeting of Saugerties Youth Council will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. in Saugerties village clerk's office.

Arrangements for the annual Halloween parade and observance will be discussed.

Last year the Youth Council sponsored the Halloween parade and a teenage dance in the municipal auditorium.

Firm Officers Plan Meeting on LR High Schools

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Officers of a private corporation established to take over Little Rock's closed high schools planned an organizational meeting today amid predictions from Negro leaders that the plan cannot stop integration.

Mrs. Gordon P. Oates, one organizer of the newly incorporated Little Rock Private School Corp., said the schools will be segregated if the firm operates them.

However, Mrs. L. C. Bates, president of the Arkansas branch of the National Asn. for the Advancement of Colored People, declared: "When the schools open, be it under public or private guidance, Negro children will be there."

Closed By Proclamation

Little Rock's four high schools—including a Negro school — are closed under a proclamation issued by Gov. Orval E. Faubus in a move to prevent integration.

Segregationists have looked to private operation of city schools as one maneuver to avoid Supreme Court rulings that public school segregation is unconstitutional.

The Justice Department in Washington had no immediate comment. But its attorneys are known to feel that a transfer of public schools to private operation can be successfully challenged in the courts if continued use of public tax money is involved and if it can be shown that the conversion is only a device to avoid Supreme Court rulings.

Mt. Tremper Grange Reaches State Finals

Word has been received by Mt. Tremper Grange 1468 that it is among the four top finalists in New York State in the Community Service Contest, which is co-sponsored by the National Grange and the Sears Roebuck Foundation.

The placing of the four as to prizes has not yet been made, but Mt. Tremper is the only Grange in Ulster County to reach the finals.

A team of judges visited Mt. Tremper last Friday. They conferred with local contest chairman, Mrs. Marian Umhey, who showed them some of the projects that the Grange has accomplished in the past year.

A. A. Dalzell Dies

MONTREAL (AP)—Arthur Alling Dalzell, 58, manager of distributing branches for the Dominion Rubber Co., died Wednesday at his home here.

After funeral services here Friday, Dalzell will be buried in Constable, Franklin County, N. Y., where he lived previously. His wife survives.

TV Legends Notwithstanding

Seek to Fill History Breach On Records of U.S. Marshals

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. marshals don't know whether Matt Dillon, Wyatt Earp and Wild Bill Hickock were ever U.S. marshals—despite all the legends and television programs about them. They may have been town marshals.

In fact, what U.S. marshals don't know about U.S. marshals would fill a bunch of big books.

These officers are in the news now because about 150 marshals and deputies have been sent into Little Rock where, if things get rough, they may go after violators of a federal judge's order to integrate Central High.

But meanwhile, E. J. Matchett, boss of the 804 marshals and deputies in the United States and its territories, has asked them to let him know anything they can find about the history of U.S. marshals.

The reason: there's a terrible gap in their history between 1789 and 1870, and even afterwards. What's happened to the records, if there were records? Matchett says he doesn't know.

He has his office in the Justice Department — where the attorney general has supervision over marshals — and he says: "We've turned this place upside down" in search of records "and we can't find them."

The name "marshal" goes away back in colonial and even British history. But Congress in 1789 created the job of U.S. marshal to work with the 13 federal district courts which were created, one for each state.

First 13 Recorded

Matchett says he has the names of those first 13 marshals appointed by President Washington but no others until 1870 when the government printed a register of marshals. It's been printing this register at intervals ever since.

But even the register has gaps, Matchett says. That's why he's asked marshals around the country to search their local records. The information he'd like to get, he says, would fill big books.

As for people like Earp and Hickock, Matchett says he thinks they may have served as town marshals. But he says he has nothing to show they were ever U.S. marshals.

Modern U.S. marshals — unlike sheriffs, or city police or the FBI —can't go snatching law violators off the streets. They make arrests only on orders from a federal judge for some specific offense against a court decree.

For this reason the marshals in Little Rock couldn't be used to preserve order for its own sake but only on instructions from a federal judge if one of his orders was disobeyed.

Other Assignments

But marshals do other things: they take convicted federal prisoners to federal jails, preserve order in federal courtrooms and serve court orders. Under court decree they guard property or seize it, and pay witnesses and jurors in federal court cases.

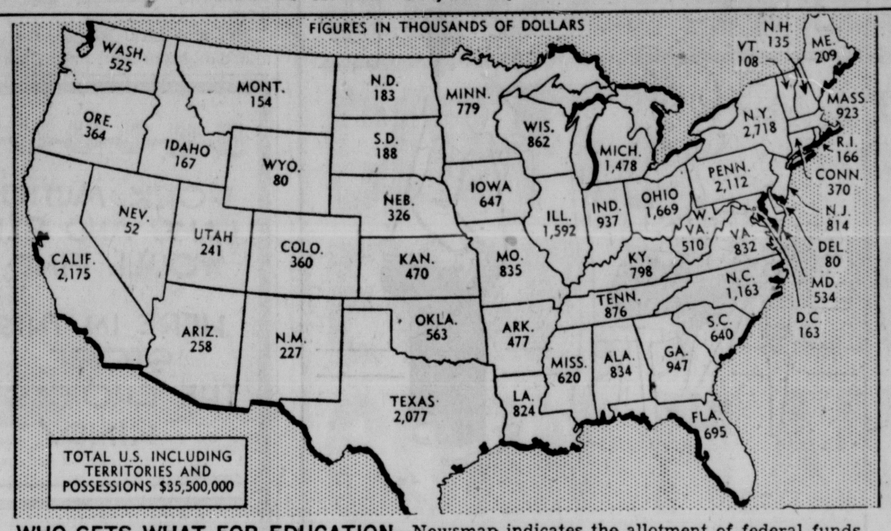
There are 94 U.S. marshals, one for each judicial district. Salary: from $8,330 a year to $12,770, depending on the size of their job. They're appointed by the President for four years, can be fired any time before then.

They're really political appointees, and change with administrations in Washington. They appoint their own deputies, when there's an opening, and usually from their own political party.

No Civil Service

But deputies keep their jobs, don't change with administrations. Pay for the 710 deputies starts at $4,490, goes up to a top of $5,880. Their jobs are not covered by civil service.

But they can get a pension and, despite the low salary, Matchett says turnover is small. They must meet certain requirements to get the job, get a physical test and take a marksmanship test once a year.



WHO GETS WHAT FOR EDUCATION—Newsmap indicates the allotment of federal funds to the various states under the new National Defense Education Act, passed by the 85th Congress. The act authorizes 180 million dollars of school aid funds for the first year, but only 40 millions were appropriated. So one of the first things the new Congress will have to do when it meets in January will be to appropriate more money.

De Dea Statement On School Vote Taken by C of C

Eugene De Dea, Education Committee chairman of the Kingston Civic Association, issued the following statement about the recent Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce school consolidation questionnaire:

The report from the Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce was no different from their original stand. They have been for consolidation from the very beginning.

We must keep in mind that this organization is made up of both rural areas and the city of Kingston.

In conducting the poll, which has just been completed, they state, and I quote "it is earnestly requested that you vote specifically on the question of consolidation and not be influenced by any previous action taken by any individual or group of individuals. We want your sincere and considered opinion on the consolidation issue alone."

The people of the City of Kingston voted against consolidation on April 2, 1958 in a referendum. The board of education of the City of Kingston showed an utter disregard for the will of the people. They decided that we should be consolidated. It would be most interesting if the Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce would run a poll on this question and find how their members feel — whether the will of the people should be upheld or should be ignored according to the will of any group of people or any organization.

WALLKILL NEWS

Chamber of Commerce Holds First Meeting

WALLKILL—At the first fall meeting of the Wallkill Chamber of Commerce, was held Monday evening in the high school cafeteria.

An invitation was received from Commissioner Edward T. Dickinson of the State Department of Commerce to attend the statewide development workshop to be held in Oct. 1 and 2 at Hotel Syracuse, Syracuse.

William Stuart reported on the railroad hearing conducted by the Public Service Commission of the state held May 29 in Kingston. At that time it was dropped, but it will be reopened on Sept. 25 and Sept. 26. A five-member committee with Stuart as chairman, Claude Decker, Clifford Hotaling, James B. Crowell and Richard Parker was appointed by the president to continue action on the matter. After a lengthy discussion, it was the unanimous vote of the chamber that they go on record as voicing their protest of the curtailment of any service provided by the New York Central Railroad in the area.

Chamber also voted unanimously to continue with the blood program conducted under the supervision of the Red Cross. The president was asked to appoint a chairman for the program before the next meeting.

John Gardiner of the Wallkill Recreation Program also spoke to the group about the annual Halloween party for the village children.

A committee of George Brach, Karl Halder and George Heitmann was appointed to plan refreshments for the next meeting to be held on Oct. 20 in the high school cafeteria.

Finance and auditing; Claude Decker, chairman; George Vogel, and Catherine Miller. Publicity, Claude Decker, chairman; Lester Terwilliger, Harold Alsdorf, and Lois Morris. Membership, Adrian Hulse, chairman; George Heitmann, Chauncey McLean, George Knutsen, Jack Ross. Industrial, James B. Crowell, chairman; William Stuart, George Brach, and S. Kelso Sloan. Merchants, James Howell, chairman, Harry Dunn, George Parliman, and Joseph Ronk. Agricultural, Herb DuBois, chairman; Albert Haessig Jr., Wilbur Van Wyck and Carl Lucht. Christmas lighting, Walter Smith, chairman, Herman Mahlandt, Raymond Prescott, George Heitmann, Harry Dunn, Fred Terwilliger, George Parliman, Claude Decker. Regional industrial development, William Stuart, delegate one year; James Crowell, delegate two years; George Brach, alternate one year, S. Kelso Sloan, alternate, two years. Alternates can act for either delegate.

Officers of the chamber are: President, Clifford Quick; Vice President, James B. Crowell; Treasurer, Walter Smith; Secretary, Lois Morris; Directors: Herbert DuBois, Adrian Hulse, Clifford Quick, James Crowell, George Heitmann, Walter Smith, James Howell, Harold Alsdorf, and George W. Parliman, who was appointed to fill the unexpired term of Mrs. Margaret Crist.

Legion Auxiliary Lists Committee Chairmen

Mrs. Marie Flockhart, membership chairman of Rose-Sheeley Unit 1034, Legion Auxiliary is planning a drive for new members and invites all ladies eligible to join at this time. Dues are now payable and those paid before Oct. 1, will reward the Unit.

Mrs. Pauline Auchmoody, president, has named chairmen of other committees: Americanism, Dorothy Wickes; American Legion mountain camp, Gertrude Cameron; cancer control, Louise Scarzello; chaplain, Marion Sullivan; child welfare, Dorothy Wickes; civil defense, Olive Vandemark; community service, Mae Terwilliger; coupons, Nettie Daley; Empire Girls' State, Edna Roach; Empire State News, Vera Prisco; historian, Anna Lown; legislation, Helen Irvine; music, Mildred Harris; Pan American study, Katherine Sowa; past presidents parley and publicity, Florence Morehouse; Poppy, Edna Roach; rehabilitation, Marie Flockhart; place committee, Mabel Almquist.

Sunday Oct. 5, 11 a. m. observance of World Wide Communion Sunday will be held in the Wallkill Reformed Church.

Parents Club Meets

The first fall meeting of the Wallkill Parents Club will be held Thursday at 8 p. m. in the Wallkill Central School. There will be a short business meeting, after which there will be games and get-acquainted with refreshments. All parents of school children may attend and meet their child's teacher as well as all of the teachers in the Wallkill Central School System.

Village Notes

Mrs. John J. Pekurney and daughter, Martha Carol of Syracuse, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Huyler Harder, before her niece entered Vassar College this week.

Miss Pekurney will be remembered as the high school senior, who won first prize this spring in New York State Science Congress, sponsored by 20 colleges and universities, in which Vassar was a participant. Her award is full tuition to Vassar for each of four years of undergraduate study.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Doolittle and sons spent a four day vacation at Cape Cod recently visiting Provincetown, Hyannis, Yarmouth, Chatham, and Orleans.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Garvey and daughters Ann and Ellen of Floral Park, L. I., were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Graham Burmeister and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kroul and daughter, Mary, returned to their home in New York City after spending the summer in Wallkill.

The Wallkill Girl Scout Association met Monday evening to plan for the coming season. Announcement concerning a rally to be held in the near future will be made later.

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) —Bankers are learning about S-E-X-. At least the bankers in New York State have decided that the hand that rocks the economy should be told about the facts of financial and banking life.

The New York State Bankers Assn. has set up a women's committee to tackle the problem of women's understanding of money. Many husbands may think that women already have their own understanding of money — there's never enough of it.

Idea Will Spread

But this isn't the idea the lady bankers have in mind. Rather it's a matter of spreading information about banking and finance. And the committee feels sure that its program quickly will spread to other states.

First, the women bankers will work through the various women's clubs and organizations. There are some 800 of these in New York State alone, with a membership of around 200,000.

Already the committee has 204 women bankers organized for the job. This, in the words of Albert L. Muench, executive vice president of the New York State Bankers Assn., is quite an accomplishment.

300,000 in U. S.

Women aren't hard to find in banking circles hereabout. There are more than 3,000 with banking titles. In the United States there are perhaps 300,000 bank women. But that isn't the reason the association is calling on them to do the job.

The fact is, men, that women are important. Muench says women vote about 70 per cent of the shares at annual meetings of American corporations. He says they are the beneficiaries of 80 per cent of the trust funds. And they have the say-so in spending the greater part of the 355½ billion dollars a year of personal income of the nation.

Their economic importance to bankers also arises from the fact that 21 million women are employed, bringing in some 42 billion dollars before taxes.

Sets Prime Goals

Prime goals of the new drive, under the leadership of Mrs. Dorothy Noble Smith, assistant manager of a branch of the Chemical Corn Exchange Bank in New York City, are set forth thus:

1. To make the public aware of the bank's role in the community in financing business, agriculture, municipalities, families and individuals. 2. to expose the destructive force of inflation and preach the need for sound budgeting and planning. 3. to make the public see the bank as essential to the American type of a capitalistic economy.

Mrs. Smith says the committee will spread the gospel at the drop of a bonnet. It's ready to move in on the women's clubs when and if invited—and it's trying hard to see that it is.

AMERICAN MENU

Cooperation Is Keynote of Large Family Breakfast

BREAKFAST for six hungry boys is a real project for the Jenkins family of Glenview, Ill. Yet they all eat well and hearty.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

Breakfast is important in any family to maintain health, spirits and growth. So all doctors and nutritionists warn. That's why the Jenkins family of Glenview, Ill., takes it so seriously. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins, there are six active sons to feed every morning.

The Jenkins week-day breakfast is served in three shifts. Dad eats with the three and four-year-olds. Then the six, eight, and 10-year-olds eat together and lastly Mom and the baby. But on weekends the entire family eats together.

Mrs. Jenkins says she serves both hot and ready-to-eat cereals every morning. Quick-cooking oatmeal or hot wholewheat cereal are prepared early and kept warm in a double boiler or casserole. She also offers the boys a choice of several ready-to-eat cereals.

How does she manage to feed such a large family? Cooperation is the keynote, she says. Mr. Jenkins does the weekly shopping every Thursday night. Bread and meats are purchased once a month and stored in the freezer.

Fruit crisps are a popular dessert of the busy Jenkins family. Her cranberry-apple crisp is a variation of apple crisp. The topping can be prepared in the morning and combined with the fruit just before placing it in the oven.

Cranberry-Apple Cereal Crisp
(Yield: 6-8 servings)

Topping: Two cups ready-to-eat high protein cereal, wholewheat flakes, corn flakes or bran flakes; ½ cup butter, melted; ½ cup brown sugar, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, ½ teaspoon salt.

Filling: Four cups sliced apples, 1 No. 2 can whole cranberry sauce.

Lightly mix together the cereal, butter, sugar, cinnamon and salt. Gently press ½ of the topping into the bottom of a greased pan 10x6x1¾ inches. Mix together the apples and cranberries. Pour fruit over cereal and sprinkle top with remaining topping. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) until apples are tender and topping is a deep rich golden brown, about 40 minutes. Serve hot or cold, plain or with milk, cream, whipped cream or vanilla ice cream.

TOMORROW'S DINNER: Salmon and green pepper loaf, tomato sauce, baked potatoes, snap beans, seeded rolls, butter or margarine, carrot sticks, celery, cranberry-apple cereal crisp, coffee, tea, milk.

Weekly Food Review

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Ham will appear on many American dinner tables this weekend, judging by the specials offered by the nation's supermarkets and neighborhood grocery stores.

Beef also will be a popular item. Boneless cross rib roast, short ribs, rump roast and regular rib roast are among feature cuts prominently displayed. Offerings of fowl are somewhat scarcer than in the summer months, and leg of lamb also is the featured item infrequently.

No Clear Trend

Meat prices are up a little here, down a little there, with no clearly discernible trend anywhere. Butter is a cent or two higher in some places. Eggs are up a few cents a dozen in some areas, but slightly lower in others.

Although supplies of fresh fruits and vegetables are getting a bit scarcer than a month ago, enough are in season to provide almost any shipper with one or two family favorites at bargain levels. When frost knocks out much of the local produce, things may be different.

Cabbage, potatoes, onions, beets, carrots, radishes, green onions and sweet potatoes are the best buys of the week, although cabbage is a shade higher than recent dirt-cheap levels. Good buys are available, too, from snap beans, cucumbers, sweet corn, spinach, squash (both yellow and green), brussels sprouts, cauliflower, broccoli and iceberg lettuce.

Apples Good Buy

Apples are getting an early start at the head of the best buy list. The most recent Department of Agriculture forecast estimated the crop would run 5 per cent above last year's and 15 per cent above the 10-year average. Peaches still are cheap, although the quality sometimes is irregular this late in the season.

Church Anniversary

CENTRAL CITY, Colo. (AP) —Colorado's oldest Protestant church organization observed its 93th anniversary here recently. The occasion was the annual homecoming service and pilgrimage of the Colorado Methodist Historical Society at St. James Methodist Church, founded July 10, 1859. The building is the oldest church building still standing in Colorado.

Secretarial Group Resumes Meetings

The Kingston - Poughkeepsie Chapter of the National Secretaries Association (International) held its first regular monthly meeting at Broglio's Restaurant, West Park, Monday. More than 30 members with their guests attended.

A fashion featuring "Clothes for the Career Woman" was presented through the courtesy of the Cricket Shop, 356 Broadway. Various tailored styles and costumes to be worn at the office into evening, along with the season's newest type of jewelry were shown.

The Chapter, which received its charter on June 30, 1958, adopted a proposed budget for the year and discussed plans for future activities. Also reviewed and adopted were a set of by-laws for the organization.

Announcement was made of the organization's northeastern regional convention to be held at Ocean House, Swampscott, Mass., on Oct. 3, 4 and 5. The president of the Kingston-Poughkeepsie Chapter will attend as official delegate of the local chapter.

Commitee chairmen for the coming year were announced: Bulletin, Jean Eschenbecker; By-Laws, Blanche Cartier; Program, Bess Caranicos; Membership, Jane Dufur, Finance, Margaret Mellert; Civic, Molly Winne; Scrapbook, Mildred Newkirk, Social, Dorothy Eckert; Education, Gloria Sparling, Sunshine, Sylvia Janacek.

Mrs. Shirley Gorham, president of the Kingston-Poughkeepsie Chapter, presided at the meeting and invited any interested secretary in the area to attend the next regular meeting or to contact the association for information.

MR. AND MRS. LAWRENCE R. RICCI

Miss Sylvia E. Sicheri Weds Lawrence Ricci In Double Ring Ceremony at St. Peter's

The double ring wedding of Miss Sylvia E. Sicheri, daughter of Mrs. Olga Sicheri of Rosendale, to Lawrence R. Ricci, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Ricci of Rosendale, took place Saturday, Sept. 13, at 3 p. m. in St. Peter's Church, Rosendale.

Officiating clergyman was the Rev. Donal Reidy. Mrs. Aleksander Narel, soloist, sang Schubert's "Ave Maria," "Panis Angelicus," and "Mother At Thy Feet Is Kneeling." James Sweeney was organist.

White gladioli and palms decorated the church for the wedding ceremony. The family pews were marked with white satin ribbon.

The bride was given in marriage by her grandfather, Paul DeLorenzo of Copiague, L. I. For her wedding she wore a white gown of peau de soie satin styled with a square neckline which was outlined with Chantilly lace, sequins and seed pearls. The gown also featured a fitted bodice, long lace sleeves, and a bouffant skirt appliqued with lace, sequins and seed pearls the back of which was styled with a deep full lace flounce. The skirt terminated in a chapel length train. A double crown of sequins, rhinestones and seed pearls held a double fiingertip veil of French illusion. The bride carried a white lace prayer book with a white orchid and cascade showers of French feathered carnations.

Miss Diane Post of Rosendale served as the bride's maid of honor in a gown of coral blue silk organza fashioned with a draped bodice and full skirt. A petaled cloche-type hat of matching color held a circular flirtation veil. Miss Post carried a cascade of yellow roses with cotillion blue ribbon.

Attired in identically styled gowns as that worn by the honor attendant but in different colors, were the bridesmaids, Miss Jeanette Borloff of Brooklyn, in mint green, and Miss Rose Crookston of Rosendale in pink coral. Miss Borloff carried a cascade of coral pink carnations with mint green ribbon. Miss Crookston carried a cascade of mint green carnations with coral pink ribbon.

A cousin of the bride, Miss Mary Smith of Copiague, L. I., and a cousin of the bridegroom, Miss Diane Mosechello of New Rochelle, served as flower girls. They were attired in turquoise gowns of chiffon appliqued with tiny pink flowers. A back ribbon of satin on each gown ended in long streamers. Their headpieces consisted of pink pompons arranged in the form of crowns. They carried white princess baskets of pink and white pompons.

Mother of the bride wore a dusty pink cocktail length dress of duponi slik styled with a side drape of matching chiffon. She also wore a corsage of pink roses.

Mother of the bridegroom wore a Dior blue lace over taffeta and a corsage of pink roses.

John Ricci Jr., of Kingston, served as best man for his brother. Ushers included Peter Ziegal and John O'Sullivan, both of Rosendale. Serving as junior ushers were Lawrence Sicheri, the bride's brother, and Richard Ricci, the bridegroom's brother.

The bride's cousin, Paul La Monico of Copiague, L. I., served as ringbearer.

A graduate of Kingston High School, class of 1947, the bride is employed in the business office of The Kingston Daily Freeman. Her husband, an alumnus of Kingston High School, class of 1956, is employed by the Rotron Manufacturing Company, Woodstock.

NICOLA ROSSI-LEMENI

Rains and high winds did not, this time, prevent the opera "Murder in the Cathedral" from opening Wednesday at Carnegie Hall under the sponsorship of the Empire State Music Festival.

The Pizzetti opera, which was rained out during August at the Ellenville site, was warmly received by the capacity audience. Three curtain calls, and loud "bravos" were evidence of the audience response. Governor Harriman was in the audience.

Nicola Rossi-Lemeni, the popular Italian singer, who returned to America just for the premiere, received critical acclaim for his fine acting in the role of Archbishop Thomas a Becket, exiled Archbishop of England. "He sings with style and authority," was the comment made after the performance.

Giving a brilliant performance was Martino Arroyo as the First Corifea. Miss Arroyo seems to be gifted.

Conductor Laszlo Halasz gave his usual inspiring interpretation of this new work. The Symphony of the Air played for the occasion.

This musical tragedy, given in two acts and an interlude, relies heavily on choral work, orchestration and visual effects. The opera itself is very heavy. Whether Pizzetti was attempting to introduce another type of opera, or whether the opera is still too new for American ears, the general comments were that the work lacked action.

It would be unfair to judge "Murder in the Cathedral" solely on one performance. In short, the opera did have a successful premiere, its cast was well chosen.

The plot, briefly, centers about Thomas a Becket, the Archbishop, who has been exiled for seven years by King Henry II because he refused to defy canon law upon his order. When the Archbishop returns, the King again offers him an opportunity to betray the church and sign the so-called Constitution of Clarendon which was a legalized version of certain customs amounting to a loyalty oath assuring the submission of churchmen to the King.

The Archbishop stands his ground. One day, during vespers, four knights are admitted to the church. They shout at the Archbishop, "Absolve all those you have excommunicated. Resign the powers you have arrogated. Renew the obedience you have violated." Becket refused. The knights attack him and murder him in the church.

Becket's martyrdom quickly made the archbishop's cause and heroism so popular that, in 1174, the King was forced to do penance at the very tomb of the martyred prelate. Becket had been canonized at Rome the previous year on a date which he himself had designated Trinity Sunday, now one of the major festivals of the church.

The opera, itself, closes with the murder scene in the church —the congregation singing, "Blessed Thomas, pray for us."

Publicity Suggestions

Dear Publicity Chairmen:

Welcome to another season of organizational activities!

In response to numerous requests, I am writing this open letter to you about publicity in answer to many questions that "pop" up throughout the year.

The office of publicity chairman is a very important one. You are responsible for making known the good efforts of your club or organization and its objectives. To aid you, I would like to submit the following brief rules for publicity writing:

FORM: All newspaper releases for the social page should be typed, double spaced and submitted well in advance (at least two weeks) of the organization's planned event. Type on only one side of the paper. Never send carbon copies.

NAMES: Nicknames, initials, abbreviations, are strictly taboo. Always give the full name, correctly spelled, with the prefix "Miss" or "Mrs." A married woman is always listed as "Mrs. John Doe." Exceptions are noted only when the woman is employed in a professional capacity, thereby using her own first name, or if she is a widow, separated or divorced.

CONTENT: Always keep news releases brief. Remember, countless other organizations are also seeking space on the same page. Remember, too, that all newspapers depend on their income from advertising and circulation revenues. They are in the business of selling advertising space. Therefore, respect that business and do not submit for the social page what rightfully belongs in advertising.

PHOTOGRAPHY: The Freeman makes available to all organizations the services of a staff photographer during time slots when he is not covering general news events. Appointments for society pictures should be made by contacting the society desk. This should be done well enough in advance of any proposed program.

Avoid stiffly posed pictures and large groups. This offers no "eye appeal" for the general public. Try to limit committee chairmen to three in a picture—never more than six! Pictures of newly elected officers should only include the top four.

NEWS MERIT: Learn to recognize what is news within your own organization such as election of officers; meeting notices; guest speakers; sponsored programs; community services; community projects; resolutions; contributions; installations; awards; campaigns; social events.

Always sign your releases and list a telephone number where you may be contacted during the day for further information.

Above all, remember, newspaper people are human beings so contact us for specific news problems concerning your organization.

With mutual cooperation, we can all look forward to an informative and exciting year.

Very truly yours,
DOROTHY A. NAREL
Freeman Society Editor

Good Taste Today

By EMILY POST

Author of "Children Are People" and "Etiquette" etc.

A SITUATION REQUIRING TACT

Dear Mrs. Post: Are in-laws still in-laws in a situation like my own: My husband died several years ago and I have remained friendly with his family. In fact, I am very devoted to his mother. Now that I am engaged and going to marry again, do they no longer remain my in-laws?

Answer: There is no reason why you should cease to care for your first in-laws. In fact, it would be very cruel not to do so. But I cannot too strongly emphasize the need for taste as well as tact in bringing the first and second in-laws into contact with each other—including your prospective husband. With thoughtfulness, common sense, and sensitive awareness of the individual feelings of all concerned. complete success has been and can be achieved.

Ending a Telephone Conversation

Dear Mrs. Post: Is it true that when a girl and man talk to each other over the telephone, she is expected to say good-bye first?

Answer: Ordinarily, yes. It is rather rude for a man to be the one to say good-bye unless of course he is at his office when it would be excusable for him to explain, "Sorry, but there is someone on the other telephone," or "Sorry, someone is coming in with whom I have an appointment." But if he is at home it is difficult for him to do anything but listen at the other end until she has finished.

Rehearsal Dinner

Dear Mrs. Post: Our son is being married. I understand that after the rehearsal the bride's family has ordered dinner in a restaurant. The members of the wedding party will be present and her parents. We have not been asked. Isn't this irregular?

Answer: This depends upon whether any persons other than the bridal party were included. If the dinner is for none but the bride and groom and their attendants, your omission was not rude.

Should the tissue papers covering the engraving on wedding invitations be removed before mailing? This and other information will be found in leaflet E-10, "Wedding Invitations and Announcements." Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to Dept. EP, c/o The Freeman. P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y.

School Aid in Mails

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — State checks totaling $135,082,952 are in the mails to New York communities to help pay their school bills.

Of the total, $82,653,562 will go to cities and villages and $52,429,390 to supervisory school districts, the State Comptroller's Office reported Wednesday.

Most of the payments cover the first quarter of the new school year. Some cities, however, are receiving allotments for the final quarter of the school year that ended last June.

Accord Unit

Accord Unit met on Wednesday, Sept. 10, for supper. Mrs. Ettiene Messinger was hostess for the occasion, serving us in the original atmosphere of her home, known as YAMA-NO-UCHI, located at Napanoch. Many years ago under the able direction of Dr. Seamon, the house was designed and built by architects who knew and understood the design of Japanese homes, and patterned it accordingly.

Following the social hour, Mrs. Millard Davis presided at the business meeting, ably assisted by the vice-chairman, Mrs. Charles Gaydos, and secretary, Mrs. Lester Wynkoop.

The year's programming was discussed. Mrs. Davis concluded the meeting with a quiz on American History. Mrs. L. A. Wynkoop read the homemakers creed.

October 8 is the date of the next meeting at the home of Mrs. Philip Davis, who will be assisted by Mrs. Clyde Gazley, Mrs. Marvin Stoddard and Mrs. Ralph Kelder. The lesson will be, "Sandwiches for Special Occasions."

Attending were the Mmes. Millard Davis, Ben Davis, Helen Depuy, Albert Myers, Lee Gazlay, Ben Steers, Charles Gaydos, Lester Wynkoop, LeRoy Kelder, John Rumley, Fred Schmidt, Janet Rumley, Percy Gazlay, Edward Schoonmaker, Franklyn Kelder, Herman Gazlay, Jacob DeWitt, Ralph Kelder, Stanley Kelder, Ettiene Messinger and a guest, Mrs. Merritt of Poughkeepsie.

Kingston School Registrations Are 300 Over '57

Earl F. Soper, superintendent of schools, announced today that the registration in the Kingston schools, public and parochial, has increased by 300 over the figures for the same period last year.

Over 100 additional students are in the public schools and 200 additional students are in the parochial schools. The heaviest increased enrollment in the public schools is in grades 7 and 8 where there are 88 additional students. Parochial schools with heavy increased enrollments are St. Peter's 63, St. Mary's 33 and St. Ursula 20.

Total registration for the public schools is 5,937 and for the parochial schools 1,899.

Thirteen Receive Nursing Diplomas Here From Kingston Hospital School of Nursing

The Rev. J. Dean Dykstra, pastor of the Fair Street Reformed Church, told graduates of the Kingston Hospital School of Nursing at their commencement exercises Monday night that nursing is "one of the highest callings to which the human heart can respond."

"You will be standing with your fellow townspeople in their hours of deepest need," he told the 13 graduates. The exercises, held at the Myron J. Michael School auditorium, were attended by about 200 parents and friends.

The Rev. Mr. Dykstra told of three types of persons: (1) the "beat-em-up crowd, who take what they want when they want it," (2) the "pass-'em-up crowd," too busy to care, they "live and let live," and (3) the "help-'em-up crowd," who follow the way of the good Samaritan—the way "you nurses have chosen."

Members of the graduating class were:

Sandra Mae Berry Arnsen of Hyde Park; Ellen J. Booth, Kerhonkson; Mary Madeline Cassetta, Poughkeepsie; Elinor Ruth Carle Churchill, Accord; Clair DePuy Coddington, Accord; Gail Wanda Coulter, Walton; Dolores Erna Groppe, Dehli; Susan Elizabeth Hook, Kingston; Ann E. Koller, Spring Valley; Shirley Brown Kutzacher, Gilboa; Anna Mary Ramko, Spring Valley; Carmel Lucy Valente, Catskill, and Betty Lou Whitmore, Kingston.

Allan L. Hanstein, president of the board of trustees of Kingston Hospital, presided and presented the diplomas. School pins were presented by Miss Rosemary Pellegrino, principal of the school of nursing.

Mrs. Jean Wemple sang two solos, "I Believe," by Drake, and "Lord's Prayer" by Malotte. She was accompanied by Jeannette Spring.

Invocation was by Rabbi Herbert I. Bloom of Temple Emanuel, and benediction by the Rev. Edward I. Farrelly of St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church.

Robert M. Schnitzer, administrator of Kingston Hospital, announced the following awards to graduates:

A prize of $5 awarded by Captain Andrew S. Hickey, in memory of his mother, Mrs. Thomas J. Hickey, to the nurse who has displayed the greatest kindness and consideration for aged women in the ward—Miss Madeline Cassetta.

A prize of $10 given by Morris Kalish in memory of Mrs. Lena Kalish, to the nurse obtaining the highest class rating in nursing arts — Sandra Berry Arneson;

A prize of $25 given by Dr. Krom in memory of Dr. James Krom, to the student who attained the highest rating in the obstetrical class and efficiency in the obstetrical department — Carmel Valente;

A prize of $50 given by the Board of Trustees to the nurse who has displayed the highest degree of efficiency in all respects at all times during her entire course—Sandra Berry Arneson;

A prize of $25 given by the Board of Trustees to the nurse displaying the next highest degree of efficiency in all respects at all times during the entire course—Carmel Valente;

To be awarded to the nurse who has reached the highest degree of efficiency in her work at the time of graduation, the Dr. A. A. Stern prize of $10—Gail Coulter;

A prize of $25 given by Dr. Harold L. Rakov to the nurse who has received the highest average in theoretical class work during her entire three years—Sandra Berry Arneson;

A prize of $10 given by Dr. Herbert Martin in memory of Dr. Edwin C. Fassett to the student who attained the highest rating in the class in Ophthalmology—Sandra Berry Arneson;

A prize of $20 is given by Dr. Joseph Jacobson to the nurse having the highest rating in class work and efficiency of surgical nursing and operating room technique — Clair De Puy Coddington;

A prize of $20 in memory of Dr. Sam Maroon to the nurse who has most highly demonstrated a quality of selflessness and a true spirit of nursing—Shirley Brown Kutzacher;

A prize of $10 given by Miss Katherine Fellows in memory of Miss Mary E. Cotting, Kingston Hospital Alumnae member, to the nurse who evidences the greatest cheerfulness and willingness to help the patient in her particular needs—Madeline Cassetta;

District II of the NYSNA is granting an award of membership in the association for one year to the student who has demonstrated leadership ability and has participated actively in the student nurse organization of her school. The award will be granted on receipt of her registered nurse license — Eleanor Carle Churchill.

Jewish Aged Home In Troy Begins Upstate Drive

The 21-county capital fund campaign to expand the facilities of the Jewish Home for the Aged at Troy was begun this week with Isaac Honigebaum and Louis Rubin named co-chairmen.

Harry H. Ruvin of Schenectady, general chairman of the overall campaign, said the finance appeal will be carried to every area of eastern New York State served by the home.

In announcing the selection of the co-chairmen, Ruvin said:

"The quality of leadership and prestige which these gentlemen bring to the campaign assures us of an outstanding success in this urgent appeal for funds. The board of directors of the home is grateful for their willingness to accept the responsibility of leading the Troy Jewish Community effort to raise their share of this important goal."

In accepting the leadership posts Honigebaum and Rubin announced that the Troy phase of the campaign would begin active solicitation in October. They explained that the Troy goal of the $650,000 campaign would be $54,000 or 8.2 per cent of the overall effort.

Both men have long been active in local business and community affairs and are long-time members of the board of directors of the home.

The proposed campaign, which was announced last fall, is designed to expand the home from its present capacity of 72 residents to 122. In addition to 50 new beds, plans also call for the enlargement of all service facilities, dining, medical and recreational facilities.

Of Many Things

Treatment of Hands

Hands are exposed to weather, work, detergents, strong cleaning powders—and to changes in temperature and humidity. Yet your hands are expected to be soft and smooth always. It actually is possible to keep them this way if you shield them with gloves and creams, glamorize them with well-cared-for polished nails.

Keep a bottle of hand lotion beside each faucet. Use it to wash hands or whenever hands have been exposed to water, or before taking on rough jobs. Keep lotion in your desk drawer at the office also. Lotions put oils back into the skin and offer a film of protection. Whenever possible, apply them over the arms as well as the hands, with particular attention to elbows.

To correct roughened hands, rub on warmed skin oil at bedtime, pull on soft cotton gloves and leave on overnight. Get in the habit of wearing rubber gloves for housework, cotton ones for gardening. Many women find it hard, at first, to work with gloves on; but this is a passing problem—you CAN get used to them. Perhaps you will be more comfortable if you wear an inexpensive pair of washable cotton gloves next to the skin (especially when you have applied hand oil), with rubber gloves on top. Also, there are several creams and lotions which not only protect hands but make it easier to clean them after a messy project. And before tackling such a job, dig your fingernails into a bar of soap. Soap left under the nails will keep dirt from getting there and can be washed away when you are finished.

Manicuring

We'll assume that you know how to give yourself a good manicure. (If not, treat yourself to one in a beauty shop and watch the manicurist carefully.) Don't neglect the important steps of removing and pushing back cuticle, of shaping carefully, of using top and undercoats to hold polish in place longer.

Here are a few manicuring tips: Always use an emery board, not a steel file; oval tips are acceptable, pointed claws strictly taboo; round nail corners carefully since square or sharp edges cause splits in nails stockings and tempers; polish goes on more smoothly if prechilled in the refrigerator; wiping away a tip of polish at outer edge of nail cuts down on chipping; you can dry polish quickly by dipping hands in cold water.

Have several shades of polish on hand and alternate them to suit your outfit. Light colors are especially suitable to pale skin, small hands. Medium shades are safest for most of us. Very dark or very bright colors are not usually flattering — especially if your hands are not perfect. (Men seem to dislike dark colors far more than women. They are inclined to make unkind remarks about Lady Macbeth dripping with blood when they see long talons painted in dark red.)

A medium length is most becoming — and most practical.

For evening use, some women do use a silvered polish or a gilt overlay to add on top of regular polish. This is entirely a matter of personal taste. But if you do use this type of polish, REMEMBER TO RESTRICT IT TO THE EVENINGS. It has no place during the waking hours of the day.

If you are a working girl but still like to use nail polish for the office, just be sure that you keep it touched up, not half on and half off.

The most practical type of nail polish for daytime wear is clear or what is commonly known as "natural." And after all is said and done, what with all your beauty accents, you still can't beat the natural way to beauty. Enhance it, yes — but don't overdo it!

(Tomorrow: Complexion Care.)

Three Temptations

FREMONT, Neb. (AP)—Today's preachers are susceptible to three major temptations, Dr. G. E. Lenski of Pacific Lutheran Theological Seminary, Berkeley, Calif., told a preaching institute here—"the temptation to shine, the temptation to whine and the temptation to recline."

Onteora School Tax Collection Set in Woodstock

The school tax collector for Onteora Central Schools will be at the Woodstock Town Hall to receive school tax payments on Friday, it was announced today.

Frances L. Whiting, collector, will be at the town hall from 10:30 a. m. to 2 p. m. tomorrow.

She will also collect at the West Shokan Town Hall from 9:30 a. m. to 12 noon on Wednesday, Sept. 24; at Onteora Central School, Boiceville, from 1 to 3 p. m. Wednesday, Sept. 24; at the town hall, Woodstock, from 10:30 a. m. to 2 p. m., Friday, Sept. 26, and also at her residence, Glenford, when she is at home.

Taxpayers of Woodstock School District No. 2 are not included in the collections. A recent order of Justice Isadore Bookstein stayed the Onteora Central School District from collecting taxes from the Woodstock school district pending termination of present litigation.

Attorneys for Onteora sought in arguments last week before Justice William Deckeman in Albany to have the Bookstein order vacated. Judge Deckelman reserved decision.

Harriet Monroe, founder and editor of Poetry Magazine, sometimes is referred to as the patron saint of American poets.

Curbs Pain Dose-by-Dose! Users Rejoice — Supply Rushed Here

The discovery of the drug, salicylamide, which is reported safe to take without prescription yet has the power to bring blessed respite from the minor aches and pains of rheumatism and arthritis, is seen as offering dose-by-dose relief to countless sufferers from these dread conditions. To bring this drug to all, it has been formulated in easy-to-take tablets, called REMATRON, which act internally to curb the minor but none-the-less arthritic and rheumatism distress in hands, arms, legs and shoulders. While results from the use of REMATRON are most impressive, it is not offered as a treatment. Claims for the present are limited to its power to effectively provide temporary relief from minor aches and pains in cases of arthritis, rheumatism and sciatica. REMATRON costs $2.50 but considering results is not expensive and is sold with a money back guarantee by

President Will Meet McElroy and Twining

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — President Eisenhower will hold separate conferences at the summer White House tomorrow with Secretary of Defense Neil McElroy and Gen. Nathan F. Twining, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

In announcing the conference plans, presidential press secretary James C. Hagerty told newsmen no emergency prompts the McElroy-Twining visit.

Hagerty noted that both ordinarily confer with the President at least every two or three weeks.

Hagerty said he does not expect that either McElroy or Twining will hold news conferences here.

Burglary Count Is Dismissed in Barthelmes Case

Raymond Barthelmes, who is now serving a five to 10-year term in Sing Sing Prison imposed in Orange County as a result of a series of burglaries there, was returned to Ulster County Wednesday to answer to a charge of burglary, third degree, and unlawful entry arising out of the entrance to the Ulster McDole premises in Southern Ulster County.

Counsel for Barthelmes told County Judge Louis G. Bruhn that the defendant's burglary in Ulster County was a part of the series for which he was now serving time.

New Decision

District Attorney Howard C. St. John said in his activities in Orange County, Barthelmes had crossed over the county line and committed the burglary in Ulster County in October 1957. This was a part of the series of crimes for which the defendant is now in Sing Sing Prison. Under a new decision it becomes necessary to bring back as soon as possible a defendant who is serving time on another charge to answer to other charges. This was the situation in the present case, St. John said, and he did not oppose the motion for leniency of defense counsel.

Judge Bruhn, in view of the sentence already imposed in Orange County, suspended imposition of any sentence in this case after defendant had entered a plea of guilty to unlawful entry. The burglary count of the indictment was dismissed. Joseph Sapano of Middletown appeared for defendant.

Among those arraigned under sealed indictments were:

Carson Wayne Lyons, charged with burglary, third degree, and unlawful entry to the Roy Langabeer premises on February 21, 1958. He was not represented by counsel and the matter was adjourned until Friday when counsel will be assigned. All rights, including that to plead to the indictment, were reserved until that time.

Adjourned to Friday

Raymond Eloyd DeRonder Jr., 19, charged with rape, alleged to have been committed on July 17, 1958, and involving a girl under 18. This was adjourned to Friday for assignment of counsel and all other motions and proceedings.

John Henry Patterson, 25, Newburgh, charged with grand larceny, second degree, also had his case adjourned to Friday when counsel will be assigned. Patterson is charged with having stolen 9 cases of frozen hams from Theodore Conn on June 2, 1958, the value of which was over $100 and less than $500.

Lawrence Dorset, charged with grand larceny, first degree, for the alleged taking of a Ford station wagon from the Pioneer Country Club, Town of Wawarsing, on May 26, 1958. Counsel will be assignd on Friday when Dorset will also plead to the two count indictment.

Louis DeGroudt Jr., charged with burglary, third degree, and unlawful entry, for an alleged entrance to the Howell Fuel and Lumber Company on July 17, 1958, told the court he had been employed as a mason's helper but his wages had "not been high" and he did not know if he could hire an attorney. His case was adjourned to Friday and meanwhile he will determine if he can get an attorney, if not one will be assigned.

Defendants not on bail were remanded to jail by Judge Bruhn.

Leniency Asked

Joseph DeMello, Wallkill, who was indicted for violation of Section 1897, Subdivision 4, Penal Law, illegal possession of a firearm, entered a plea of guilty to the charge, a misdemeanor, and Charles Saccoman, counsel, asked that leniency be shown. Judge Bruhn suspended imposition of any sentence at this time.

Donald Curtis, Kingston, charged with violation of Section 483 of the Penal Law, a morals section, was represented in court by Charles Saccoman who moved for dismissal of the indictment. Judge Bruhn dismissed the indictment.

All jurors were excused until Monday at 10 o'clock and court recessed to Friday at 10 a. m.

Four Civil Cases Settled in Court

Four civil cases were announced disposed of in County Court Wednesday afternoon when the civil calendar was called.

Cases announced settled are:

Stuart W. Messenger against William Kreinger, automobile negligence. Aaron E. Klein for plaintiff and Spitz & Levine for defendant.

Ross Nehr against Karl Glotzl, automobile negligence. Howard C. St. John for plaintiff and Cook & Cook for defendant.

Cooperative Witness

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — The city public works commissioner in 1954-56 has been described as a cooperative witness before a federal grand jury probing alleged payoffs to city officials for paving contracts.

U. S. Atty. John O. Henderson said the commissioner, George J. Goetz, testified freely Wednesday for 1½ hours, and did not plead the Fifth Amendment.

Goetz was one of six witnesses. The federal grand jury, an Erie County grand jury and the Internal Revenue Service are all trying to determine whether at least $49,500 was paid to unnamed city officials for street resurfacing contracts in 1954-56.

All the investigations have been adjourned to next week.

Killed in Crash

GOWANDA, N. Y. (AP)—Miss Doris Anderson, 19, an employe of Gowanda State Hospital, was killed today when her automobile went out of control in this Cattaraugus County community, sheared off a utility pole and hit a tree.

Saugerties Planning

C of C Requires $1,200 for Yule Promotion Fund

A campaign for $1,200 to provide funds for street Christmas lighting in the business district, and the annual kiddie Christmas party was announced by George E. Thornton, Saugerties Area Chamber of Commerce president at the regular meeting of the businessmen's group held in Stonewall Hotel, Barclay Heights, Saugerties, Wednesday night.

A majority of those present voted to turn on the Christmas lights in the business area Friday, Nov. 28.

The kiddie's Christmas party will be scheduled to coincide with the night store openings at the start of the Christmas shopping season. The merchants' committee will decide the date.

Thornton said that $1,200 was needed to pay for the star and Christmas bell centerpieces, additional cables to be installed, and the kiddie party and parade sponsored by the Chamber.

The parade heralding the Yuletide season usually features one of the village fire trucks with Santa Claus and Miss Saugerties. One of the local drum corps heads the parade through the main business section of the village.

The fund raising committee including Thornton consists of First Vice President Myron G. Banks; Second Vice President William F. Kelly, Franklin P. Clum Sr., Edward Feldman and John J. Kaminski, last year's fund chairman.

The expenditure of $159 for painting and repair of the welcome signs at the three entrances to the village was approved. Joseph Bosco, chairman of the signs committee, reported that Police Chief Arthur W. Richter would do the work. Richter said he would back up the sign faces with half-inch plywood, and scotchlite lettering would be applied to make the signs visible at night.

Mrs. Joan Feldmann, social activities committee chairman, reported on her trip with Moira R. Altevogt, Miss Saugerties of 1959 to New York City last weekend.

Mrs. Feldmann said that Miss Saugerties was photographed and interviewed at Kenneth Model Agency, and offered a three-month trial as a model. Miss Altevogt reportedly accepted the offer and will become affiliated with the model agency after graduation when she attends art school in New York City.

Mrs. Feldlmann reported on plans for a buffet supper social meeting in October when the Miss Saugerties pageant motion pictures will be shown to members and their guests. Miss Saugerties will also attend. Vice-President Banks and Mrs. Feldmann were designated by Thornton to plan for the occasion.

Ridiculous Sales Days, a new fall feature of the merchant's committee will be held Friday and Saturday, it was announced by Raymond Ruby, committee chairman.

Ruby said the committee was disheartened by the lack of cooperation from local merchants on the new sales day promotion.

Dr. Irving Dreishpoon addressed the group on the possibility of establishing a public golf course in the Saugerties area. A complete report of the proposal may be found on the sports pages of this edition.

Seeks More Aid

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — The Filipino delegation to the ninth SEATO military advisers conference has indicated it wants more U.S. military aid because of the Formosa crisis.

The Philippines is receiving about 10 million dollars a year in defense support from the United States in addition to actual arms.

Registrations Open for Small Business Course

A few more registrations can be accepted for the small business management course which starts here on Tuesday, Sept. 23. Registration blanks are available at the office of the Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce in the Governor Clinton Hotel.

State Commerce Commissioner Edward T. Dickinson announced today that this is the second of a series of small business management courses, planned eventually to reach communities throughout the State.

The course is a cooperative venture of the State Commerce Department, the State Education Department, the U. S. Small Business Administration, the Adult Education Program of the Kingston schools and the Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce. Albert Kurdt, manager of the Chamber of Commerce and W. Dale Swartzmiller, regional director of the State Department of Commerce are co-ordinators for the course.

The five weekly sessions, starting Tuesday, Sept. 23, will take place in the Civic Room of the Governor Clinton Hotel from 7:45 to 10 p. m. An outstanding expert in the business world will address each session. Hubert Hoderath, director of the local Adult Education program, has charge of registrations. An enrollment fee is being charged for the entire course. Further information may be obtained by calling the local Chamber of Commerce office.

Says Pill Effective

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A Harvard University gynecologist said Wednesday a 50-cent pill to prevent pregnancy has proved 100 per cent effective in a 2½ year test.

Dr. John Rock, clinical professor emeritus of gynecology at the Harvard Medical School, told a news conference called by the Planned Parenthood Assn. of San Francisco Inc., that results were decisive in experiments with 285 women in Puerto Rico and also in Los Angeles. He said there were no lasting side effects.

Dr. Rock's views differed markedly from those of two physicians who tested the pills and reported results at the American Medical Assn. convention here last June.

McElroy Will Make Formosa Inspection

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Neil McElroy will leave next week on an inspection trip which will include a visit to Formosa.

He plans to be gone about five weeks, the Pentagon said.

Tentative plans call for a two-day stop in Formosa about the middle of October.

Adm. James S. Russell, vice chief of naval operations, will accompany McElroy. McElroy will inspect American defense installations and confer with American military advisory groups in various countries.

The trip starting Sept. 27 will include visits to Hawaii, Okiniawa, Japan, Korea, the Philippines, Hong Kong, Thailand, Pakistan, Iran, and Greece.

ICC Opens Probe Into Rail Crash

Known Dead Is 27, May Rise to 46

NEW YORK (AP)—The Interstate Commerce Commission today opened an inquiry into the wreck of a Jersey Central commuter train which hurtled into Newark Bay through an open drawbridge Monday.

The ICC investigator follows on the heels of a probe by Hudson County officials to determine whether human or mechanical failure caused the disaster.

19 Are Missing

The toll of known dead rose to 27 Wednesday. Another 19 persons have been reported missing; if all are confirmed as dead the toll would rise to 46.

The five-coach train and two diesel locomotives—one a deadhead—pounded past the warning lights and ploughed through a derailing device before the engines and two cars crashed into the water. A third coach dangled from the bridge for some minutes, then dropped into the bay. The last two coaches remained on the trestle tracks.

The lead locomotive was raised from the water last night. No bodies were found in the cab.

Abnormal Speed Seen

Hudson County Prosecutor Lawrence A. Whipple, after questioning witnesses Wednesday at Bayonne, N. J., police headquarters, said the train was going at "an abnormal rate of speed" as far back as a warning signal 2,000 feet from the open draw.

Whipple's office impounded the speed indicator tape of the lead locomotive. The tape was too wet and dirty to read immediately.

The second engine was expected to be raised today.

A preliminary autopsy on the dead engineer, Lloyd Wilburn of Red Bank, N. J., indicated that a heart attack contributed to his death. The engineer's fireman, Peter Andrew of Jersey City, is among the missing.

Central Registration

Search for Man, 65

SARANAC LAKE, N. Y. (AP) — State police and volunteers searched in rain and dense fog today for a 65-year-old man missing overnight near Whiteface Mountain, about 15 miles northeast of here.

Troopers said Frank Lytle of Saranac Lake became separated from two companions late yesterday while they were picking berries.

The search was concentrated in a heavily wooded area between Franklin Falls and the base of Whiteface Mountain.

Subpoena Certain County Records

In a "routine" proceeding County Treasurer Joseph J. Koenig was served immediately after taking office with a subpoena to produce certain county records to Special Assistant Attorney General Bernard A. Tompkins, who is conducting the road oil "kickback" investigation in Ulster county.

Tompkins described the subpoena as "routine." He said Koenig produced the records and spent several minutes promising his "fullest cooperation" to the investigations.

Service of the subpoena was "routine" in that it supplements a subpoena which was already in affect directed to the late County Treasurer Albert N. Cook to produce certain county records in the county treasurer's office.

County Treasurer Koenig took the oath of office, to which he was appointed by Governor Harriman, on Monday at Albany and on Tuesday assumed the duties of office.

McDonald Reign Seen Firm Over Steelworkers

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—The United Steelworkers lined up behind their president today in an apparent united front for next year's contract talks with the basic steel industry.

David J. McDonald, whose leadership had been questioned openly for more than a year, appeared in firm control of the 1,200,000-member union now past the midway point of its ninth constitutional convention.

An opposing faction which polled almost a quarter of a million votes at the union's 1957 international officers election found itself with only about 15 of 3,500 delegates supporting it Wednesday.

Gets Confidence Vote

In the first three days of the five-day convention, McDonald received an overwhelming vote of confidence and beat back on constitutional issues what now appears to be a small but highly vocal minority.

The opposition came from a segment of the membership called the Dues Protest Committee. It was organized after the 1956 convention increased membership dues from $3 to $5 a month and raised McDonald's salary.

The committee is headed by Donald C. Rarick, a McKeesport, Pa., mill worker who ran for the union presidency against McDonald last year and lost by a vote of 404,172 to 223,516.

McDonald altered the convention agenda to bring before the delegates issues the protest committee had raised. The constitution must be approved section by section at each convention, but that action was scheduled for later in the week.

Rarick first spoke in support of a resolution to alter the constitution so staff officers—business agents, organizers and the like—would be elected instead of appointed. The committee raised the issue months ago.

Before permitting a vote on the issue, McDonald saw to it that every delegate who wanted to comment on the issue had an opportunity to do so.

Speaks Amid Boos

McDonald was accused in some quarters of forcing the dues increase through the 1956 convention without giving all delegates an opportunity to express their views. Wednesday he said: "Everyone must be heard."

Rarick spoke amid boos and heckling that McDonald tried to quiet. Rarick said he did not advocate right-to-work laws and denied he was receiving support from management in an effort to destroy the union. He had been accused of both in some quarters.

After nearly three hours, including talks by Rarick and McDonald and delegate comments on the issue, a standing vote was taken. Only 15 of 3,500 seated delegates voted in support of Rarick.

Later, the constitutional section specifying McDonald's salary at $50,000 a year was approved without opposition. It was increased from $40,000 a year at the 1956 convention.

Former President Harry Truman, addressing the USW convention, said the Republicans in Washington are deliberately "following economic policies designed to prevent full production."

He said Republicans want "a little unemployment" and the holding down of wages because "they think it makes for higher profits."

To Address IMC Members Tonight

DONALD G. COOPER

Donald G. Cooper, production manager for the IBM Kingston Military Products Division, will be the guest speaker for tonight's Industrial Management Club meeting. Subject of Cooper's talk will be "Growing in Management."

The dinner meeting will be held at 6:30 p. m. at the Casablanca Restaurant, 602 Broadway.

Cooper joined International Business Machines Corporation in its engineering training program at Endicot in 1947.

He was assigned to the subcontracting department in January, 1948. A year later he was appointed technical assistant to an assembly project manager, and in October 1949, he became a cost estimator.

These duties were followed beginning July, 1950, with two years as plant layout engineer. In January, 1952, Cooper was named technical assistant to the division manager of industrial engineering, and in 1953 he became an administrative assistant.

In August, 1954, following a six-month administrative training program, Cooper became division manager of industrial engineering. He was transferred to the IBM Kingston plant in Januay, 1955.

IMC officers are: Marvin I. Millens of B. Millens & Sons, president; George A. Sheldon of Hercules Powder Co., first vice-president; William Buchbinder of F. Jacobson & Sons, second vice president; Samuel Carroll of Kingston Knitting Mills, recording secretary; Louis N. Schafer of Kingston YMCA, executive secretary; J. Frederick Scott of Hercules Powder Company, treasurer; John J. Strittar of Electrol Inc., corresponding secretary, and Clair S. Sheaffer of Rodie Coal Co. Inc., director.

Two Orange Banks To Merge Sept. 26

NEWBURGH, N. Y. (AP)—The County National Bank at Middletown and the National Bank of Newburgh will be merged on Sept. 26.

Stockholders of the two Orange County institutions approved the consolidation in a vote Wednesday. The one at Newburgh will become a branch of the Middletown bank, which already has branches at Cornwall, Pine Bush, Port Jervis and Warwick.

400 Stay on Strike

TROY, N. Y. (AP) — Approximately 400 United Auto Workers remained on strike today at the Ford Motor Co. radiator plant in Green Island, despite settlement of the nationwide strike against Ford.

A spokesman for UAW Local 930 said two local issues of a technical nature had not been resolved.

BPW Receives Bids on Projects

Bids were received by the Board of Public Works yesterday for a sewer project in the South Washington Avenue area, for the sinking of a shaft in conjunction with it, and for the purchase of six trucks for the public works department.

Bids on the sewer project were received from James Berardi, Kingston; Joseph Gruner, Highland; V. J. Costanzi, Poughkeepsie, and Anthony Costanzi, Kingston.

One bid on the shaft project was received from C. W. Lauman, Beth Page, L. I. The shaft will be sunk at Pettit and Washington Avenues for the purpose of connecting with the large Washington Avenue sewer tunnel system. It will be smaller than the one at Elizabeth Street, which was sunk when the tunnel was first put in use several years ago.

The new sewer development will serve South Washington, Klingburg and Pettit Avenues.

Bids for a spreader were received from the Hudson Valley Equipment Co., Saugerties, and Harry Bareika, Kingston.

Street lights requested for West Chestnut Street between No. 80 and 163, and one on East Strand near Sycamore Street were referred to the light committee.

Ike at Fruit Stand

Owner Doesn't Recognize Him

LITTLE COMPTON, R.I. (AP) —Mrs. Edward M. Medeiros, 26, was knitting when the man stepped over to her fruit and vegetable stand and began looking at the pumpkins. It was about 5:30 p.m.

"How much are these?" the man asked, holding up a pumpkin.

"Fifteen cents apiece."

"How many will it take to make a pumpkin pie?"

"That depends on how big a pie you want," said the matter of fact Mrs. Medeiros.

"What's so funny?" Mrs. Medeiros asked one of the men.

"That's the President," was the reply.

"President of what?"

"Of the United States."

"Oh my Lord!" said Mrs. Medeiros.

Though she had seen several black limousines and a police escort, she had not guessed her customer was President Eisenhower.

The President drove off with two pumpkins, several baskets of fruit and five or six onions.

And Mrs. Medeiros?

"Believe me," she said later, "if there had been a hole around I would have jumped into it."

Whale Is Dead

Bertha's Coyness Leads to Demise

NEW YORK (AP)—Bertha the whale, flown here from Alaska early this month by the Coney Island Aquarium, is dead. She died because, as females sometimes do, she fooled men about her age.

In her few days of life here, Bertha was the pride of the aquarium and the only live whale to be exhibited in New York since 1897.

Aquarium experts estimated her age at 14 months, chiefly because of her size and eating habits. She was 6 feet 7 inches long and weighed 400 pounds.

So she was offered a fish diet appropriate for a whale youngster of 14 months. Bertha gobbled the fish as if she were really that old.

Unfortunately, she wasn't. She really was only an infant whale, less than a year old. The fish were too much for her delicate digestive system because she was not out of the milk diet stage.

Blair, Shultis Winners of Jaycee Snapshot Contest

Guy A. Visk, chairman of the Kingston Junior Chamber of Commerce 1959 Pageant Planning Committee, announced today the winners of the Miss Kingston Snapshot Contest.

The winning snapshots, judged on the basis of composition, detail and exposure, were taken by Jerry Blair, Scout executive, and Alfred E. Shultis, both residents of Kingston.

Visk expressed his appreciation to all individuals who participated in the contest, and to the judges. The judges were Miss Charlotte P. McGraw, a commercial photographer who operates the Artcraft Camera Shop, and Edward J. Casazza, staff assistant in charge of photography at IBM Kingston.

In an interview, Visk stated that a similar contest is tentatively scheduled for 1959.

Soldier Movement Spread

TOKYO (AP)—The "everyone a solder" movement is spreading throughout Communist China "as the people get more and more angry over U.S. provocations," Peiping radio reports.

Communist Chinese broadcasts say millions have enlisted in militia units to beat back an invasion.

931,922 Visit Project

MASSENA, N. Y. (AP)—A total of 931,922 people have visited the St. Lawrence power project in the two years it has been under construction.

The State Power Authority reported the figure Wednesday and said 64,721 had stopped to gaze from the project overlocks in August.

COMMUNITY CHEST PLAQUE—Looking over a permanent honor plaque award for employes of firms participating in the Kingston Area Community Chest campaign are Robert J. Dalton, division vice-chairman; Richard A. Stewart, chairman of business and industrial division; Richard M. Kalish, general campaign chairman and W. Henry Haltermann, division vice-chairman.

Firms Meeting Giving Standard To Receive Award

A permanent Honor Plaque Award for employes of firms participating in the Kingston Area Community Chest Red Feather campaign was unveiled at a breakfast meeting of business and industrial division workers Wednesday at the Governor Clinton Hotel.

Richard A. Stewart, chairman of the division, noted that this bronze-finished wall device will be given to all groups of givers who reach certain minimum standards as a group.

To win the Honor Plaque Award, a firm employing 10 or more persons must meet two standards:

Obtain a gift (of any size) from nine out of 10 employes, and

Obtain a total employes' gift equal to six out of 10 employes giving at the Fair Share Guide suggestion (approximately one hour's pay, a month.)

"We are counting on these pace-setting firms to give the campaign the impetus it needs to succeed," Stewart said. Winners will be publicized in the newspapers and on the radio and the firm names posted on a Kingston Area Honor Roll. Honor firms will be invited to attend a special citizens meeting at which their signal contributions will be suitably noted and their personalized plaque awarded.

Power Supply Ample, SPA Member Claims

COOPERSTOWN, N. Y. (AP)—Dr. Finla G. Crawford, a member of the State Power Authority, today reassured municipal electric systems of a long-range power supply.

"The Power Authority," he said, "has given its pledge that all municipals (sic) within the economic marketing area of the St. Lawrence and Niagara projects, individually and combined, will receive all the power they will need for the next quarter century."

"The Power Authority," he added, "will deal four-square not only with munipals, but with small rural electric cooperatives, rural and domestic consumers and industry for the benefit of the people of the state as a whole."

Crawford, who is vice chancellor of Syracuse University, made the pledge in a speech prepared for the annual conference of the Municipal Electric Utilities Assn. of New York State.

Fair Share Guide For Red Feather Donations Listed

A Fair Share Guide for giving by employed persons to the Red Feather campaign has been adopted by the board of directors of the Kingston Area Community Chest as a hint in answering the perennial question, "How much shall I give?"

The suggested scale roughly is equal to one hour's pay a month in the lower income brackets, then scales upward as income and community responsibility increases.

"No one likes to be told what to give, and no one should be," Richard M. Kalish, general campaign chairman, said in releasing the guide. "But everyone does appreciate a good hint."

"In order to reach the minimum goal needed to support the 10 member agencies for 12 months some index of their worth and responsibility needs be offered every giver," Kalish said.

"This can only be an offering; but it must be a realistic one, made with the realization that all cannot reach it, yet many can suggest it."

The suggested scale:

Annual Income	Weekly Gift	Monthly Gift
$ 3,000	$ .18	$ .75
3,500	.20	.88
4,000	.23	1.00
4,500	.27	1.17
5.000	.32	1.46
5,500	.48	2.18
6,000	.69	3.00
7,000	1.01	4.38
8,000	1.54	6.67
9,000	2.12	9.17

Jakarta Action Seen On Firm Fuel Shortage

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—Information Minister Sudibjo said today that the government would take firm measures against foreign oil companies if they cannot explain the reasons for the fuel shortage in his oil-producing nation.

Sudibjo told Indonesian newsmen the government is investigating a request for higher prices made by American Stanvac and the British Petroleum Co. which handle most of the oil distribution in Indonesia.

Existing stocks of oil and gasoline have been dwindling, and service stations in Jakarta were unable to meet customers' demans today.

GOP Candidates Meet

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—Upstate Republican candidates for the Assembly planned to meet here today to discuss campaign strategy.

Similar sessions for other GOP Assembly hopefuls will be held in Syracuse Sept. 22 and in New York City Sept. 25.

Majority Leader Joseph F. Carlino of Nassau County said he would review the Republican record, concentrating on state aid for education.

Original coats of arms were markings worn on outer coats or shields of knights so that they could be recognized in battle.

SPORTS

By CHARLES J. TIANO

Freeman Sports Editor

The tragic death of George (Snuffy) Stirnweiss in the Jersey Central Railroad disaster shocked and saddened the baseball world. It also hit close to home and was a crushing blow to Fred Davi, who operates the Kingston franchise in the New York-New Jersey League.

Davi and Stirnweiss have been close friends for many years and Stirnweiss has always had a soft spot in his heart for Fred and Kingston baseball. He played in an exhibition game at the stadium, conducted a baseball clinic and made appearances in the days of the Kingston Athletic Association annual Junior All Star game. He was always on call for Fred.

Snuffy's greatness as an individual and athlete went far beyond the confines of Yankee Stadium. He was a devoted father of six children, an outstanding layman and a kind, cheerful man. He was a little man (in physical stature only) who made good in a big, tough business like major league baseball. We join with Fred Davi and (other) Kingston folks in mourning his untimely death.

• Flotsam and Jetsam:

The Twaalfskill Club is tossing its annual clambake to coincide with the final round of the annual club doubles Sunday starting at 4 p. m. . . . The 13th annual edition of the Gun Digest, the nation's leading publication in its field, is now available. Loaded with more than 40 original articles by leading authorities in their various fields, and hundreds of pictures, the 324-page book is a sportsman's bible for hunters, guns fans and arm-chair adventurers. . . . Jack O'Connor, a famous gun expert, tosses out the following hints as the 1958 hunting season approaches. 1. Every beginner should start with a rifle that uses the little .22 rimfire cartridge; 2. The iron sight with a deep buckhorn-type notch, though extremely common and defended by many, is notoriously inefficient; 3. You can't expect top performance from a rifle that shoots a second-rate cartridge, no matter how fine the design and craftsmanship of the firearm."

• Of Men and Mice:

Chet Joy carried his case against indifference to soil erosion in hunting and fishing areas as far as the White House. Others who were contacted by Joy and gave assurance they would assist on their levels of jurisdiction included: Lansing A. Parker, acting director of the United States Department of the Interior's Fish and Wildlife Service; Cecil Heacox, District Fisheries Manager of the Southern Fisheries District of N. Y.; Commissioner Sharon J. Mauhs of the State Conservation Department; John W. Johnson, superintendent of the State of New York Department of Public Works and others. Joy has carved out a man-sized project for himself. He will need the complete co-operation of the entire membership of the Federated Sportsmen's Club of Ulster County, all other interested organizations and must have the prestige and influence of Assemblyman Kenneth L. Wilson and Senator E. Ogden Bush in the legislative halls. Unless all these agencies throw their weight behind the project, it will die aborning and the hand wringing and laments will echo down through the ages.

DON'T FORGET THE TOOLS: It was late and the daily double was about to close at Jamaica when one of the hustlers, who came up with tips for both races, started moving toward the windows to get down. Half way there he stopped and turned to another full-time horse player. "I'm afraid I'll forget the horses. Loan me your pencil so I can write them down." The guy looked at him in disgust. "What's the matter with you," he asked, "don't you bring your working tools?"

Dr. Dreishspoon Submits Proposal At CC Meeting

A proposal to build a public golf course in the Saugerties township area was presented at last night's meeting of the Saugerties Area Chamber of Commerce at Stonewall Hotel, Barclay Heights, by Dr. Irving Dreishspoon, Saugerties dentist.

Commenting on the need for a public links in the area and the boon it would be to business, Dr. Dreishspoon said a public golf course would promote housing, as it would make the town attractive to prospective home buyers.

At the present time there is no public golf course on the west side of the Hudson River.

Three of the area's major courses—The Twaalfskill Club, Wiltwyck Country Club and Woodstock Country Club—are private membership clubs. Rip Van Winkle Country Club at Palenville has a limited regular membership and is open to greens fee players.

Chamber president, George Thornton, appointed a three-man committee to study all phases of the proposed project and report at a future meeting. The committee includes Dr. Dreishspoon, Myron G. Banks, first vice-president of the Chamber, and Alex Osena.

Possible for $150,000

In presenting the proposal, Dr. Dreishspoon said a study he conducted and other figures available indicated a modest course with clubhouse, including locker room and showers would cost approximately $150,000.

Dr. Dreishspoon said a committee should study the possibility of obtaining state funds for the project. He said it was quite possible to sell the state on the idea of building a state park and golf course in the Saugerties area similar to the setup at James Baird Park in Dutchess County.

Dreishspoon indicated that financial backing might come from local insurance agencies and professional people.

The Saugerties dentist, who plays out of Woodstock Country Club, said there were several locations in the area suitable for such a golf course.

The newly-appointed Chamber committee, in an informal session directly after the meeting, discussed plans to present the proposal to the Saugerties Town Board and the State Department of Commerce.

Suzie Jurgensen Leading Junior Riding Day Field

Suzie Jurgensen of Woodstock has the high score of 37 points at the close of the first of a series of three Junior Riding Days held under the sponsorship of the Woodstock Riding Club in the Ohayo Mountain ring.

The rider achieving the best overall performance as calculated by the point system for the three riding days will be awarded a sterling silver trophy. Charles Ashley of Kingston is chairman of the Junior Riding Days.

Miss Jurgensen won first places in the fitting and showmanship class, pole bending, and trail class, and placed second in the equitation and egg race in compiling her 37 points.

Vera van Rijn scored a double in the English division and equitation (saddle and seat). Other first place winners were: Bonnie Kaiser, musical chairs; Holly Goff, jumping; Alice Abrehamsen, egg race; Judy De Groff equitation; Janet Hornbeck, equitation; Holly Goff (2nd win) in pony class.

Jane Andersen of Kingston was presented with a coveted silver trophy-of-the-day donated by Mr. and Mrs. George Hard to the rider who exhibited the best deportment with the horse for the day. She was congratulated by her fellow riders during the sportsmanship march.

Officials Honored

The day's program opened with a drill and salute to the flag, with the riders, all under 19 years of age, taking part in an inspiring ceremony.

The next Junior Riding Day is scheduled Oct. 4, with judging starting at 10 a. m. at the Ohayo Mountain ring.

A tribute was given the judges of the day's events — John Roosa and Ferd Gildersleeve — who donated their services for this event. Freilan VanDeBogart of Bearsville chaperoned the young riders who camped Saturday night at the field and entertained them with an early breakfast at his home in Bearsville.

Woodstock LL Sets Meeting

The annual meeting of the Woodstock Township Little League will be held Tuesday, Sept. 30, at 8 p. m. in Odd Fellows Hall at Bearsville, league president, Alex Sharpe, Jr., announced today.

Sharpe added that the meeting is open to interested residents of the township and asks that parents of boys of Little League, particularly, attend the session.

Plans for the advancement of work of the new Little League field on the Bearsville flats, opposite Ernie Bark's gas station, will be disclosed. Work already has been started there, preparing the field for the seeding of grass. Further details will be announced at the meeting.

Season Starts Sept. 23

Art Carpouzis Heads YMCA Basketball Loop

Art Carpouzis was elected president of the YMCA basketball league last night. He replaces John Godwin, who was named to the five-man protest board.

Nick Nagele is vice president; Richard Dempsey, treasurer; and Dick Case, secretary. Other members on the protest board are Ken Dyson, Lou Schafer, Case and Nagele.

Play in the Class A and B leagues wil begin Sept. 23 with a tripleheader in the renovated "Y" gymnasium. There are 10 teams in the A division and four in the B loop.

A new electric scoreboard has been erected. New backboards, nets and hoops have been added and the hardwoods were refinished.

Sept. 24—Katsbaan Tavern vs. Wimpy's; Amato's Trucking vs. Accord.

Sept. 27—Bombers vs. Jets; Blvd. Gulf vs. Backs.

Montreal-Leafs Open Seven-Game Series Tonight

MONTREAL (AP) — Montreal and Toronto get away to a delayed start tonight in the final round of the International League final playoffs with southpaw Bob Giallombardo of the pennant winning Royals opposing right hander Ed Blake of the second place Maple Leafs.

The Royals and Leafs were scheduled to open the final series Wednesday night. Wet grounds and threatening weather forced postponement of the inaugural of the best-of-seven series—the first all-Canadian final in the history of the league.

Giallombardo won 12 of his 21 decisions during the regular season and posted a 3-1 mark against the Leafs. In the semifinal playoffs, he lost his only game to Columbus.

Blake, 9-6 during the regular campaign, failed to defeat the Royals and was charged with two setbacks. In the playoffs, he defeated Rochester in one game.

Montreal still will be without the services of veteran second baseman Mike Goliat, who was called to Detroit by the illness of his mother.

The Royals, who beat Toronto by 2½ games for the pennant, received another honor Wednesday when left-hander Tom Lasorda was named the league's most valuable pitcher. He was the circuit's leading pitcher with 18 victories but just nosed out Bobby Tiefenauer, Toronto's star relief hurler, who posted a 1.89 earned run average.

Beatrice Cullum Cards 3-Under 71 In Ringer Event

Mrs. Beatrice Cullum, who developed into one of Wiltwyck Country Club's finest women golfers this season, led the 1958 Class A Ringer tournament with a neat 3-under-par 71.

Mrs. Cullum compiled nines of 37 and 34 to go three under women's par of 74 in the 17-24 handicap bracket. She compiled five birdies—on the 5th, 8th, 10th, 11th and 16th holes.

Mrs. Robert Daley and Mrs. Prescott Newell tied with 77s in the 25-32 handicap bracket, while Mrs. Lincoln Christensen shaded Mrs. Sam Greenspan, 88 to 89, in the 33-40 bracket.

Mrs. Frank Prior was runner-up in Class 1 with 73 and Mrs. Harry Shaub third at 77. Mrs. Edward Strohsahl took third in Class 2 with an 84, while Mrs. Howard Terwilliger placed third in Class 3 with 91.

Mrs. Cullum's card:

Par out	454	434	535—37
Mrs. Cullum	464	424	625—37
Par in	535	444	354—37
Mrs. Cullum	425	444	354—34

Colgate Prepares For Passing Attack

HAMILTON, N. Y. (AP)—Colgate is setting up defenses for an expected passing barrage from Cornell in the football opener at Ithaca Sept. 27.

Coach Fred Rice drilled the squad Wednesday on Cornell pass patterns and said he would stress defense against aerials throughout the week.

Meanwhile, second-team fullback Bernie Dailey of Gouverneur gained on Don Zimmerman of Woodcliff Lake, N. J., in a battle for the starting post.

Four Tandems Share Favorite Role in Doubles

Four teams have been named co-favorites for the annual Twaalfskill Doubles tournament which will be played over the 36-hole route Saturday and Sunday.

The favorite teams and combined handicaps are: Gene Jordan-Robert Herzog (27); J. W. Johnson-John D. Schoonmaker (27); Harry Kapreilian-Fred Ertel (28) and Louis J. Smith-Dr. John Olivet (26).

The remainder of the field includes: Henry Hartley-Charles Vogel (25); Burton Haver-William Merrill (30); George Hughes-Gus Brinnier (20); Richard Wood-Harold F. King (37); Judge Gaffney-George Rusk (33); Ed Remmert-John Larkin (28); James Fuller-James Berardi (40); Eugene Berardi-Robert S. Russell (26).

Also, Judge Louis G. Bruhn-George Swart (35); Robert O'Reilly-Dr. Michael Diacovo (29); George Schneider-Henry Brigham (33); Dr. Douw Meyers--James L. Quinn.

Only Traffic Slows Elliott

MELBOURNE (AP) — Australia's miracle runner Herb Elliott did his slowest mile today — 13 minutes, 15.7 seconds.

He was riding through the streets of Melbourne where people gave him a hero's welcome.

Elliott, who this year has run a mile under four minutes 10 times and has established a new world record time of 3:54.5, is here to talk about his future with his employers, a chemical company.

Three Teams Drop Out

HVBL Starts Saturday, Forst Formost Entered

The Hudson Valley Bowling League, two teams less than its 12-team complement of last season, will swing into action Saturday night.

Prospect Dairy, one of the four Kingston teams in the loop last year, will be among the missing when play begins. The team captain failed to register a team before the deadline. Florida and Shanahan's Construction of Ellenville are the two other teams which have dropped out.

New Teams

Forst Formost of Kingston and Walden's Orange Recreation are the new entries. Forst Formost makes its reappearance in the circuit after a year absence with a galaxy of stars which last year represented the Five Merchants.

Larry Petersen is captain of the newly - sponsored squad. Charlie Gildersleeve, Harold Broskie, Tom Carlino, Buster Ferraro and Petersen make up the team. Gildersleeve and Broskie were members of Prospect Dairy last season.

Oster Out

Jones Dairy, runnerups to Dutchess Recreation, are back and so are the Saccoman Jewelers. Jones Dairy will be minus one of the Hudson Valley's finer bowlers, Jerry Oster, who has taken over as manager of Sangi's Bowlero, and will be unable to bowl in the Saturday circuit.

Captain John Ferraro has not named a replacement for Oster, who won the State Proprietor's Bowling title last year. It is possible that Johnny Schatzel will be in the No. 1 spot. Chris Gallo, Jim Amendola, Jack Ferraro and John Ferraro are the other keglers on the roster.

Forst Formost at Ellenville Channel Master

Walden's Chaffee Market at Liberty

Middletown Merchants at Dutchess Rec

Saccoman's Jewelers at Newburgh

Orange Rec at Jones Dairy

NFL's Passers Only Ivy Fear

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Coach Frank Ivy will start biting his nails on fourth down instead of third this year. But he doesn't expect to find any radically different in his switch back from Canadian to American pro football.

For four seasons a highly successful coach of the Edmonton Eskimoes, the Oklahoman is now masterminding the Chicago Cardinals of the National Football League.

Garland Garnsey Hottest Driver

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Veteran driver Garland Garnsey, winning 7 of his last 9 starts and three triples in five nights, is the hottest item in New York harness racing.

Garnsey, of Canton, romped home Wednesday night with Fair Hallie, Black Watch and Sincerely at Vernon Downs.

Despite a downpour, 1,819 fans turned out at Monticello and saw Brietta Hanover score her sixth consecutive victory. The 3-year-old bay filly won the feature Class B $1,000 pace and paid $8.

Kristy Jo Key and Philbert Hanover, living up to favorite roles, came through in the mud and rain at Saratoga Raceway.

Kristy Jo, driven by 74-year-old Lowell McLeod of South Barre, Vt. a great-grandfather, captured the $2,000 Witherbee 3-year-old trot. She paid $5.40.

Philbert Hanover, with Don Huff at the reins, won a stretch duel from Robert W in the $1,800 Clarksville pace and returned $5.20.

Leon Canton drove Handy Bill to a length victory over Lionel Hanover in the $2,500 Anthony Hanover mile trot at Batavia. The 7-year-old gelding's time on the sloppy track was 2:10 2-5. He paid $3.80.

At Yonkers Raceway, Poplar Perry, 11-year-old gelding by Volomite, held the lead throughout in winning the feature Class AA trot. His time for the mile over a slow track was 2:08 2-5.

Lane Supports Old Bonus Rule

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Frank Lane, one of baseball's most fiery executives, says he is going to suggest that the old bonus rule, with some changes, be put back into effect.

Lane, general manager of the Cleveland Indians, Wednesday told a meeting here of 59 minor league officials and major loop farm directors that baseball must adopt a new bonus rule to "save itself from its own stupidity and bankruptcy."

He said he plans to suggest the return of the old bonus rule when a nine - member committee, of which he is chairman, meets with Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick next week in New York.

Lane added:

"Baseball must pay bonuses of some kind to high school standouts so we can compete with college coaches who offer the kids those freeride scholarships. . . . if we make all first-year players eligible to the draft, it might stop some of these big bonuses."

Lane said baseball had paid out six million dollars to "untested, fuzzyf-aced kids since last December, and that money could be put to much better use aiding the minor league operators."

Hard-Running Backs Forte of Onteora 11

Indians, Sawyers Impress in Drill, Teams Open Sat.

The football season is just two days away for Onteora Central and Saugerties High who open the area campaign in separate contests Saturday afternoon. And if the bruising scrimmage these two teams staged yesterday is any indication, there is a lot in store for their respective fans.

The Indians, UCAL champions last season, will travel to Pawling for a non-league encounter, and the Sawyers will be at Red Hook.

The workout was a costly one for the Indians who may lose the service of Pete Tosi, 270-pound tackle for the opener. Tosi suffered a knee injury during the scrimmage, but it was believed not serious to keep him sidelined for any length of time.

Coach Ed Witko was impressed with the performance of his squad on a sloppy field which apparently didn't hinder his runners too much. Bob Shulman, a converted end, running from one of the halfback slots, and Tom McCrosson reeled off long gains against the Saugerties defense. Bruce Wiederspiel, hard-charging fullback, who packs plenty of power in his 190-pound frame, was outstanding. Several times he bowled over three and four tacklers in gaining tremendous yardage. A vicious blocker, the All-UCAL fullback and certain to be selected again, is a take-charge guy on defense.

The Onteora line showed signs of weakness at times during the two-hour drill. The Sawyers have a good running attack, but there is a lot to be desired on defense.

Donny Mormile and Bob Francello sparked an offensive drive which penetrated Onteora's defense, but after that the Indians tightened up and kept the action at midfield.

Nicoletti May Win Halfback Spot

ITHACA, N. Y. (AP) — Dick Nicoletti, a 6-foot, 2-inch halfback from Brooklyn, looms as a strong possibility for a starting role on the Cornell football team.

Stengel Denies Rift Among Yankee Players

DETROIT (AP) — Casey Stengel says his New York Yankees are just normal, healthy, red-blooded, playful American boys.

They do not fight among themselves, he says, and there have been no fights between players and coaches. The whole squad, says Stengel, is saving its strength for the Milwaukee Braves and the World Series.

The New York Post said Wednesday that Coach Ralph Houk and relief ace Ryne Duren "engaged in a bloody battle" during the Yankees' victory party Sunday night.

"A lot of bunk," Stengel growled. "Just a lot of newspaper bunk.'

Houk denied it, too, and Duren was in Wisconsin attending his grandfather's funeral. Other Yankee players said it was just horseplay and some writers covering the club said there was no exchange of punches.

The Post said the fight took place on a train carrying the club from Kansas City, where the Yankees clinched another pennant Sunday, to Detroit. "By agreement the sports writers traveling with the team kept it secret," said the Post. "Today it leaked out."

Everyone seems to agree on one point — that Duren apparently had been drinking and that there was at least a slight disorder involving the pitcher and the coach. Houk was in his seat, chewing on an unlighted cigar. Duren pushed it into Houk's face.

"I never left my seat," said Houk Wednesday when asked about the incident. "I reached up with my hand and brushed him away. My ring caught him around the eye, I guess, but there were no punches and there was no fight."

One of the New York writers said that he, Duren and Houk had breakfast together Monday morning. "They were laughing and talking about their kids," said the writer. "Everything was fine and dandy."

Bill Stafford Hurt, Triplets Cop Playoffs

BINGHAMTON, N. Y. (AP)—The Binghamton Triplets Wednesday night overcame trouble that would have floored them in mid season and won the Class A Eastern Baseball League playoff.

They defeated Lancaster 5-3, depriving the Red Roses of a triple crown. And the Triplets did it although their best pitcher, Bill Stafford, was injured in the first inning after giving up two hits and a run.

Lancaster won the Southern Division title, defeating York in the semifinal, and took the league pennant by finishing the season with the best overall sstanding.

The Red Roses extended its final best-of-five series for the Richardson Cup to the fifth game, then lost.

Stafford wasn't hurt seriously when he collided with third baseman Henry Mitchell while chasing a grounder, but he had to leave the game. However, relievers Jerry Neal and Don Nichols held the Red Roses to six hits. Nichols was the winner.

Gordio Seyfried (17-8) who had the league's best won-lost record this season, left the game in the seventh when the Triplets scored three runs, to go ahead 5-3. Seyfried was the loser.

George McCue's double with one on, and Gordy Figard's single in the fourth netted the Red Roses a 3-2 lead, which they held until the seventh.

Lancaster stranded three men in the sixth and threatened again in the eighth with runners on second and third and two out. Neal, however, got Al Paschal to ground out.

Hal Charnofsky was the big hitter for the Triplets. He collected two for four—a first inning double that led to the Trips' first run, and a solid homer in the third that gave them a 2-1 lead. He batted .714 in the series. His hits included three homers, three doubles and a triple.

Wittenberg Club Slates Trapshoot

The Wittenberg Sportsmen's Club will hold a membership trapshoot at the club Sunday, Sept. 21, starting at 10:30 a. m.

All members are eligible and at that time a team to represent the Wittenberg club at the Ulster County Federation shoot will be drawn.

Cardinals Finally Axe Hutchinson

Solly Hemus Busch Choice For Field Job

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals fired Manager Fred Hutchinson Wednesday but won't name his uccessor until the end of the season.

The replacement undoubtedly will be former Cardinal Solly Hemus, known to be the favorite of owner August A. Busch.

In announcing that Hutchinson was out, General Manager Bing Devine said the Cardinals would announce a new manager after the end of the season and before the World Series.

With Hutchinson went his three coaches, Stan Hack, Terry Moore and Al Hollingsworth. Hack agreed to manage the Redbirds until the end of the season. Then he's on his way out of the Cardinal organization, as is Moore. Hollingsworth might be offered another job in the system.

The only stumbling block in the way of Hemus' selection appeared to be terms the Philadelphia Phils might want for him. At second base for the Phillies, he has been one of the few live wires on that team.

Eddie Stanky, now a coach with the Cleveland Indians, will be with the Cardinals next year. He'll act as a "baseball brain," with a final say on trades, bonus players and rookies.

Favored for a pitching coach is Eddie Lopat. Next in line is Sal Maglie. The Cardinals would have to obtain a release of Lopat from the New York Yankees, whose Richmond farm he manages. If he should turn down the job, Maglie can switch from Cardinal player to Cardinal coach.

Hutchinson won't be out of a job very long if he doesn't want to be. Wednesday night he attended the Cardinals game against the Milwaukee Braves, which the Cards won 5-3, with Dewey Soriano, general manager of the Seattle club.

Soriano, a long-time friend of Hutchinson's, said, "I've made Hutch such a good offer he'll have a hard time turning it down."

The new coaching staff will probably include Johnny Keane, now manager of the Cardinals' farm club at Omaha, and Harry Walker, with the Cardinals' Houston club.

The Cardinals are willing to part with a large amount of cash for Hemus, a .289 hitter at 34 years old, but the Phils reportedly want two players also. He would be the fourth St. Louis manager in five years.

Braves Number Still Three

Move Into Third, Defeat Yankees For 6th Straight

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Detroit is third in American League standings, but they're still the tail-end Tigers, waiting until the pennant is gone before making a season-end sprint for a share of the World Series loot.

It's an old habit with the Tigers. And it has cost two managers—Bucky Harris and Jack Tighe—their jobs.

In 1956, the Tigers roared through the last weeks and finished fifth.

When their 1958 start indicated something worse, Tighe was ousted and Bill Norman took over an eighth-place club June 10.

Move Into Third

The Tigers moved into third last weekend and built a two-game hold on the spot with a 5-2 victory over the Yankees Wednesday. It was their sixth straight win. Again the Tigers are the only team to beat the champs for the season, with a 12-10 bulge, just as in 1956.

Boston stayed tied for fourth with idle Cleveland by splitting a double-header at Kansas City. The A's won the opener 6-3, then lost 4-2. Rain postponed Baltimore's game at Chicago.

Jim Bunning (13-10), last year's 20-game winner, gave up a third-inning, two-run homer by Mickey Mantle, his 41st.

Ted Loses Ground

Williams lost ground to Boston teammate Pete Runnels in the bat race. Both homered in the opener, but Runnels pushed his leading average to .322 with 4-for-8 in the pair. Williams, sitting out the second game, was 2-for-4 for a second best .318. Kansas City's Bob Cerv was 2-for-8, tying Cleveland's Vic Power and Detroit's injured Harvey Kuenn for third at .315.

Harry Chiti's grand slam won the opener for the A's and Ray Herbert (8-7) against Ike Delock (12-8), who has lost five straight. Rookie Bill Monbouquette (3-4) won the nightcap as the Red Sox ended an eight-game slump on homers by Bill Renna, Don Buddin and Frank Malzone off Ned Garver (12-11).

Jordan Upsets Gaspar Ortega

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) —Lightweight Don Jordan, punching precisely and accurately, took the shortest route to an upset, 10-round split decision over Gaspar Ortega Wednesday night.

Jordan weighed 141½, Ortega 145½.

"He's strong and durable, but all his punches are wide, looping punches," said Jordan after beating the second-ranked contender for the welterweight title.

"I figured a short punch would beat him. So when he threw his looping punches, I threw short ones, and mine got there first," Jordan said.

Jordan, ranked sixth among lightweights by the National Boxing Assn., carried the fight to Ortega in the first round, but after that mainly was content to counterpunch. The fight was televised nationally (ABC).

There were no knockdowns. In the fourth, Jordan landed a low blow. Ortega's knee bent nearly to the canvas, but he didn't go down.

Hartack Joins 2000th Club

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Six weeks on the sidelines with a broken leg ruined Bill Hartack's chances of winning his fourth straight riding title. But the 26-year-old veteran of the saddle has the distinction of reaching one of his goals. He joined the exclusive 2,000-winner club.

Hartack, who won the 1955 jockey crown with 417 victories, the '56 title with 347 and the '57 championship with 341, reached the 2,000 mark Wednesday when he piloted Herald Wind ($5.80) to victory in the fifth race at Atlantic City.

The Johnstown, Pa., native had almost as hard time getting No. 2,000 as he did his first winner at Waterford Park on Oct. 14, 1952. He needed only three to reach the figure since the first of September.

Philip J. Baker, general manager of the New Jersey Seashore Track, made sure that a desk set acknowledging Hartack's achievement was in the winner's circle each day. But it wasn't until Wednesday that Baker got to present it.

Hartack joined a group that includes Johnny Longden, now sidelined with a broken leg, Eddie Arcaro, Ted Atkinson, Johnny Adams, Ralph Neves, Willie Shoemaker, Steven Brooks, Johnny Westrope, H. A. Keene, F. Fernandez and Jimmy Stout.

Since coming to the races six years ago, Hartack has had 8,313 mounts. His record shows 2,000 winners, 1,420 seconds and 1,143 thirds for total earnings of $10,235,040. This year he has ridden 186 winners and his mounts have earned $1,177,664, a far-cry from the record of $3,060,501 he established last year while hanging up 43 stake victories.

Spahn Beaten, Hack Finishes Out as Pilot

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The St. Louis Cardinals, without a manager and with only a slim hope for a fourth place finish, are back at the old stand — making life a bit tougher than it should be for the Milwaukee Braves.

It was in 1956 that the Cardinals, settled in fourth, knocked the Braves out of the National League pennant. Last season, when the Braves thought they had it all locked up, they had to put on another drive to knock off the second place Cardinals, who had closed within two games.

Wednesday night, hours after Fred Hutchinson was fired officially as field boss, the Cards took the Braves 5-3, knocking off 20-game winner Warren Spahn, a longtime nemesis, to boot. That delayed the Braves' run to a second consecutive flag. Their magic number still is three over second place Pittsburgh.

The Chicago Cubs tied Los Angeles for sixth by beating Philadelphia 6-2 in the only other NL game scheduled. It was held to seven innings by rain.

Gene Green drove in two runs, with his 12th homer and a triple for the Cards, who came off with a 3-3 record against Spahn for the season. Larry Jackson (13-12) was the winner with Jim Brosnan's relife in the ninth.

Stan Hack, fired as a coach in the St. Louis house cleaning, agreed to direct the Cards for the rest of the season. The Cards' front office refused to name a manager for next year—likely ex-infielder Solly Hemus, now with the Phils—to replace Hutch, who was the fifth to get the gate this season in the majors.

Rookie Bob Anderson (3-1) beat the Phils with a five-hitter, and held batting leader Richie Ashburn hitless in two at-bats, dropping his average to .342 for .004 edge over the Cards' injury-idled Stan Musial. Ray Semproch (13-11), once a rookie of the year candidate, lost it, giving up a two-run homer to Ernie Banks, his 47th.

Bye Bye Byrd 5-2 Choice in $65,000 Jug

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP) —The Little Brown Jug, with a dozen speedy three-year-old pacers battling for a $65,252 purse, goes today over Delaware County Fairground's half-mile track.

The weatherman promised clear and cool weather, after heavy rains had washed away the Tuesday-Wednesday Grand Circuit program.

Should the elements ignore the forecast and force postponement of the sidewheeler classic, it will go Friday.

Bye Bye Byrd, the world record holder with a 1:57 4-5 clocking, continued to rule as the favorite at 5-2 as the 2:30 post time neared. Close up was O'Brien Hanover, half the Del Miller entry.

O'Brien Hanover is the leading pacer in the three-year-old money-won list with $104,000 for the year, and his 2:01 4-5 in winning the Messenger Stake is the fastest any of the field has gone over a twice-around oval.

Norfolk Schools Ready to Close

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — The closure of public schools under Virginia's massive resistance laws threatened Norfolk today as a federal judge prepared to rule on a motion that would allow the school board to assign 17 Negroes to white schools.

If the Negroes are assigned, six schools with an enrollment of some 10,000 pupils apparently will not open as scheduled Monday.

One school—Warren County High at Front Royal, with an enrollment of about 1,000—already has been closed under the state's anti-integration laws. Lane High and Venable Elementary in Charlottesville, with a combined enrollment of 1,700, also face the threat of state closure Monday.

Injunction Granted

The Norfolk school board, under a federal desegregation order for 18 months, told Federal dist. Judge Walter E. Hoffman in August it was prepared to assign the 17 Negroes to the six white schools. An injunction granted by two justices of the Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals barred the board from assigning any pupils—white or Negro—to schools.

After a 2½-hour hearing Wednesday night, Hoffman withheld until today a ruling on the board's request that he dissolve the injunction. But he indicated he would grant the request by remarking that it is not only within his power but also his duty to do so if the injunction interferes with the execution of the desegregation order.

Chief Judge Simon E. Sobeloff of the 4th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals declined Wednesday to stay a lower court order admitting 12 Negroes to two Charlottesville schools. The order is effective Monday, when the schools are scheduled to open.

Central Registration

Johnson Still Critical, Hurt in Car Mishap

Earl Johnson, 35, of New York city, who was injured early Wednesday morning in a one-car mishap on the old Greenfield road near Tamarack Lodge, Greenfield Park, was still critical today at Veterans Memorial Hospital, Ellenville.

Hospital authorities said X-rays were being taken this morning.

The 1956 sedan, operated by Johnson, was proceeding west on the old Greenfield road at an unknown rate of speed when it went off the right side of the road and smashed head-on into a stone wall bordering the Tamarack Country Club.

Photos Being Taken For H-C Celebration

Two photographs of the State Department of Commerce were in the area Wednesday along the Hudson River and Rondout Creek taking pictures for the "Highways of History" brochure being prepared for the Hudson-Champlain celebration next year.

According to the Albany office of William D. Carlebach, deputy commissioner, two commerce department photographers were in the area on a State Department of Public Works launch and tied up on Rondout Creek for the stay overnight.

Newburgh Man Is Held in Car Theft

Thomas J. Farro, 34, of Newburgh, was arrested Wednesday morning charged with grand larceny second degree involving the theft of an automobile early Tuesday in the town of Plattekill.

He was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Patsy Conforti of Highland, waived examination and was committed to the Ulster County jail to await action of the grand jury.

The car, owned by Helen Lapoma, was taken about 4 a. m. Tuesday. It was recovered near the John Crist farm in the Pine Bush area about 8 a. m. Wednesday.

Montgomery state police found the car in possession of Farro, it was reported. Farro was turned over to Highland state police.
